New Hardware Store.

With the closing of the hardware store of Henry Wessell a short time ago, the city was left without a store in this line and it seemed that one was required, and considering the matter from many points, Granville Heebner, who is already in the implement business, decided to combine this business with a hardware store, secured the place where Mr. Wessell had been, getting it in readiness for the new line. Gerald Shader has been getting the building in readiness for the opening. Mr. Heebner will use his old place of business for a warehouse.

Dog Was Homesick.

Albert Oaks and wife who made their home at France, Minn., with their dog, a German shepherd, and which had been there for some time, was taken with them to Fairbury, Nebraska, where the folks went to spend the winter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Oaks. The dog sat in the back seat of the car on the trip to Nebraska, some 850 miles and when the party arrived the dog seemed discontented and in a short time disappeared, and while a diligent search was made no trace of the faithful animal could be found. After a few days Mr. Albert Oaks received a letter from the old home in Minnesota, telling him the dog had arrived at the home and would be cared for by the neighbors until Mr. and Mrs. Oaks arrived home. The animal was evidently homesick for the old home and returned. A great instinct directed him, as he had 850 miles to travel, with nothing to guide him except a few glances he was able to get as he was being brought on his trip to Nebraska.

PROBATE NOTICE

In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of Alice J. Murray, Deceased. Estate No. 3247.

To all persons interested in the Estate of Alice J. Murray, deceased, both creditors and heirs at law: You are hereby notified that on the 27th day of February, 1937, Frank L. Heim, the petitioner, filed a petition in this Court alleging that said Alice J. Murray departed this life at Littleton, Colorado, on the 26th day of August, 1933, leaving a Last Will and Testament which was duly proved, allowed and admitted to probate in the County Court, in Probate, County of Arapahoe, State of Colorado, on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1933, by an Order Admitting Will to Probate of said Court, entered therein, and a duly authenticated copy of said instrument with the Order Admitting Will to Probate thereof in said County Court, in Probate, County of Arapahoe, Colorado, is presented for probate in this Court.

Said petition also alleges that said Alice J. Murray, left her surviving as her sole and only heirs at law, and the only persons interested in her estate, her husband, three children and four grandchildren, who are all now of legal age and whose names and places of residence are as follows:

J. E. Murray, her husband, Edward Wehrly, grandson; Frank Wehrly, grandson, Dale Wehrly, granddaughter and Leroy J. Wehrly, a son, all residing at Littleton, in the State of Colorado; Henry Clyde Wehrly, Jr., a son, residing at Seattle, Washington, and Raymond Elmore Wehrly, a son, residing at Dillon, Colorado, and that said decedent died seized in fee simple of the following described real estate, of the County of Cass and State of Nebraska, to-wit:

An undivided one-half (1/2) interest in the northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of Section twenty-seven (27), Township twelve (12), Range eleven (11); That the petitioner is a subsequent purchaser of said real estate.

That more than two years have now elapsed since the death of said decedent, Alice J. Murray, and that by reason thereof a regular administration of said estate in this state be dispensed with as provided by law, and that said real estate be assigned, free from all debts of said decedent to the legatees named in said will, if admitted to probate in this state.

The Petitioner Prays: That all persons interested in said estate may be duly notified three weeks prior to the date of hearing as required by law and as to this court may seem proper to show cause if any there be, why said instrument may not be admitted and allowed as the last will and testament of said decedent and that such other and further order and proceedings may be had in the premises as may be required by the statutes in such cases made and provided.

You are further notified that said matter has been set down for hearing on the 11th day of March, 1937, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, and all objections thereto must be filed on or before said day and hour of hearing.

Witness my hand this 27th day of February, 1937.
