

Nehawka

Frank Lemon and wife were at Nebraska City last Sunday, attending a show there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Root of Benet were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McReynolds Sunday.

Fred Hansen purchased a new Plymouth last week for the personal use of himself and wife.

Peter Jourgeson was a visitor in Nebraska City Monday forenoon, going to look after business matters.

A. R. Dowler of Weeping Water was looking after some business matters in Nehawka Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Victor Wehrbein and son Billie visited last Monday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs. W. O. Troop.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop were in Plattsmouth Saturday, where they visited with friends and looked after business matters for a short time.

The cars of Don Rhoden and Mrs. Allie Leonard came together one day last week, but little damage was done to the cars and the occupants were only shaken up a bit.

Bobbie McDonald and wife spent last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. McDonald, of Manley, returning in time to take up his work here Monday morning.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Heebner has not been in the best of health for some time and Mr. Heebner took her to Otoe last Saturday to consult a doctor regarding her condition.

George Hansen was looking after business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday and while there made the acquaintance of Santa Claus, with whom he expects to get on good terms within the next ten days.

Andrew F. Sturm, the lumberman, has not been feeling well for the past week or ten days, but has doggedly stuck to his work at the yard, and is now feeling some better, although not in his normal health as yet.

Clifford Trotter, who was at the Veterans' hospital at Lincoln for some three weeks, was able to return home last week and we are glad to report is feeling much improved, although not yet able to perform much heavy work.

Ray Gregg and family were in Plattsmouth Saturday doing some shopping and also giving the children opportunity to see Santa Claus, who paid a visit there that day and will be back again this coming Saturday afternoon.

Dan Anderson was shelling corn at the farm, not having a great deal, but nevertheless some, which is good for the drouth year we have gone through. Stuart Rough was out to assist with the work and was rather stiff the following morning.

Stuart Rough was pleased on last Saturday night when his sister, Miss Agnes Rough came to visit him. On Sunday they both went to Omaha where they attended a show, Stuart taking his sister back to her home in Weeping Water after the show.

Lawrence Gregg, son of Roy Gregg and wife, was assisting Santa Claus in his demonstration last Saturday at Plattsmouth as the representative of the New Hope school north of Nehawka, and enjoyed very much the opportunity of being a member of Santa's royal escort.

Mrs. Ona Lawton, who has been visiting at the A. A. Young home for the past two weeks, assisting in ministering to Mrs. Young during her recent serious illness, returned to her home in Omaha last Saturday, following a marked change for the better in the condition of Mrs. Young. Mesdames Lawrence Kruger, of Avoca, Lester Mair and Tom Sudduth, of Syracuse, made up a shopping party that visited Omaha last Monday. The children of Mrs. Kruger were brought to Nehawka and left with their grandmother, Mrs. Lyle Kruger for the day, enjoying their visit here very much.

Glen Rhoden, who lives in the western part of the state was visiting with friends and relatives in and near Murray and Nehawka, also with his father, George W. Rhoden, who is now a member of the Masonic Home family at Plattsmouth. Glen remained only a few days and then returned to his home in the west.

Mrs. Womack Moves
Mrs. Luther Womack, who has been living on her mother's farm until after the sale, which she has recently held, after settling up her business affairs, on last Monday moved to the home of her husband, being accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. J. Lohnes, who will remain with the daughter for a short time.
Mr. and Mrs. Lohnes will make their home in the western part of the state, where they have land, and will farm the same.

Had a Very Fine Visit
Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, of Lorton, were here Sunday afternoon for a visit with their relatives, J. H. Steffens and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son. They enjoyed their visit very much and while here communicated to the Nehawka relatives news of the arrival of a great-granddaughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ware of Cook, Mrs. Ware is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, of Lorton.

Are Living in Nehawka
Following the sale of Mrs. Marion Tucker and her farm tenant, L. M. McVey, the McVey family moved to a farm near Centerville, Mo., which they purchased. On arrival there, it was found the climate did not agree with Mrs. McVey, who has been in delicate health for some time. Accordingly, upon the advice of physicians there, they returned to Nebraska and are now making their home in Nehawka.

The party from whom Mr. McVey purchased the land, very graciously purchased the farm back, so Mr. McVey has no interests there now.

Entertained Friends Sunday
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein were host and hostess to a number of their friends last Sunday. Those present included A. N. Sullivan and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Sullivan and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tiekotter of Plattsmouth.

Enjoyed Christmas Party
The Pleasant Hill Woman's club met last week with Mrs. Fred Meisinger, where they enjoyed a very appropriate program and exchange of presents.

Undergoes Operation
Mrs. Charles Hall has been in very poor health for several weeks and late last week on Saturday was suddenly stricken with a severe attack of acute appendicitis, being rushed to a hospital in Lincoln, where an operation was performed immediately, from which she rallied very nicely and is now showing satisfactory progress.

Dr. Walters, who had charge of the case here, was over to see the patient Monday morning of this week and found her resting very well. This will be pleasing news to her many friends in Nehawka and vicinity.

Visited in Arkansas
Mrs. F. R. Cunningham, who with her two sisters went to Arkansas a couple of weeks ago to look after their land interests, in speaking of the country down that way, had very much to say in favor of the place. She declares she never has seen such gorgeous colors among the leaves on the trees, and that the country there is as far advanced as any place she has ever visited. There are many hundreds of acres of timber lands, also a goodly portion of cleared land under cultivation and she and her sisters are in love with the country there.

HONOR STUDENT AT U. OF N.

Miss Lois Giles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Giles of Plattsmouth, was honored at the annual college of agriculture honors convocation as one of the high ranking freshmen women, scholastically, in last year's class. Miss Giles, who is a sophomore, takes a prominent part in college activities, besides her academic work.

Each year the ten women ranking highest scholastically in their freshman year are honored, along with other outstanding students, by the agricultural college student body and faculty at this annual convocation.

WIN RECOGNITION

William Carey, quarterback and captain of the Plattsmouth high school football team and Robert Valery, tackle on the team, were among those who were given recognition by Gregg McBride, well known sports writer of the state. Mr. McBride in his Sunday review gave a resume of the outstanding players of the state, a very large group being named. While the Plattsmouth team failed to place on any of the teams, the two young men were given honorable mention for their fine work this season.

RECEIVES SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Wallace Arnold, who was arrested Saturday night by Officer Jarvis Lancaster, was given a hearing Monday in the court of Judge C. L. Graves. The defendant was charged with intoxication and disturbing the peace. The court assessed a fine of $10 and costs for intoxication and $1 for disturbing the peace on the defendant. On recommendation of the sentence was suspended during the good behavior of the young man and also that he would assist in doing city work when needed.
