Former Cass County Woman Dies at Lincoln

Mrs. Park Chriswiser, Many Years a Resident of Near Nehawka Dies at Lincoln.

Mrs. Park Chriswiser, 67, a resident of Cass county for a number of years, died on Saturday at Lincoln, where for the past two years the family has made its home.

The deceased lady was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cotner of this city, where the aged mother, Mrs. Sarah Cotner, still makes her home, the father passing away some years ago. After her marriage to Mr. Chriswiser she made her home in that locality for a great many years, they later moving to Colorado where Mr. Chriswiser engaged in farming. In recent years they located at Lincoln. Mrs. Chriswiser had not been in the best of health for some time. She is survived by the husband, two sons, Lester, of Bennett, Colorado and Herbert of Boise, Idaho; the mother, six brothers and one sister, Edward, Clarence Albert, of Plattsmouth; Walter and Howard of Red Cloud; Dr. J. W. Cotner, of Brinkley, Arkansas; Mrs. Cora Kiser of Tabor, Iowa.

HEARING IN BANK CASE

Saturday in the district court before Judge W. G. Kieck, a hearing was had on the application to sell the remaining assets of the defunct Bank of Murdock, approve the sale of same and to compromise the stock liability of Henry Tool, Allice Tool, and Kenneth Tool, and to authorize the receiver of the said bank to pay a ten per cent dividend to the depositors of the bank.

Murray

E. V. Cole, of Brule, was calling on Murray friends Tuesday p. m. Miss Marie Davis was a guest of her friend, Miss Rose Kendall, near Union, over the week end.

Edward Egenberger of Plattsmouth was looking after some business matters in Murray last Monday.

Mrs. Alice Creamer has returned to her home after spending the winter with her daughter in Omaha.

Dr. R. W. Tyson reports the arrival of a very fine baby boy at the home of Carl Snavely, Jr., with all concerned doing very nicely.

Grandmother Redden who recently moved to the room in the rear of the Murray public library is reported as being very ill at this time.

Mrs. Earl Terhune with the family and Mr. Morgan Stuart were down to Humboldt last Friday, guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Terhune.

John Becker of Plattsmouth, was a visitor in Murray last Monday while on his way to secure a load of cattle he recently purchased from Lloyd Lewis.

Joseph Deitl who makes his home on a farm near Weeping Water, was a visitor in Murray last Monday, looking after business and visiting with friends.

Mrs. F. W. Nolting of Plattsmouth was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Everett Spangler and family on Tuesday and was helping Charles celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. Margaret Brendel of Lincoln and son Richard, a medical college student, were visiting over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt, the visitors returning to Lincoln Monday morning.

Mrs. Joseph Campbell who has been down with the influenza for the past nearly two months at her home east of Murray was able to sit up for a portion of the day last Saturday, but as yet has not been allowed to be out of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Mrs. Addie Perry, and Mrs. Guy Kiser were among the guests at a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cook, in honor of their mother, Mrs. W. A. Cook, of near Elmwood, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Davis were in attendance at the funeral of their old time friend, Mrs. Park Chriswiser at Nehawka on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Davis of Lincoln were also present, and later called on some of their Murray friends.

Mrs. James J. H. Ruhman and W. E. Reynolds of Union were guests for the day last Friday with their friend, Mrs. Vesta Clarke of Murray. Mrs. C. W. Clarke and Mrs. O. W. Finney, also of Union were guests for the day last Friday with their mother and sister, Mrs. Vesta Clarke.

Miss Freda Crunk, assistant operator at the Murray telephone exchange, was enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reed at Cedar Creek where they were celebrating the passing of the birthday of Bobbie Richter and as well the birthday of Margaret, who was three years of age. The birthday gathering was also attended by Messrs. and Mesdames Herman Richter and Earl Mrasek.

Makes Quick Trip. Mrs. M. E. Smith, housekeeper for Thomas Nelson desiring to visit with friends in Lincoln last Sunday, walked to the Murray corners where she accepted a lift to Omaha by a passing motorist, and from Omaha caught a ride to Lincoln where she visited until in the afternoon when she accepted a ride to Omaha and from there to Murray corners, thus making the trip in less than five hours, having three hours to visit in Lincoln, which considering she was hitchhiking was making very good time.

Place New Roof on Church.

The members of the church at Myard who are always evincing a progressive spirit have recently been placing a new shingle room on the church building, getting the shingles and material from the Murray lumber yard.

Will Hold Caucus.

The voters of Murray are to hold a mass caucus at the Murray State bank building, Monday, March 22, for the placing of a ticket in the field for the spring election, the meeting to start at 8 o'clock.

Doing a Noble Work.

The Christian Bible school as has been their practice for a number of years past are to send a case of eggs to the Child Saving Institute in Omaha for their Easter use. They have a portion of the eggs on hand now and are waiting for the completing of the case.

Has Ministerial Call.

The Rev. C. Loyd Shubert who has been pastor of the Christian church in Murray for some time, also ministering at the church at Wann, has received a call to the church at Benson, a suburb of Omaha. Last Sunday Rev. Shubert announced his resignation to the congregation, following a series of revival meetings which are to be held at the local church starting Easter Sunday. It is with profound regret that Rev. Shubert is tendering his resignation as he is well liked here, having the friendship and confidence of not alone the members of the church, but the entire community.

Will Hold Revival Meetings.

The Christian church is to engage in a series of revival meetings which are to start Easter Sunday, March 28. The revival is to be conducted by Rev. T. V. Hubbel of Auburn.

Many Attend Community Sing.

The customary bi-monthly sing which the people of Murray have been holding, conducted by Mrs. J. R. Reder of Plattsmouth, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt Friday of last week. Twenty-four were in attendance.

Showing Good Improvement.

Frank Mrasek who was so seriously ill for some time with a severe attack of influenza, which nearly terminated with a severe case of pneumonia is reported as being considerably better and during the past few days was able to be up and about the home, but as yet not allowed to be out or do any work.

Enjoying Life in South.

We are in receipt of a magazine which is printed in Hot Springs, Ark., where Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles are notified. Among the items is one which says, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles of Murray, Nebraska, where Mr. Nickles is very prominent in politics. The couple who are stopping at the Ozark hotel are also taking baths at the Ozark bath house. They expect to remain at the springs for some time yet and are enjoying their stay in the south.
