

UNION ITEMS.

Donald Hoback and sister, Margie were looking after business in Nebraska City last Saturday.

Mrs. Flora Taylor, who has been indisposed for some time, was considerably better the fore part of the week.

Oliver Baker, who has been in poor health for some time, but was reported better last week, has had a relapse.

A. L. Becker and grandson, Donald Becker, were in Lincoln on last Monday, taking a truck load of wood to a patron there.

Hon. W. B. Banning, of Lincoln, was called to Union last Saturday to look after business matters and visit his many friends here.

Mrs. Tabitha Smith, who has been so seriously ill for some time, is reported as improving at present, but still unable to leave her bed.

County Commissioner E. B. Chapman was called to Plattsmouth Monday to look after some business matters for the county, driving over in his car.

Business called George A. Stites to Omaha Monday of this week, and while there he enjoyed the opportunity of visiting with a number of his friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Becker entertained at their home last Sunday and had as their guests for a very fine dinner Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ehlers and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Becker.

Mrs. Lavina Comer, who has been in poor health for some time, still remains in about the same condition, although everything possible is being done to restore her to better health.

D. Ray Frans was a visitor in Omaha Saturday, being accompanied by his wife and their son, Jimmie, they spending the day visiting with friends and doing some pre-Christmas shopping.

Charles Ward, who conducts a service station on highway 24 a few miles west of Elmwood, was a visitor in Union Monday forenoon, looking after business matters and visiting for a time with friends.

Bernard Morris, the genial clerk in the Morris Grocery was passing his 19th birthday anniversary a few days ago, but said it was just the same as any other day to him. We suppose because he has had so many of them.

Henry H. Becker was in Nebraska City Monday morning, where he went to have a half dozen of his teeth extracted. While their removal has left his mouth plenty sore, he is no longer bothered with the aching molars, which is indeed a relief.

Otto Ehlers and wife and Mary Becker were over to Omaha last Saturday, where they went to look after some trading and during the time they were away, P. F. Rihn of the firm of Rihn & Greene, was looking after business at the bank.

O. W. Finney, who is a Missouri Pacific bridge carpenter, being located at Auburn for some time, visited over Sunday with his wife here, who is operator and manager of the telephone exchange. He returned Sunday evening, to resume his work Monday morning.

Horace W. Griffin, the produce man, drove down into Otoe county Monday morning and bought some 800 pounds of chickens from farmers near Nebraska City, getting them back to Union in time to sell to the poultry truck which comes through three times a week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chaintberg of Peru were up to see mother Mary B. Allison, who has been very sick and spent the afternoon with her, urging that she come to Peru to make her home with them, but Mrs. Allison preferred to remain in Union and live in her own house.

Mrs. W. Barritt was quite ill for a number of days last week and on last Saturday was visited by her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hammerstrom, who upon their return to their home in Omaha Sunday evening, took Mrs. Barritt with them for a visit of a week.

Charles W. Hoback and family and Mrs. W. A. Taylor were at Plattsmouth last week, where they were watching the coasting party and also viewing the Santa Claus demonstration. Donald was one of the group of Cass county school children selected to act as a guard of honor to Santa on his trip through the business section of town, and at the court house, where he remained for some time handing out gifts to all the little boys and girls who called on his.

Union Service Next Sunday It has been arranged between the two churches of Union to have a Christmas program at the Baptist church Sunday evening, December 20th, when there will be a program given and a Christmas cantata as well. The churches are uniting in this entertainment which will be held at the Baptist church the Sunday evening before Christmas. The title of the cantata is "The Lost Star."

Working in Georgia Fred A. Clarke, son of Fred Clarke and wife, who reside north of Union, and Charles Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clarke, who departed several weeks ago for the south write that they are employed on a road building job near Lowell, Georgia, and are liking their work very well and also living in the south.

In writing they tell of the temperature down that way going down to 59 degrees, which they say nearly froze the old inhabitants as they were accustomed to much colder weather.

Both Celebrate Birthday Rev. W. A. Taylor passed his 71st birthday last Saturday and on December 26th, Mrs. Taylor will attain her 65th birthday anniversary. We regret to state that the health of Rev. Taylor has been very poor of late, but his wife enjoys fairly good health most of the time.

Masons Elect Officers On Wednesday of last week, the Masonic lodge, composed of members residing in both Nehawka and Union, after the regular order of business, proceeded to elect officers, naming the following: Charles V. Adams, W. M.; Lester Shrader, S. W.; Paul Madison, J. W.; George C. Sheldon, S. D.; Otto Ehlers, J. D. and W. A. Taylor, chaplain. The appointive officers have been named and will be published after the installation, which comes this week.

Enjoyed Christmas Party The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held their Christmas party on Thursday of last week and enjoyed a very fine time and a program featuring Christmas, exchanging gifts which was very gratifying and a very pleasant feature of the occasion. They also enjoyed the cats as well. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Dr. Anderson.

Visiting in Kansas Mrs. Moss G. McCarroll departed late last week for Lawrence, Kansas, where she will visit over the holidays with relatives. This makes a temporary bachelor of Moss for the present, and he is standing up under it very well with the cooking and conducting the store.

Home from Hospital Orville Hathaway, the very obliging carrier of the U. S. mails out of Union, who has been at the hospital in Omaha recuperating from a recent operation for appendicitis, was sufficiently recovered to be able to return home the latter part of last week, and is getting on very nicely at this time, which is excellent news to the many friends of this genial public servant.

Celebrated 43rd Birthday C. E. Morris was 43 years old on Tuesday of this week, December 15, and on Sunday, two days before, some twenty-seven of his friends and relatives turned out and assisted in the proper celebration of the passing of this happy event. Those present for the occasion were Silas F. Morris and family of Louisville; Will Morris and family, of Nebraska City; J. E. Morris and family, of Union, and Thomas Robinson and family of Louisville. A very fine time was enjoyed by all and the wish extended for many more such happy birthdays.

OMAHA PARTIES WEDDED Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Rev. G. A. Pahl, pastor of the St. Paul's Evangelical church, occurred the marriage of Miss Daisy Mae Potter and Mr. Robert Gray Hartung, both of Omaha. The marriage lines were read by Rev. Pahl and at the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal couple returned to their home at Omaha.

HOW LONG CAN A THREE-QUARTER WIFE HOLD HER HUSBAND? YOU have to work at marriage to make a success of it. Men may be selfish, unsympathetic, but that's the way they're made and you might as well realize it. When your back aches and your nerves scream, don't take it out on your husband. He can't possibly know how you feel. For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomfort from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three decades of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age." Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."
