

SOCIAL

Entertain for Margaret Will—Miss Mildred Knoffke entertained at a dinner in honor of Miss Margaret Will, who is leaving to make her home in California tomorrow, last evening. Misses Rachel Robertson and Edna Mae Petersen were also guests. The girls spent last night at the Will Robertson home and had breakfast and lunch there to-day.

Entertains for Guests—Mrs. I. L. Kocian entertained a number of guests Wednesday afternoon honoring Mrs. Carl Roessler of Chicago. Halloween games were played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Roessler, Mrs. Louis Swoboda and Miss Mary Holly.

Entertain for Visitor—Mrs. W. D. Glock of Plainview and Miss Dorothy Glock were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Briggs at a dinner last evening. Later Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wheeler and daughter, Shirley, came to spend the evening. Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Glock were schoolmates. Mrs. Glock, who has been visiting with her daughter, Miss Dorothy, and father, W. P. Cook, left to-day for her home.

Surprised on Birthday—Mr. and Mrs. Del Sylvester entertained at a surprise birthday party for "Skippy" Higgins Monday evening. Bunco was played. First prizes went to Tony Katherine and Alma Vanlaningham. Consolations were taken by Dale Hatley and Margaret Hoehar. The guest of honor was presented with a gold cameo ring. Those attending were Tony Katherine, Lee Anville, Jack Chadwick, Keith McFarland, Bill Woolsey, Jack Forbes, Dale Huley, Avis and May-oune Sylvester, Berta Helen Ault, Margaret Hoehar, Irene Holcomb, June Rice, Amelia Kell, Alma Vanlaningham, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Farney, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sedlak, "Skippy" Higgins, and Mr. and Mrs. Del Sylvester.

From Friday's Daffy Delta Deck—Mrs. Tom Walling was hostess to the Delta Deck bridge club last evening. Mrs. Lillian Livingston won high prize; Mrs. Frank Gobelman, second; and Mrs. Henry McMaken low.

Thursday Afternoon Bridge—Mrs. L. S. Pucelik entertained the Thursday afternoon bridge club yesterday. Mrs. W. V. Ryan was a guest of the club. Prizes were taken by Mrs. Hilt Martin and Mrs. Carl Ofe.

Covered Dish Luncheon—Members of the Methodist Home Missionary society met at the church yesterday for a one o'clock covered fish luncheon. Devotionals were led by Mrs. V. C. Wright. Presentation was made of the study course for the year and the members voted to use the magazine of the Home Missionary Society as their first course in the study this year.

M. O. Birthday Club—Mrs. M. S. Kerr was hostess to the M. O. Birthday club yesterday afternoon. Halloween games were played. Decorations and favors at the two course luncheon carried out the Halloween motif.

Will Family Guests at Social Affairs—A number of dinners and luncheons have been given the past week in honor of Mr. T. J. Will and son, James, and daughter, Margaret, who plan to leave soon to join Mr. Will in California.

AUCTION

Saturday, Oct. 31 at 7:30 P. M.

Next Door to Journal Office
2—Complete Homes—2

The Roy Stewart and Mrs. Bushnell Furniture will be sold in this sale

You will Find
Living Room Sets, Bedroom Sets, Occasional Tables, Axminster Rugs, Radio, Piano, Day Bed, Dining Room Set, nearly new Voss Washer, Oil Stove, Metal Ice Box, Cupboard, Book Case, Drain Tubs, Gas Stoves, Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Dressers, Rockers, Chairs, Baby Beds, Cots, Dishes, Tools and other articles too numerous to mention.

Without Doubt the Biggest Sale of Furniture Ever Held in Plattsmouth

MAX WONERA & REX YOUNG
Auctioneers

in California. Monday evening they were guests at a 6:30 dinner at the J. C. Petersen home. On Tuesday a dinner was given in their honor at the Will Seay home. They were guests at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Roberts Wednesday noon. Thursday evening they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Todd.

St. Paul's Ladies Meet—Mrs. Frank Schaknies and Mrs. Martha Wise were hostesses to the ladies of the St. Paul's church yesterday afternoon. Over seventy attended the meeting. Miss Leona Meisinger played a piano solo "Italian Nights." "Influence of Small Things" and "A Busy Farmer's Wife" were given as readings by Miss Dorothy Siemonet. Group singing was accompanied by Rev. Pahl.

From Saturday's Daily: Shower for Bride-to-be—Mrs. Marcia Davis and Miss Winifred Rainey entertained at the home of Mrs. Davis, at a linen shower in honor of Miss Helen Schulz last evening. Miss Schulz's engagement and approaching marriage was announced recently.

The evening was spent in playing games and preparing a bride's book. The expressman delivered a trunk bearing Miss Schulz's future name (Mrs. Robert Hartford) to the Davis home. Upon opening, it was found to contain many beautiful gifts from the friends of the guest of honor.

Refreshments were served to the seventeen guests at small tables with yellow candles in brown holders as centerpieces. Yellow and brown nut cups with yellow umbrellas over them were used at the individual places and autumn leaves were scattered over the tables.

Out of town guests were the mother, Mrs. Harry Schulz, and sisters, Mildred and Mary Jean, of the bride-to-be, all of Stella.

Birthday Dinner—Mr. and Mrs. Will Ofe entertained at a birthday dinner in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Richard Lins of Omaha, last evening. Autumn colors were used in the table decorations. The guests played Finch during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lins and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ofe of Omaha and Mrs. Henriette Ofe were guests.

Degree of Honor—Mrs. Henriette Ofe was hostess to the meeting of the Degree of Honor society yesterday afternoon. Following the business meeting a social gathering was held. Mrs. Fred Haffke was assistant hostess.

Honor Mrs. Roessler—Mrs. Carl Roessler was honored at a party given by Mrs. Frank Horsak Friday evening. One table of pinocchio at which Mrs. Faith won high and Mary Holy low, and one table of bunco at which Mrs. Kocian won high and Mrs. Howland low, furnished the entertainment. Those present were: Mrs. C. Roessler, Mrs. Louis Swoboda, Mrs. I. L. Kocian, Mrs. Fred Howland, Mrs. Ernest Janda, Mrs. Hendrickson, Mrs. Joe Faith, Beatrice Krejci and Mary Holy.

Farewell Luncheon—On Friday, Edna Mae Peterson gave a farewell luncheon for Margaret Will, who leaves to make her home in California. Other guests were Rachel Robertson and Mildred Knoffke. Snapshots were taken to treasure as keepsakes.

Entertain at Dinner—Judge and Mrs. C. S. Wortman of South Bend were guests at the Mike Kaffenberger at a 5 o'clock dinner last evening. Afterward the group attended the Democratic rally in Rock Bluffs.

T. M. T. M. Club—Mrs. Fred Howland was hostess to the T. M. T. M. club Thursday. Prizes were won by Mrs. I. L. Kocian, high, and Mrs. Howland, low.

P. E. O.—Mrs. P. T. Heineman gave short reviews of a number of new books which she recommended for reading at the meeting of the P. E. O. yesterday afternoon. Books named were Roll River by Boyd, Take All to Nebraska by Winther, Vein of Iron by Glasgow, The Exile by Buck, The Mountain by Smith, The Home Place by Thomas, Edna, His Wife, by Barnes, Gone With the Wind by Mitchell, The Man Who Caught the Weather by Aldrich. In the non-fiction class she reviewed Christina of Sweden by Goldsmith, Mary, Queen of Scots and the Islands by Zweig, Life With Father, by Day, North to the Orient, by Lidberg, Listen for a Lonesome Drum, by Carmer, and Wake Up and Live by Bande. Children's books named were The Smiths and Rusty by Dolglish, Caddie Woodlawn by Brink, and Babies by Nichols. Mrs. Henry Herold was hostess to the ladies.

Alvo News

Mr. and Mrs. Frisbee were in Lincoln Tuesday.

W. C. Timblin and family were Lincoln shoppers Tuesday morning.

John Fischer of Eagle and family spent Sunday at the George Frisbee home.

Mrs. Wm. Mickle called on Mrs. Sarah Keil and Dorothea Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mabel Winn and son and brother, Charles Stout were shopping in Lincoln Saturday.

Glenn Dimmitt and family attended the all day Rally Day services at Greenwood M. E. church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hires and Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins of Elmwood visited at the Thomas Stout home Sunday.

Mrs. Carl D. Ganz has been confined to her bed because of a severe attack of throat trouble, but is reported as feeling some better.

Carl Hoffman and family were in attendance at the Rally Day and Homecoming meeting held at the Greenwood Methodist church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klyver, Grandpa Klyver, Mrs. Stout and Mrs. Winn and son were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klyver of Lincoln, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oris Foreman of Utica came Wednesday evening for a short visit with their daughter, Mrs. Lee Coatman and family. They remained over Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Wallace were accompanied by Mrs. Charles Edwards and Mrs. Turner McKinnon to Omaha late Thursday afternoon. The group was in Omaha to attend the mission meeting.

Alvin Leever sold his livestock and farm machinery and also his household goods at public auction, Monday afternoon. A large crowd attended. Mr. and Mrs. Leever and family plan to leave soon for California.

Church Gets New Paper. The local church has been freshly papered this week. The ladies aid society members met Thursday to clean the church and basement. A number were present and a great deal of work was accomplished. The men were cleaning the red paint off the outside so that the church can be repainted.

Due to the sudden drop in temperature the men didn't apply any paint as they had planned. All present enjoyed a delicious covered dish luncheon at noon.

Club Meeting. The Mothers and Daughters council met at the home of Mrs. Glenn Dimmitt, Friday afternoon. The lesson, "When Shall We Stop Playing," was directed by Mrs. Joe Vickers. Mrs. Carl Hoffman reported on the county convention held at Nehawka a few days previous.

The next meeting will be Friday, October 30 at the home of Mrs. Albert Swanson. This is to be a slouch party and the leader has announced a prize for the slouchiest dressed lady attending.

Mrs. Ruth Taylor was assistant hostess and served a delicious lunch of chicken sandwiches, cranberry salad, and coffee.

P. T. A. Meeting. A large crowd attended the October meeting of the P. T. A. held Wednesday evening in the high school auditorium. The president, Mrs. Dick Elliott had charge of the business meeting. It was voted to have dues of 25c per family. It was decided that hereafter the meeting will commence at 7:30 o'clock.

The program committee planned a very entertaining program consisting of two groups of songs by the Wabash male quartet and an operetta given by home talent. This humorous musical number proved to be very entertaining and was the cause of a real good laugh from the audience. Mrs. Roy Coatman took the part of the father, Mrs. A. B. Stroemer the mother, Mrs. Lee Coatman the daughter and Mrs. Martin Zoz, the daughter's young man friend. Mrs. Clarence Frohlich accompanied at the piano.

FORMER RESIDENT HERE

Thursday evening John Buzzell, a former resident of this city, was here for a short time to visit with a number of the old friends of his younger years. Mr. Buzzell resided here a number of years ago, later moving to Fairbury, Nebraska, where he is now engaged in business. He was en route home from attending the preaching mission in Omaha Thursday morning.

Commercial printing of all kinds at the Journal office.

AVOCA NEWS

H. M. Lum was called to Lincoln last Sunday to visit with friends remaining until Monday.

Elmer Hennings has been having the interior of his barber shop nicely decorated, the work being done by Claude Hollenberger.

M. R. Tidball of Lincoln who is a friend of H. M. Lum of Avoca, was a visitor in Avoca last Tuesday and a caller on his friend, Mr. Lum.

Dr. J. W. Brendel and Emory Voyles were over to Omaha last Monday consulting some specialists as to the condition of the knee of Emory.

W. A. Ost from south of Nehawka was a visitor in Avoca last Saturday, having some business to look after and as well as visiting with H. M. Lum.

Leo McCann was over to Lincoln last Saturday where he enjoyed attending the Indiana-Nebraska game and sure enjoyed the winning of the game by the home team.

Mrs. L. J. Marquardt, Mrs. Dr. J. W. Brendel and Mrs. Fred Marquardt were in Lincoln last Tuesday attending a convention of delegates from the Congregational church.

Last Saturday a number of Avoca residents attended the Nebraska-Indiana football game at Lincoln, among these being E. J. Hallstrom, Fred Nitzman, Fred Marquardt, Carl Tefft and Dr. Brendel.

There is being placed on the streets of Avoca a liberal supply of gravel which is expected to care for the streets during the winter. Especially on the west hill on Main street the gravel is indeed welcome.

Henry Maseman of Lincoln, accompanied by his wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Maseman, also of Lincoln, were guests for the day Friday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maseman of Avoca.

Ted Hile and family of Beaver Crossing who have been visiting here for the past nearly two weeks with friends and relatives departed for their home in the west last Sunday, being taken home by Fred Marquardt and wife.

Earl Freeman and wife, accompanied the parents of Mr. Freeman to St. Joseph Wednesday of last week where they visited for two days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman, brother of Edward Freeman and uncle of Earl.

Earl Freeman and wife were accompanying Ed Freeman and wife, parents of Earl, and Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Nickles where they visited Wednesday and Thursday of last week with an uncle of Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeman.

Mrs. Elmer Hennings and daughter were in Louisville last Tuesday and Wednesday visiting with Mrs. John Gauer, mother of Mrs. Hennings. While they were away Elmer and son were doing the bachelor act with Elmer as the cook.

Hunting in the Northwest. Leo McCann, Will Kuntz, Buri Wolfe made a party who departed last Saturday for the northwestern part of the state where they went to hunt pheasants. They will remain for nearly a week.

Young Lad Loses Life. Clarence Roifs, sixteen years of age while chasing a calf in an endeavor to get the animal in the lot, and as the calf was passing over some rough ground fell down in front of the rapidly running horse on which Clarence was riding, which caused the horse to stumble and fall, throwing Clarence in front of the horse, which rolled over the young man, injuring him severely, breaking the vertebra in his neck. The young man was cared for and medical attention given but with the gravity of the injury but little if any hopes were entertained for his recovery. He lingered until Sunday evening when he passed away. This was indeed a sad blow to the father, as Clarence was the main stay since the death of the mother early last spring. The funeral was held Wednesday from the North Branch church where the interment was made.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Fred Baumgart, one of the old time residents of this section of Cass county, has been quite ill at his home in the east portion of the city for the past several weeks. Mr. Baumgart is under the very best of care and while his condition is very serious, it is hoped that he may soon show an improvement.

Halloween Seals, Cut Outs and Crepe Paper at Bates Book Store.

Small factories will find splendid opportunities to expand here. Among them, forthcoming river navigation with its resultant low shipping costs.

COUNTY CLUB NEWS

EXTENSION CLUBS

Mrs. Mark Burton, president, had charge of the meeting of the Nehawka Extension club October 15 at the home of Mrs. Leo Switzer. The topic of the month "The Important Job of Homemaking" was discussed. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Lew Switzer, Mrs. Henry Thiele and Mrs. F. C. Schomaker.

Murdock's Four Square club met at the home of Mrs. Henry A. Tool October 19. The first meeting of the year was conducted by Mrs. H. J. Angert, president. Mrs. Harvey A. Schwab, social leader, directed the group singing of the song for the month, "Stars of the Summer Night." Ten ladies expressed the desire to join the community chorus work. Others may take it up later. There are 26 members in the club.

Mrs. Keith Mumford was hostess to the "Linger Longer" extension club October 16. This club is in the Wabash community.

Mrs. Eugene L. Rrarrick, president, introduced the lesson of the month to the members of the Student Home Makers club of Weeping Water, October 19. The social leader, Mrs. Francis, had charge of the singing. Two new members were enrolled. Mrs. Floyd Davis and Mrs. Lawrence Little. The members voted to serve a light lunch at the meetings and to have a penny march. Mrs. Karick was hostess.

Riverview Club—A shower was given for one of the members of the Riverview club at their meeting October 13. Plans were also made for a wiener roast. As the club won first place at the Korn Carnival the treasurer announced the receipt of a $10 prize. Hostesses to the group were Mrs. Harold Sacks and Miss Elsie Hoyet.

Jolly Workers—Mrs. Roy Tschirren was elected vice president of the Jolly Workers club at the meeting October 16. She fills a vacancy. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be held at the home of Mrs. Donald Born. Mrs. Fred Buechler and Mrs. George A. Kaffenberger were hostesses.

Good Will Club—A business meeting of the Good Will club was held at the home of Mrs. Leslie Everett October 14. Each of the members brought a gift for the hostess.

Weeping Water Woman's Club—"American Citizenship" was the topic of study of the Weeping Water Woman's club at their meeting October 20. The program was opened with the singing of "America" and the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. George Garrison, in her paper on the "Study of the Constitution" gave a brief history of the department of our government as set forth in the constitution.

Mrs. Herbert Ambler gave "The Supreme Court and Its New Building." She told how the justices live, work, and conduct the sessions of the supreme court. Pictures of the new building were shown and the construction and completed appearance were described. An open discussion on "What Patriotism Means to Me" was led by Mrs. Arthur Jones.

See the large line of Halloween novelties at Bates Book Store.

Phone news items to No. 6.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Wm. Westfall of near Alvo was looking after some business matters in Murdock Wednesday of last week. The Ladies Aid society of the Murdock Evangelical church were meeting last Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. O. Schewe.

Mrs. A. J. Tool was visiting for a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Work and family of Omaha last week.

Frank Dean and family were in Avoca last Sunday, guests for the day at the home of Mrs. Dean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin.

Henry A. Tool was called to Plattsmouth last Wednesday afternoon and while he was away Mrs. Tool was caring for the business at the bank.

W. O. Schewe was placing a new roof on his cob house which has been built for a long time and was working on the roof when the cold spell came and drove him off.

Mrs. Hannah McDonald has been visiting for the past week or ten days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry O. Eastman at Sterling, Colorado, where she is enjoying her stay very pleasantly.

H. P. Dehning of Elmwood and Albert Denning son of Emerald, departed last Monday for Big Springs in the western part of the state where they will look after some business and will also visit in Wyoming.

Joe Johnson, who is engaged in the restaurant business in Elmwood was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday conferring with his son Herbert, who conducts the cafe here, and to arrange for the placing of a station of the Beatrice creamery in the cafe here which will be looked after by Herbert Johnson.

Visiting Sister at Havelock. Mrs. Mary Carson of Havelock, mother of Henry Carson of Murdock has been enjoying a visit from two of her sisters, Mesdames Strights of Springfield, Ill. and Frank Stone of Allen, Ill. Mr. Carson went over to Havelock to visit the mother and two aunts, while they were there.

Attending Bible School Meet. Rev. Harvey Schwab and wife, Rev. F. C. Weber and wife, C. I. Long, L. Neitzel, Martin Bornemeler and wife, Leo Rikli, Mrs. Frank Rosenow, Mrs. L. B. Gortley and many other of the teachers and scholars of the Murdock Bible school are attending the county convention at the Methodist church at Alvo today, with three sessions, one during the morning, one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

Will Hold Halloween Party. The members of the Royal Neighbors of America have about perfected arrangements for the holding of a Halloween party at their hall in Murdock the evening of October 29th when they expect to have a very enjoyable evening. Better ask one of the members about it.

Clears Way for Improvements. Forty-two years ago, away back in 1894, Fred Wolfe who was a member of the lumber firm of Wolfe and Tool had constructed the building which has been the property of A. H. Ward and was occupied by many people and many businesses during the forty-two years which it has stood.

During the past week the building was torn down and the material will be used for the erection of a building in connection with the McCrorey filling station. The new building will be used for car greasing and a repair shop. The first person to occupy this building was in 1892, later being occupied by a dress making establish-

Rid Yourself of Kidney Poisons

Do you suffer burning, scanty or too frequent urination, backache, headache, dizziness, loss of energy, leg pains, swellings and puffiness under the eyes? Are you tired, nervous—feel all unstrung and don't know what is wrong?

Then give some thought to your kidneys. Be sure they function properly for functional kidney disorder permits excess waste to stay in the blood, and to poison and upset the whole system.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are for the kidneys only. They are recommended the world over. You can get the genuine, time-tested Doan's at any drug store.

DOAN'S PILLS

ment, a millinery store, and then for a time by Mary Patton, but we will pass that. Max Duesthoff had a paint shop there and many other businesses but it will now be a memory. It is owned by I. C. McCrorey.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

From Saturday's Daily: Fred Baumgart, 76, died this morning at his home on East Vine street following an illness of several months duration.

Mr. Baumgart has made his home in this community for the past forty-seven years, locating first in Plattsmouth where he was engaged in work in the railroad shops for several years, later going to the farm where he made his home until a few years ago.

He is survived by the widow, five sons, Emil, Crookston; Fred, Sterling; Edward, Louisa and Caesar, of this community and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Claus of this city.

The body is at the Sattler funeral home where the services will be held on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BILLFOLD CONTAINING $90 IN BILLS, RETURNED

Readers of the Journal will be interested to know that the ad reading "Lost—Billfold with $90 in bills" has been answered. The billfold was returned to the owner with the full amount. Another ad in the paper recently announcing the loss of a coin purse containing $5 brought results the next morning. If you have lost an article, have anything for sale, need a helper, or desire a job—try the Classified Section of the Journal. Rates: 5 cents per line in the daily and 10 cents per line in the semi-weekly.

LEADS SOCIAL WORKERS

Huron, S. D.—Ellery E. Kelley, Pierre, was elected president of the South Dakota State conference of social work.

A GRADE Semi-Anthracite COAL

$10 per ton at Car

Best Indiana Coal - - $8.00 PER TON AT CAR

We also have a car load of Oats No. 2 quality, at $1c at the car.

Call No. 2331 for Reservation

Farmers Grain Co.

Murdock, Nebr.

Vote for District Judge Livingston

I AM THE ONLY CANDIDATE FOR THIS OFFICE WHO HAS HAD ANY EXPERIENCE AS DISTRICT JUDGE, and was selected by the Governor as the most competent man for the position from a number of high class candidates and have had over two years' successful experience.

Was City Attorney of Nebraska City from 1904 to 1906; County Attorney of Otoe County from 1907 to 1911; served in the 1927 Session of the Legislature, and served as counsel for the Home Owners Loan Corporation.

Have had 35 years' experience as a trial lawyer and have tried either side of all kinds of cases, but have never FORECLOSED A HOMESTEAD.

Whenever possible to grant a moratorium stay in the foreclosure on peoples' homes, I have granted the same, leaving the family in the home and keeping its members off the relief.

D. W. Livingston, District Judge

I Stand on My Record and Ask You to Vote for Me!