

Murray

James H. Brown of Omaha and wife were visiting and looking after business matters in Murray last Monday morning.

Edward Brubacher and wife of Plattsmouth, parents of G. E. Brubacher, were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of their son.

On last Sunday Chester Shrader and wife of South Omaha were guests for the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Nickles.

Mrs. D. C. Rhoden was a visitor for the day last Saturday at Plattsmouth where she was guest for the afternoon at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Wm. Gorder.

Lawrence Smith who has been occupying one of the residence properties of the Latta estate during the early part of the week moved into another one as it was more desirable.

C. D. Spangler and Mrs. Margaret Todd, his daughter, were in Weeping Water last Wednesday night meeting with the other postmasters and employees of the postal service in Cass county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney were over to Clay Center, spending the week-end at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Bud Peck and husband, who are appearing as entertainers over radio station KMMJ.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Randall Switzer was made happy on last Sunday when it was visited by the stork who left a very fine eight and a half pound daughter, Dr. R. W. Tyson was there and welcomed the little lady into the world.

Attorney D. O. Dwyer of Plattsmouth while on his way to Lincoln to look after some business, stopped in Murray and visited with George E. Nickles, as well as looking after some business matters while in town.

Sowing Much Barley.
Ray Frederick of Nebraska City, the seed dealer, was in Murray last Monday morning looking after some business matters and meeting his friends here. Mr. Frederick is seeding some 250 acres of barley for seed for the coming season. He has just returned from the western part of the state and reports that there is more moisture than for the past seven years, and prospects are bright.

Much Interest in Revival.
The revival being conducted at the Christian church in Murray is attracting much favorable comment and is being well attended. On last Thursday evening some forty of the members of the Christian church at Plattsmouth were down and enjoyed the service. Again this week there is expected to be a large number from the Plattsmouth church in attendance and to assist in the service.

Visiting in Murray.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Blake on last Sunday was gathered a number of relatives and friends to help properly celebrate the passing of the Sunday. Those present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hyatt of Elmwood, Mrs. Pauline Russell of Weeping Water and Mrs. Herman Lempe which made a good crowd who sure enjoyed the get together meeting.

Visited Here Last Saturday.
Hon. W. B. Banning and wife of Lincoln, while on their way to Union for the week end stopped in Murray last Saturday to look after some business matters and to visit with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles.

To Make Home in Louisville.
Teddy Baker who has been making his home in Murray for the past few years, moved to Louisville last week and will make their home there. Mr.

Baker has found employment in the vicinity of Murray rather scarce and so decided to move where there is a prospect of more employment.

Will Grow Peas and Spinach.

Fred Beverage, living west of Murray several miles was in town last Monday morning looking after some business and later continued to Plattsmouth where he went to get his supply of peas and spinach for seed as he is expecting to grow a portion of both for the Norfolk Packing company. His former experience in this line has been very good and he is desirous of engaging in the cultivation of both vegetables, for this year as he looks for good crops in all farm products.

Hold Business Meeting.

The Young People of the Presbyterian church of Murray, which is one of the very active auxiliaries of the church, met in a business session at the home of their president, John Farris, where some twenty members of the organization got together to look after the business which was to come before them. A delightful luncheon was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Exchanged their Pulpits.

Rev. Hubbell who is the pastor of the Christian church at Auburn, but who has been here for some time to assist in the series of religious services at the Christian church here, remained here and delivered the sermons Sunday, and Rev. Shubert went down to Auburn to fill the pulpit there, thus both churches being supplied with a minister.

Charles Ferguson Badly Injured.

While Charles Ferguson of south of Union was working in the timber he was struck by a falling limb of a tree which rendered him unconscious and he was hurried to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City where he is being cared for. His condition is considered as being very serious, he not being entirely conscious when Martin Sporer visited him Sunday.

April Fool Circus.

The members of the "Murray Review" held an "April Fool Circus" at the home of Josephine and Eugene Stastka last Thursday evening.

In presenting their act the tight rope walkers showed great skill. This was followed by a piano solo by one of the guests. The animals, consisting of bears, deer, ground hogs and monkeys, showed great originality and were of great interest to the guests.

Those present to enjoy the circus were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Spangler and children, Charles and Charlene, Mrs. Margaret Todd and son Dick, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and daughter, Beverly, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Spangler, Mr. Greer, Dr. and Mrs. Tyson and daughter, Ann Marilyn, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore, Mrs. R. C. Kennedy and daughter, Betty Lou, Bobby and Dale Wohlfarth, Marie and Loa Davis and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stastka and children, Josephine and Eugene.

SHOWS SOME IMPROVEMENT

Henry Donat, who suffered the injury of his right kneecap some time ago, is still confined to his home, altho he is able to be around the house with the aid of a cane. While a student in the high school he had the knee cap injured in football practice in the fall of 1931 and has suffered more or less from the injury since. He had the knee cap knocked out again while working around the Donat tavern.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. E. J. Ferrie, who has been at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City, recovering from a minor operation, was brought home Sunday to this city. She is doing very nicely but will be forced to spend several weeks in recuperation. She is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Chriswiser for the present and the many friends are pleased to learn that she is home and doing so well.

SOCIAL CIRCLE CLUB

The Social Circle club held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. Will Cook and Mrs. Louis Burbee and Mrs. Bruce Wolfe assisting. It was one of the most interesting and pleasant meetings of the season with most of the members being present and with eleven visitors.

A wonderful dinner was served at the noon hour for the members and which was much appreciated. Mr. Lee Farris offered the grace.

Following the dinner the regular business meeting was called to order by the president, the members repeating the Lord's prayer at the opening of the meeting. Various topics were discussed by the members.

Mrs. Roy Becker was awarded a very handsome quilt.

The leaders took charge of the meeting and in their interesting manner gave the lesson of the day, that on one dish meals, demonstrating very cleverly two of the one dish meals which tasted very good indeed.

The next meeting will be April 8th at the Community center, it being the achievement party, so everyone be sure and come as it will also be the election of officers.

The Social Circle club received an invitation to the Union Woman's club meeting at the Baptist church. Some twelve of the members were in attendance and enjoyed very much the program. Several very prominent club workers were present, each giving short talks and many other interesting things were on the program.

VISIT BEAUTY SPOT

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dooley and children, Wilma Jeanne, Ruth Ann and Dean Marson, with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sites, have just returned from a pleasant visit in Miami and Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

One of the features of the trip that will long be very pleasantly remembered was the visit to the Frank Phillips ranch, "Woolarc," located in the Osage hills of Oklahoma.

Mr. Phillips, the head of the Phillips Oil Co., one of the largest in the Oklahoma oil field, has spared no expense in making his ranch one of the finest in the southwest and it is stocked with all varieties of game which has been collected from many parts of the world and now roam the spacious acres of the ranch in safety.

The house at the ranch is in keeping with the greatness of the place and the large halls and living room are decorated with the heads of the game animals.

RETURNS FROM CHICAGO

Mrs. Theodore Yelick has returned home from Chicago where she visited for the past several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ptacek. Mrs. Yelick lived in Chicago before her marriage.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Nash of Palmyra visited relatives in Eagle last Friday.

Muenchau and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Muenchau, all of Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau, Edward and Grace of Alvo, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Muenchau and family of Waverly and Miss Buck of Murdock.

Eagle Resident Passes Away.
Orville Robertson passed away at 6:45 Sunday morning at his home. He had suffered with a heart ailment for more than a year. Last Wednesday morning his condition became very serious and continued to be so until he passed away.

Mr. Robertson was well known in this community and also in the Elmwood community where he resided for many years. Since he has lived in Eagle he was engaged in the trucking business until ill health made it necessary for him to retire from work requiring so much strenuous labor.

Beside his wife, he leaves six children, Lester of San Diego, Calif., Maurice of Unadilla, Mrs. Arthur Lindell of Murdock and Edith, Violet and Burke at home.

Services were held Wednesday at the home in Eagle at one o'clock and also at Elmwood. Burial was in the Elmwood cemetery.

Local Election.

At the local election on Tuesday of this week, J. L. Wall, Harry Robertson and Bert Lytle received the greatest number of votes and will serve on the village board. Wall and Robertson were re-elected. Otto Weyers and Rudolph Wulf were re-elected and will each serve a term of three years on the board of education.
