From Thursday's Daily—
Birthday Dinner—
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wescoat entertained at a birthday dinner last evening honoring Edgar Wescoat of Lincoln. Sweet peas, a gift to the hostess, were used on the table as well as white tapers and clusters of multi-colored celophane sticks.
Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wescoat and Mrs. Wm. Irons of Lincoln, and Misses Clara Mae Morgan and Madeline Stranglen of Omaha.
St. Patrick Party—
Mrs. L. L. Kocian entertained two tables of pinochle at a party at her home yesterday afternoon. Appointments carried the St. Patrick theme. High score was won by Mrs.

Otto Christensen of Ames, Ia., and low went to Miss Mildred Dvoracek.
Luncheon Guests—
Mrs. Frank Horsak and baby, Carl Joseph, had their first outing since their return from the hospital yesterday when they were luncheon guests at the I. L. Kocian home. They came from Omaha last Wednesday. Miss Sophia Bieri was also a guest of Mrs. Kocian.
Afternoon Club—
Mrs. Herb Schuiz entertained two tables of bridge at her home yesterday afternoon. Mrs. W. V. Ryan won high score; Mrs. F. W. Pearson, second; and Mrs. J. V. Oliver, third. A color scheme of green and white was used for the party.
Program has St. Patrick Theme—
A St. Patrick's day program was given at the Christian church yesterday afternoon for the social meeting of the Ladies' Aid society. Three large shamrocks were used at the back of the stage and green and white streamers at the ceiling. Shamrocks and green and white decorations were also used at the tables.

Rev. J. W. Taenzler opened the program with a devotional period. Mrs. J. R. Stine gave a reading which was followed by a piano solo by Mrs. Harry Rolfe and reading by Mrs. Billiter.
David Robinson with a chorus of girls wearing green hair ribbons and skirts with white blouses and aprons sang "My Wild Irish Rose" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling." The girls who took part were Maxine Graves, Helen Minntear, Frances Minntear, Evelyn Gooding, Phyllis Speck, Aileen Reed, Doris Leesley, and Bette Reed.
Mrs. Bessie Bourne, Mrs. Hal Garnet, Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Mrs. Fannie Crosser, and Mrs. L. D. McKinney were hostesses. They were assisted by the eight girls in Irish costume. Over 70 were served.

Bridge Party—
Mrs. Guy Long entertained at bridge Tuesday. Mrs. Ray Herring won high score and Mrs. Walter Tritch, second.

Entertains Friends—
The home of Mrs. Martha Wetenkamp was the scene of a very happy dinner this week, the occasion honoring a cousin of Mrs. Wetenkamp, Mrs. Olive Lee of Tabor, Iowa.
The dinner was most thoroughly enjoyed and was served by Mrs. Glen Corneal, a granddaughter of Mrs. Wetenkamp.
The dinner guests were Mrs. Walter Propst, Mrs. Lee, Grant Wetenkamp, Mrs. Glen Corneal and little son, Tommy, and the hostess, Mrs. Wetenkamp. Other friends to call during the afternoon were Miss Elizabeth Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wetenkamp and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wetenkamp.

Celebrates 79th Birthday—
Mrs. Christina Larson celebrated her 79th birthday yesterday. During the day she had a number of callers to bring greetings as well as a great many cards, letters, and telephone messages containing congratulations.

Two close friends, Mrs. Anna Anderson of Oak Park, Ill., and Mrs. Charles Olson of Omaha, spent the day with her. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Olson are sisters.
Mrs. R. E. Foster of Union, daughter of Mrs. Larson, spent the afternoon here and Mrs. Merritt Kerr was a caller. In the evening, E. H. Franzen, a son-in-law, and son, Donald, from Omaha, came to bring greetings.
Mrs. Frank Barkus, a daughter, served a birthday lunch to the guests. The home was decorated in pink and white in honor of the occasion. Many lovely gifts were received by Mrs. Larson.

Tuesday Afternoon Bridge—

To Be Guests Here—
Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dovey have received word from their daughters, Hazel and Mrs. J. R. Brown, that they will arrive in Plattsmouth Saturday evening to spend Easter vacation with their parents. Mrs. Brown will be accompanied by her two daughters, Mary Eleanor and Carolyn. The family lives at Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Hazel Dovey is a teacher in the Canton, Ohio schools. The group is driving through. The guests plan to be here a week and to meet many old friends.

Attend Family Reunion—
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider and small son, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wetenkamp and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wiles drive to Lincoln this evening to attend a family reunion dinner at the home of Mrs. B. F. Wiles. The reunion is being held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Faye Blanchard of Rochester, N. Y., who are visiting in Lincoln. Mrs. Blanchard was formerly Beulah Miner of this city.

Naomi Circle—
Mrs. Wm. Baird opened the program of the Naomi circle at the home of Mrs. L. S. Devoe yesterday afternoon with the story of the crucifixion. Mrs. Devoe accompanied her at the piano. Dorothea Duxbury played the "Flower Song" as a piano solo.
During the business meeting plans were made for the Easter egg sale which the circle is planning for the Saturday before Easter and for the federation supper to be held April 6. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. James Rishel and Mrs. Sarah Kerr. 24 members were present.

Bridge Club—
Mrs. Carl Schneider entertained the bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home. High score was won by Mrs. Wm. Schmidtmann, Jr., and second by Mrs. Hilt Martin. Guests were Miss Eleanor Hiber and Mrs. Harley Wiles.

Dorcas Circle—
Miss Wilma Pickard was hostess to the Dorcas circle at the meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. A. H. Duxbury led the devotional period. Mrs. Pete Carr gave a sketch of the Bible characters, Mary and Martha. Beatrice Arn entertained the group with a vocal solo. A reading was given by Jeannette Hirz and Jean Knorr played a piano solo.

Miss Pickard was assisted by Mrs. W. A. Wells and Mrs. Florence Coleman.

Gleaners Circle—
Plans were made for the entertainment of the Federation April 1 at the meeting of the Gleaners circle yesterday afternoon. The Extension Chorus is to furnish music for the meeting. The ladies also discussed plans for the supper and bazaar April 6. Mrs. Merritt Kerr took charge of the business meeting.
Mrs. A. Boynton led the devotional period. Mrs. Edgar Newton was hostess with Mrs. Wallace Warner, assistant.
