Cass County's Tax Load Has Been Reduced $128,448 By GOVERNOR R. L. COCHRAN

In 1929-30 this county's State Tax Load, as the result of legislative appropriations supported by Senator Dwight Griswold was $263,234
 In 1935-36, under the administration of Governor Cochran, this county's tax load is $134,786
 This is a reduction in the property tax load of $128,448

These figures may be verified at the county treasurer's office. In each instance they are for two years, representing the biennial period. The 1929, 1930 and 1935 figures are from the footings of the tax list. The 1936 figures are based on the taxed value of the county, to which has been applied the state tax rate of 1.76 mills, including the intangible tax. The population of this county is 37,834, and that reduction amounts to $7.20 for every man, woman and child in the county.
 The total property tax load for the state of Nebraska for 1929-30 was $15,340,477. For 1935-36 it is $5,128,434, a reduction of $7,441,993.

Car-Truck Smash Near Louisville Monday Night

Car Driven by Tony Bauers of Spencer Sidewipes Truck Driven by William Inghrim.

Monday night shortly after 7 o'clock an automobile driven by Tony Bauers of Spencer, Nebraska, sideswiped a rock truck driven by William Inghrim of Louisville, overturning the truck and injuring the members of the auto party, altho not dangerously.

The car was coming east at the time of the accident while the truck which was owned by August Ossenkop, contractor, was going west with a load of rock, the car striking the truck so that it was turned over.

The accident occurred near the home of Arthur Hanson on the Stander farm seven miles southwest of Louisville, who assisted in taking the injured parties on into this city and from where they were taken on into Omaha. The members of the auto party suffered what seemed minor injuries.

The auto party was en route from their home to Iowa where they had expected to visit.

TERRY CARPENTER HERE

Terry Carpenter, democratic nominee for United States senator, will speak in Plattsmouth at 8 o'clock p. m., on October 22 at the district court room.

Mr. Carpenter is making a very aggressive campaign over the state of Nebraska with a sound truck and is anxious to place his side of the campaign before the people. He is going from town to town, discussing the issues that confront Nebraska people as he sees them. As all known, the race for United States senator in Nebraska is attracting attention not only in this state but all over the country. The race presents a situation that is unique in the political history of Nebraska, with three candidates vying for votes.

Mr. Carpenter is the regularly nominated democratic candidate. He carried 69 counties in the April primary election and lost some 16 more by less than 25 votes. But despite this record, the democratic convention in Omaha endorsed the candidacy of Senator George W. Norris who was not a candidate at that time but has since entered the race. The third man in the race is Robert G. Simmons, republican candidate whom Mr. Carpenter defeated for congress in 1932. This situation presents many new and novel angles in Nebraska politics, and everywhere he goes Mr. Carpenter is addressing large crowds who want to hear his views.

Derailment at Ralston Ties Up Rail Traffic

Burlington Forced to Send All Traffic Through Oreadpolis and the Short Line Today.

From Tuesday's Daily
 This morning the traffic on the Lincoln-Omaha line of the Burlington was closed when a derailment at Ralston at an early hour today closed the tracks to travel and forced the handling of all traffic east and west through the short line from Oreadpolis to Ashland.

The passenger trains in the morning that travel over the Omaha line were sent on from the east through Oreadpolis and then to Ashland and on to Lincoln.
 The cars causing the blocking of the tracks were finally removed and the tracks repaired and traffic resumed over the line by 10 o'clock.

VISITORS HERE OVER SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Webb, of Sac City, Iowa, arrived in Plattsmouth Saturday afternoon to enjoy the week end here as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Webb and family. Mr. Webb is an uncle of E. A. Webb of this city and this is the first time they have ever been in Plattsmouth, they making the trip by automobile. Mr. Webb is a member of the city council at Sac City, as is his nephew in this city, and while here had the opportunity of meeting a number of the Plattsmouth city officials, discussing the mode of operation of the local government and comparing it with that in his own community.

He says the drouth was not as bad in their immediate locality as generally over the states of Iowa and Nebraska, and was able to realize a yield of around 25 bushels to the acre on the quarter section farmed by his son-in-law and about 20 bushels to the acre of fine quality seed corn on another quarter which he owns a few miles north of Sac City. He retired from farm life some fifteen years ago to operate a Farmers elevator in Sac City up until the last couple of years. He has been a member of the council there during the past twelve years.

Much of the land in that vicinity was cross-tiled for drainage years ago when heavy rainfall was the rule and not the exception as in late years, and this rich lowland has yielded well in the drouth years.

While here, Mr. Webb was a pleasant caller at the Journal office to visit with members of the force. They returned home today.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily
 Milo Price was the speaker at the meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club last evening at the home of Mrs. George L. Farley. His topic was the "Spanish Situation." He drew parallels between the situations in Italy, Germany, and France and intimated that United States might study the situations with advantage, in regard to their swing toward the left.

Miss Dorothy Glock played as piano solos Alt Wein by Godowsky, and Lotus Land by Scott. During the business meeting Mrs. L. W. Egenberger outlined plans for the Planting Club.

Assistant hostesses were Misses Jessie Whelan, Jessie Peterson, and Mrs. Fritz Fricke.

MAGICIAN ENTERTAINS

Tuesday afternoon at the regular weekly luncheon of the Rotary club, the members were entertained by Lenzer, magician, who had earlier in the day appeared at the high school convocation. The magician gave many baffling tricks that were followed with the greatest of interest by the Rotarians and kept them baffled.

The meeting was in charge of L. S. Devoe, superintendent of schools, who had arranged the excellent program of the day.

Dow Armstrong member of the high school faculty, was a guest of the club.

UNDERGOES TONSILECTOMY

From Monday's Daily
 Miss Ruth Ferrie this morning underwent a tonsilectomy at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha. She has been suffering from tonsil trouble for some time and it was decided that an operation at this time was best. It is hoped that Miss Ferrie in a short time may be able to resume her usual activities.
