

MURDOCK ITEMS

A. H. Ward was looking after some business matters at Ashland one day last week.

Edward Parriott, of Elmwood was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday, coming over to see his sister.

Henry Meierjurgan was called to Plattsmouth one day last week, going over in his car to look after business matters.

Henry Angwert and wife were in Lincoln last Wednesday, where they looked after the purchase of goods for the store here.

Fred Towle and wife of Wabash were among those attending the funeral of Mrs. Hattie Miller here last Wednesday afternoon.

The Misses Loretta and Rose Sheehan, of Manley, were in Murdock Wednesday having some beauty work done by Miss Orland Parriott.

Charles Schaefer, representative of the Trunkbolz Oil company in this territory was making delivery of gas and oil to patrons at Elmwood last Thursday.

The funeral of Mrs. Hattie Mills was attended by a large number of friends from far and near. Some relatives came from Wyoming last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Craig and Miss Orland Parriott, the beautician in the Craig barber shop, were in Lincoln last Wednesday evening on business matters.

Mrs. Emily Gonzales, of Elmwood, where she is employed in the American Exchange Bank, was in Murdock last Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Hattie Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McDonald and the children visited in Plattsmouth last Sunday, being guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thimgan and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thimgan.

L. Neitzel delivered an address in the local church last Sunday evening on the theme, "Why the Cross," fitting into the Lenten program of the church conducted by Rev. H. A. Schwab.

Dan Schoeman, who resides near Louisville, was looking after business matters in Murdock Wednesday afternoon. He also made a trip to Omaha on business during the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. C. Jannan, of Elmwood, where Mr. Jannan is pastor of the Evangelical church, visited at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Angwert, here on last Wednesday afternoon.

L. Neitzel and Mrs. J. J. Arnold motored to Havelock last Sunday morning to be dinner guests at the O. J. Hitchcock home. A very pleasant visit was had in the afternoon, and a visit to Morrill Hall closed the day.

E. D. Friend, who has been making his home with his daughter, Mrs. Eddie Craig and husband, since the death of his wife several months ago, last week moved back to the home place north of Alvo, where he will reside.

It was the privilege of L. Neitzel to address and teach the Adult department in the M. E. church of Havelock, last Sunday, Mrs. O. J. Hitchcock, their regular teacher, being indisposed. A very profitable session was held and a return date was asked and promised.

Homer Lawton visited his mother in Wabash Wednesday of last week, assisting with the task of getting things about the home in running order again, as the mother had been visiting in Aurora during the winter, at the home of a daughter.

Gottlieb Baur returned home last Thursday after spending a few days with his brother Charles and family at Cambridge, Nebraska. Recently his brother from the west visited in Murdock a few days, so Mr. Baur returned home with him. He came back in a car driven by a salesman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Oehlerking was quarantined for scarlet fever last week. Alvin was quite ill for a few days with the fever. It is hoped that no other cases break out in the community. To check its spread, it will be the part of wisdom to use precautions

How to Beat the System

By IRVIN S. COBB

"TINY MAXWELL is a sporting writer in Philadelphia. He is called 'Tiny' because he is about the size of a two-ton tractor. One afternoon he was officiating at a match between Georgetown, which, as everybody knows, is a Catholic institution, and a team representing a Southern university. In an interval one of the Southern players limped up to Maxwell.

"Mr. Referee," he said, "I want to make a protest. There's one of these Georgetown men that seems to have a private grudge against me. Every time we two get in a scrimmage together he bites me. Yes sir, he just hauls off and bites me. I don't want to start any rough house stuff, but I'm getting good and tired of having that big Irishman biting me. What had I better do?"

"I should advise," said Tiny, "that you play him only on Fridays." (American News Features, Inc.)

and look for the prevailing symptoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Matzke of Milford, Nebraska, moved March 8 onto the farm northwest of town which was occupied by George Lewis last year. The farm was purchased some time ago by Ferdinand Matzke, father of Wesley. The young couple were married early this month and are starting out on their journey through life as tillers of the soil.

Mrs. Matzke is a sister of Mrs. Hugo Norenberg, who formerly lived in this community.

Chased by Infuriated Bull
Eddie Craig was advised during the past week of a serious accident that occurred while his brother, Curtis Craig was working about the barnyard at his home near Beatrice. An enraged bull charged him and before Mr. Craig could get to a place of safety the infuriated animal had gored him. Being unable to go to see his brother, Eddie called up to ascertain how serious his injuries might be and was pleased to learn that he is getting along very well, although he was severely injured.

Work Progressing Nicely
Work on the new house which is being constructed by Gus Stock is progressing nicely. The excavation has been completed and the basement walls are being constructed. S. P. Lies is in charge of the foundation work.

Visited in Murdock Tuesday
When E. W. Thimgan was called to Lincoln to look after business matters, he was accompanied by Mrs. Thimgan and their little son, Larry, who visited with Mrs. Bryan McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thimgan, enjoying the day very pleasantly. On his return late that afternoon, Mr. Thimgan picked her up and they returned to their home in Plattsmouth.

4-H Club Meets
The 4-H club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lau on March 2nd, enjoying both the study period and the sociable hour that followed. The lesson subject was "Satisfying Meals." There were 14 members and three visitors present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordes on April 7th.

Mrs. Herman Gakemeier, who is news reporter for the club, reports a great deal of interest in the work among the members. They are planning on broadcasting a program over station KFOR in the near future.

Community Sales Prove a Drawing Card

Over 800 at Sale Thursday at Pavilion North of This City on Highway No. 75.

The community sales which are being held at the pavilion at the farm of Karl Grosshans, two miles north of this city on highway No. 75, are growing in popularity and in fact outgrowing the present quarters.

Thursday afternoon at the sale there were over 800 persons in attendance and a large number of these from distant points, some from Ord, Nebraska, Malvern, and Red Oak, Iowa, and other points in southeast Nebraska and western Iowa. The crowd could not all be accommodated in the building.

The bidding was brisk and the prices that were offered were excellent and proved very satisfactory to the sellers as well as the buyers of the live stock, machinery and other articles offered.

Some excellent live stock was brought to the sale from various points in Cass county and the demand was brisk as Rex Young, the veteran auctioneer, conducted the sale.

These sales are under the management of Karl Grosshans, who has for the past two years held sales at his farm near La Platte and this year moved to this side of the Platte river.

W. E. Reynolds, of Union, is clerk of the sales and he has a real job in handling the various items that are to be sold and in which several parties are usually interested, doing a nice piece of work and keeping the sale going in great shape.

7, 1937. She experienced great pain during this her brief illness and was compelled to remain in bed practically all of the time. Almost from the beginning of her illness, she had expressed the belief that it would be her last. Kind hands did all that could be done for her. Gradually they saw the once robust life grow weaker until her sojourn ceased at the age of 76 years, 10 months and 3 days.

Those who knew her best, testify to her constant interest and thoughts in behalf of her grandchildren. It was her constant wish that they should be regular attendants of the Sunday school. She harbored good will and kind thoughts for all her loved ones and many friends.

Memory of her life among us as a kindly citizen, a peaceful neighbor and a good mother will abide for many a day.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Harvey A. Schwab, at the Murdock Evangelical church on Wednesday, March 17, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Mabel Van Burg, Mrs. Edna Rikik and Mrs. Emma Ward assisted with special hymns.

The local chapter of the Royal Neighbors of America were present in a body and formed the lodge "avenue" at the church and the cemetery.

The pall bearers were Fred Buell, Charles Buell, Daniel Schlaepf, William Lau, Alvin Neitzel and Gust Gakemeier.

Interment took place in the Wabash cemetery.

Card of Thanks
The sons and relatives of Mrs. Hattie R. Mills desire to express their sincere gratitude to their many loyal friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral tributes, warm words of comfort, the helpful music, special hymns and other kindnesses which were extended so generously during the recent illness and departure of their mother and grandmother. Everything done to ease the heavy burden is deeply appreciated by everyone.—James F. Mills and Family; Edward Jumper and Family.

This union shared the happy experience of a son, James Forrest, who survives his parents today.

Besides her son James F. Mills, she has left another son, Edward Jumper, from a former marriage, who resides at Ashland. Samuel Jumper preceded his mother in death several decades ago. One sister, Mrs. Abbie Edwards, resides in Poland, Maine. Six grandchildren also survive the departed, as follows: Harriette and Edward Jumper, Jr., and James, Stewart, Margaret and Franklin Mills. Many loyal friends will long remember Mrs. Mills as a quiet, unassuming and kind neighbor and friend.

The departed was a member of the Eastern Star Lodge at Elmwood and a charter member of the Murdock chapter of the Royal Neighbors of America.

Mrs. Mills became ill February

FUNERAL OF A. G. JOHNSON

The funeral of A. G. Johnson was held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Sattler funeral home, a large number from this city as well as the community where Mr. Johnson had resided, being present.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, had charge of the services and paid tribute to the long and useful life of Mr. Johnson in the community.

The Masonic quartet, composed of Frank A. Cloutid, Raymond Cook, H. G. McClusky and Dr. R. P. Westover, sang "Still, Still With Thee," at the service. E. H. Westcott being the accompanist.

The escort was provided by members of Mt. Zion commandery No. 5, Knights Templar.

The service at the grave in Oak Hill cemetery was conducted by Plattsmouth lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M., William F. Evers, past master, conducting the services and assisted by the members.
