'Art' is Subject of Woman's Club
Meet Monday

Miss Marie Kaufmann is Leader of the Meeting Held at Home of Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom.

Miss Marie Kaufmann, district chairman of art, was leader of the program on art at the meeting of the Plattsmouth Woman's club last evening at the home of Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom. Miss Kaufmann used the theme "Art, where art thou not?" in a short talk at the opening of the discussion. She emphasized the fact that all persons are artists of some type—the gardener, the homemaker, the business man in arranging displays.

Miss Lois Brandhorst discussed interior decorating. She spoke of the importance of the home as an interpreter of character as well as the effect of interior decoration in the home upon the disposition of the occupants. Harmony in line, color, and textures were stressed. Miss Brandhorst is the teacher of art in the Plattsmouth high school.

The program was closed with a description of art in Italy by Miss Kaufmann. She told of places she had visited there. One of the most interesting was the cemetery in Genoa which contains the life-size marble statues. She also described a trip through the ancient city of Pompeii. Pictures were passed illustrating the talk.

Frank Clويد gave the musical selections of the evening. He sang, "The Night Is Young and You're So Beautiful" and "In the Chapel in the Moonlight." Mrs. Roy Knorr accompanied.

Mrs. George Farley, Mrs. L. W. Egenberger, and Mrs. Glen Vallery were named as nominating committee for the election of officers which is to be held March 1. Visitors at the meeting were Miss Berniece Holubek, a high school guest, Mrs. Karl Grosshans, Mrs. Paul Mac Fetrledge, and Miss Kathryn Sumner.

Announcement was made that Miss Eunice Haskins of Stella is to be with the club at the next meeting and will speak on pottery. All members were urged to bring pieces of pottery from their homes for a display.

PICKETING THREE YEARS

Chicago.—Albert Weber, Conrad Frisch and Emil Winter believe they've walked off with some sort of a picketing record. They paused in their perambulations and said they had been pacing up and down the sidewalk in front of a North Side hotel for approximately three years. They work (or walk) in four hour shifts.

Small factories will find welcome and the opportunity to expand (through river transportation) in Plattsmouth.

HUNT DOWN WILD DOGS

Saddle Mountain, Okla.—Sharp-shooting officers throught this area of the plains country were enlisted in a war of extermination against wild dogs, which have been running in packs, killing livestock and terrorizing farmers. Officers discussed the possibility of mobilizing into mounted groups to run down the marauders. They were under instructions from John Coffey, president of the Oklahoma board of agriculture, to "shoot to kill" the dogs which he said had slain more than $50,000 worth of livestock during the past year.

HOWARD LOOKS FOR DEFEAT

Ogden, Utah.—Roy W. Howard, publisher of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, said during a pause between trains: "President Roosevelt's plan to 'pack' the supreme court should and probably will be defeated. The new deal has been traveling at a pretty fast clip. Many of its objectives have been admirable. But it is just as well, I believe, to stop occasionally and tighten a few bolts and inspect the mechanism. Otherwise we might lose a wheel and plunge into the ditch. Checking the mechanism is the function intended for the supreme court by the constitution framers."
