

Official Announcement Made by A. K. Donovan, for labor against material has George Adam State WPA Director of Information, at Meeting Chamber of Commerce

OTHER STATE WPA DIRECTORS HERE

T. H. Pollock, Chairman of Missouri River Improvement for fuel nad lumber supplies to Platts-Committee, Outlines the Project-A. A. Batson, Lloyd Woodard, D. P. DeBord, Mark Kerns Heard

A. K. Donovan, director of information, today gave the long subscribed to a clipping bureau and Tarkio College track team for 1938. hoped-for announcement of the approval of a WPA project for feel confident that new industries construction of a dock and warehouse on the Missouri river at will find Plattsmouth a favorable 10- Owl team for the last three years. Plattsmouth. The information was given at the noon luncheon of the Plattsmouth Chamber of Commerce.

T. H. Pollock, chairman of the Missouri River Improvement Impressive committee of the C. of C., outlined the project and reviewed the history of its approval, dating back to early 1935 when application was first formulated. Other members of this committee are A. L. Tidd and E. J. Richey.

D. P. DeBord, chief engineer for the Works Progress Administration in Nebraska, made a few remarks and praised the Miss Rose Sheehan and Mr. Lyrus gospel team. Plattsmouth committee. A. A. Batson, assistant director of WPA in Nebraska was also introduced. Director Felton had planned to attend the meeting here, but was called away on urgent business. Lloyd A. Woodard, supervisor of operations of WPA in Nebraska, made a few statements to the chamber.

ent at the meeting. He has been active in getting the project shaped Rose Sheehan and Mr. Lynus Mas-each year. for final approval and will carry on the construction work of the soth. dock and road leading thereto. D. R. Thornton, head of the U. S. To the strains of Lohengrin's wed- George at the hands of his team- of death Hongineers office in Plattsmouth showed his enthusiasm for the land of the U.S. In a special gift by the best of a dock at Plattsmouth in his remarks. High praise was lard worker and a conscient known, has long been an active fig. building of a dock at Plattsmouth in his remarks. High praise was aisle to take their positions in the life of Cass county and had vist, who has twice mentioned the Sylvesters over the air, given to Mr. Thornton for his work on the project by E. J. Richey, sanctuary, which was beautifully demember of the committee. Praise was also given to Capt. Herbert corated with spring flowers. Loper and his force of engineers for their co-operation.

Transportation Next Summer

Fort Peck Dam Control

the county commissioners for their

Carl Schneider, president, called a location for a dock as Plattsmouth. was sung by Mr. George Rau. upon Searl Davis, chairman of the committee appointed to raise the last $2,000 required to assure WPA Other members of the finance com-John Sattler and E. J. Richey. Other guests from out of town tation rates will be in effect.

mittee with their guests drove to and points west. the river site to see the future location of the dock.

project consists of three parts. A is to be the largest artificial body of munity. concrete dock 250 feet long by 56 water in the United States. Surplus Following the church services a The ocean is warmer than the air and acquire a home. surfacing of Lincoln Avenue from during the winter months. WPA John Stander.

ment graded and paved a waterfront subscription. at the site of the future dock which | Mo. River Improvement Committee | reside. is over 2000 feet long. This waterfront has an 80 foot board mattress at Plattsmouth may be given to the included Mrs. John Massoth, mother weather was quite cool in California F. W. Robb, Lincoln, who survive, ing a fine tribute to the services of Work to Begin Immediately with at least 100 men on the job A. L. Tidd and John Turner. early in June. T. H. Pollock will In March of 1936, Messrs. Pollock, Edward Sheehan, Falls City. work with Mark Kerns of Nebraska Tidd, and Richey drove to Peoria, Ill., City, project inspector. They will where they inspected the dock along have offices in the Gund building on the Illinois river and the general ef-

Plattsmouth will have the first worked on the Plattsmouth dock. dock above Kansas City. A federal barge line is now operating as far as The present project was approved of the program.

nearly a year ago but the amount changed the plans a number of times since so that final approval has just been made.

Gains to Cass county farmers through cheaper transportation has been estimated at $150 per year per 160 acre farm. The river transpor- Plattsmouth Young Man Selected to is being held before the commission tation will also mean cheaper rates

Five acres for the dock site and 66 feet for the road have been College and a graduate of Plattsdonated by T. H. Pollock.

eation for their operations.

Church Wedding

Massoth Married Thursday at St. Patrick's Church.

A. L. Tidd told of the work in Kansas City which gives 391 miles lowed by a brief, impressive talk squad of 11 veterans next spring that endeared him to those who had finally securing aproval of the dock project and praised both the city and praised by the city anall praised by the city and praised by the city and praised by th extend the river mileage to 634 miles. celebrated. The music throughout the mouth high school team-mates, Don Mr. Robb has largely lived his ning. Engineers have declared that no point mass was simple but effective and Cotner, state champion broad-jumper life in Wyoming precinct, Otoe counabove Plattsmouth has as favorable during the offertory an Ave Marie and holder of the Missouri record and ty and in Union, altho he was for schools, presided as the master of hind the bars two desverate criminals.

The bride, attractively gowned in powder-blue with white accessories Barge lines are expected to come and wearing a shoulder corsage of mittee were Waldemar Soennichsen, and one tow boat is able to push six Mr. Massoth was attended by his ter and husband, Warrant Officer and section. He was at one time steward barges. As a result cheap transpor- brother, Mr. Charles Massoth of Mrs. Berggren. Geneva.

tor of the Omaha Bee News and the "O St." road will be completed ley all her life, has hosts of friends on the island. She describes the soil ery Robb was born August 14, 1854, Ernest Jones, representing the Om- gives Plattsmouth a paved road to and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. as being of a deep reddish brown. It in Muncy, Pa., the son of Fleming from that city, the largest outside and the details that linked the ban-Lincoln. As a result this will prob- William Sheehan, one of the best is composed of volcanic ash. This and Ellen W. Robb. Two years later Following the meeting, the com- ably be the port of entry for Lincoln known and highly esteemed families coloring makes the foliage and blos- they came to Nebraska, settling in in the community.

Water for the Missouri river chan- friends during his residence in Man- all the time she visited the island. one of the most influential of the Will Involve Large Expenditure nel will be regulated through the ley, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John The temperature remained btween early settlers. Although he had been Charles Barnard of Mynard, Sheriff membered. Fred I. Archibald, asso-Between 65 and 75 thousand dol- Fort Peck dam which is being con- Massoth of Geneva, equally well 70 and 85 degrees. Mrs. Ofe stated a tanner in Pennsylvania and followlars will be spent in Plattsmouth. The structed at Fort Peck, Montana. This known and respected in their com- that it rains very easily on the island ed the trade for a number of years, feet wide and a warehouse on the water is to be stored here, at the wedding breakfast was served at the the group went swimming at Christ- W. H. Robb grew to manhood in dock 30 by 200 feet are to be con- head waters of the Missouri, and run home of the bride's parents. Be- mas time. structed. The road from First street into the channel during dry periods. Sides the close relatives the follow- More oriental people are on the isto the dock is to be graded and rock Grading on the road and on Lin- ing friends were included: Rev. land than whites. Most of the welcome to the visitors in behalf forcing officers and that all of the surfaced. The third part of the contract calls for the grading and rock- the rock surfacing will be completed Mr. Ralph Welte and Mr. army or the navy. All kinds of re- preached the first sermon in the way No. 75, one and a quarter miles. Cass county commissioners have Mr. and Mrs. Massoth left for a brief days. While working on the river im- voted $9,000 toward the project and wedding trip. They will be at home The return trip was made on the "ghost town." provement project, the War depart- the city has raised $2,000 by private to their friends in Manley after June Molola to Los Angeles. Mrs. Ofe W. H. M. Robb was married June State Sheriff William Flake, head under water. It was put in at an Missouri River Improvement committed and Hugh M. Robb, who is dead, the Sylvesters which had brought originator of the plan for the public expense of approximately $40,000. tee which was appointed from the daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. J. A. Schrop- the weather here much warmer. Mrs. Other surviving relatives are Jane, honor to the record of law enforce-Chamber of Commerce three years fer, aunt of the groom, Geneva, Ofe arrived at 8:05 in Omaha on the John, Mary Donnelly and Elizabeth ment in Nebraska. He praised the Bids will be let immediately and ago. T. H. Pollock is chairman. He Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. John Zoz, Cook; Union Pacific Challenger. it is expected that work will open has been assisted by E. J. Richey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer, Avoca; Miss Margaret Sheehan, Omaha; Mr.

PROMOTIONAL EXERCISES

Captain Tarkio Tracksters

Head the Owls Track Team for the Season of 1938.

mouth high school in the class of Members of the committee have 1933, has been elected captain of the George has made a letter on the competing in the low hurdles and fore the commission. the half mile relay. He has also won two letters in football at guard position, though he is one of the smallest linemen in the Missouri con-

In addition to his competition in Held at Manley athletics. George has had time to sing in the tenor section of the men's

Though these activities consume a great deal of time and he must work a part of each day to help pay the About fifty relatives and intimate expenses of his education, George the Missouri conference this year among the older residents of the The ceremony, performed by the after holding the championship in county and his friends were many, ladies of the American Legion Auxpastor, Rev. James Hennessy was fol-lowed by a brief impressive tells Stuart Porter, champion shot-putter. some time a resident of Plattsmouth ceremonies while the song leader was of the city as the work progresses. a width of 1,000 feet. A single barge accessories with a shoulder corsage ruary and went by way of Canada. state and county and he was recog-In Honolulu Mrs, Ofe visited her sis- nized as one of the leaders in this

RETURNS FROM HONOLULU

Mrs. Ofe was especially impressed ernor John H. Mickey, 15th where for the present they will spent a month visiting friends in 29, 1876, to Jessie M. Walbridge in of the state law enforcing depart-Oceanside, Los Angeles, and San Wyoming precinct. There were three ment, was present as the represent-Credit for the location of the dock Those attending from a distance Diego, Calif. She reports that the children, C. August Robb, Union, and ative of Governor R. L. Cochran, pay-

RETURN FROM CONVENTION

Plattsmouth dentists returned from the Nebraska State Dental Society convention in Omaha Wednes-4th and Main streets in Plattsmouth. fect of river navigation and water The eighth grade promotional ex-A building is being erected near the rates on the commercial life of that ercises of the Cass county schools will session. 560 dentists were registered ation made Wednesday for the drainsite of the dock for offices and as a section. They came back enthusiastic be held on Saturday, May 29th at 2 this year, which is the largest numwarehouse for materials and tools. over the success of the dock there and p. m. at the Plattsmouth high school. ber in the past ten years. Child ed the operation. Mr. Koke is report-State Superintendent Charles W. health and preventative dentistry ed to be slightly better today. He is Avis, Mayone, Willa, Margaret and the two guests of honor and these Taylor will be the principal speaker were stressed throughout the con- new at the home of his mother-in- Patty Ann.

ATTEND HEARING

From Thursday's Daily-Mayor George Lushinsky, City Attorney J. Howard Davis and Councilman John E. Schutz were at Lincoln today where they appeared before the state liquor commission. A hearing tion of Joseph Lapidus for a license for a retail package liquor store. The George Adam, a junior at Tarkio application was not approved at a counsel were also in attendance at

'Mont' Robb of Union Dies After

and Southern Cass County Is Called to the Last Rest.

W. H. M. Robb, a pioneer of north-The honor which has come to Complications was given as the cause and operated the Hotel Riley some George Jaeger with E. H. Wescott at bers of the banquet committee of the twenty years ago.

of the state penitentiary under Gov-were Russell Peters, managing edi- Assurance that the pavement on Miss Sheehan has lived in Man- by the vivid coloring of the flowers Washington Hammond Montgomsoms look even more brilliant. She Wyoming precinct. The elder Robb Wyoming precinct. A member of the ning.

Robb, grandchildren.

of the M. W. A. lodge.

SECOND OPERATION

law, Mrs. Virgil Arnold.

Community Banquet Honoring Heroism of Sylvester Brothers Attended by Large Number today on the matter of the applica- More Than 150 Gather to Extend Honors to the Cass County Officers Who So Bravely Carried Out Duties of Office.

mended only two of the package GIVEN BEE-NEWS SCROLLS, WINCHELL ORCHIDS

the hearing to present their case be- D. T. Ladd, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Chicago, Principal Speaker-Recognition Paid Sylvesters by Other Speakers on Program.

Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester were the honor guests at the banquet held Thursday evening at the American Legion community building sponsored by the King Korn a Long Illness Klub, in which they received well deserved tribute for their capture here on the evening of April 16th, of Alfred Powers and Robert A Pioneer Resident of Northern Otoe Suhay. New York bank bandits and slayers of H. W. Baker, federal operative, earlier that same day in the postoffice at Topeka,

The sheriff and his efficient deputy were presented with friends gathered in St. Patrick's has ranked in the upper fifteen per ern Otoe county and southern Cass framed scrolls on which were inscribed the citation of their brave church, in Manley. Thursday, May cent of his class and his name has county, died Friday morning at his deed, the scrolls being signed by R. L. Cochran, governor of Ne-Mark Kerns of Nebraska City, project inspector, was also pres- 20th to witness the marriage of Miss appeared on the scholastic honor roll home at Union where he has been braska, and J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Incritically ill for the past five months. vestigation in Washington. The scrolls were prepared and offered as gifts from the Omaha Bee-News. Also, an orchid was presented

During his lifetime Mr. Robb was . The high school orchestra, which approval through private subscrip- up the Missouri by the summer of sweetheart roses was attended by her Mrs. E. G. Ofe returned Tuesday very prominent in republican poli- has so graciously aided in several of Henry Soennichsen, A. A. Schneider, tion in Plattsmouth. Mr. Davis as- 1938. It is expected that a nine-foot sister, Miss Catherine Sheehan, wear- evening from a three month trip to ties in the state and his presence was the community gatherings, gave a John E. Turner, and E. A. Webb, who sured the workers of the backing channel will be cut by that time with ing a daffodil colored gown, white Honolulu, Hawaii. She left in Feb- noted at all of the gatherings both fine musical program during the serv- received the greetings of the aud-

Toastmaster Devoe took the occa- The idea of the public recognition and fearless officers.

fine spirit of co-operation that had of the idea, as he had been deeply Mrs. Robb died at Union on March been shown between the county and interested in the fine work of the 28. 1928. Mr. Robb was a member state officers in seeing that the laws Sylvesters and thought that it should were enforced properly.

Homer Sylvester and Mrs. Cass Syl- news. He contacted J. Edgar Hoovester who received a very enthu- ver and who had inspired him to the

H. B. Fletcher, head of the Omaha

partment the appreciation felt for so promptly and effectively placing be-

Mr. Devoe also presented the mem-King Korn Klub, R. W. Knorr, chairman; F. P. Busch, C. C. Wescott,

How It Happened

sion to call on a number of the visi- of the Cass county officers came as an tors and Mayor O. C. Hinds, of Weep- inspiration of the directors of the ing Water gave a very witty and Omaha Bee-News and to their efforts clever response for the delegation was due the fine climax of their plans quet as a state and national recog-Others presented and responding nized event. The staff had prepared Mr. Massoth who has made many found the climate to remain the same added to his land holdings, became were Elmer Hallstrom, of Avoca, the scrolls and other details that -not hard rains but fine mist falls. his ambition was to move west and Union, William Boland of Omaha of the Cass county officers. Mr. who extended words of congratula- Archibald stated this was a very tion to the honored guests of the eve- notable occasion, that the eyes of the nation had centered on Cass county ligion are to be found on the island. Robb home. The family, arriving in tion for the splendid work of the officers of Cass county. Mr. Archi-3rd street past the shops to high- labor is being used on the project. Immediately after the breakfast The trip across the ocean took five Nebraska, crossed the river near the townsite of Old Wyoming, now a ample that they have given of brave very beautiful orchids, the gift of Walter Winchell and which will long remain a pleasant memory for the

Mr. Archibald introduced Rushave more than a mere passing recog-Toastmaster Devoe presented Mrs. nition that might be given in the

(Continued on page 3.)