Death of Aged Resident of the City Wednesday

Elijah Milton Griffin Passes Away After An Illness That Has Covered Several Years.

From Thursday's Daily—

Wednesday afternoon at the home on North 7th street, occurred the death of Elijah Milton Griffin, 71, who has been a resident of Cass county for the past twenty years, a greater part of this time in Plattsmouth.

Mr. Griffin suffered a stroke three years ago and has for the past two years been helpless and required constant care. The family was at Tulsa, Oklahoma, for some time but for the past two years have been making their home here.

The deceased was born at Shady Grove, Missouri, June 12, 1866, and in that community spent his youth and early manhood, and where he was married on December 22, 1892, to Miss Cora Ann Eddy. Mr. Griffin was received into the Christian church and baptized on Christmas day, 1893 in this faith and of which he has been a very devout member during the remaining years of his lifetime.

The family came to Cass county in 1917, living in the vicinity of Nehawka and Union and later moving to Plattsmouth where Mr. Griffin followed his trade as blacksmith as long as his health permitted.

Mr. Griffin is survived by the widow and five children, H. W. Griffin of Union, Alfred and Arley, serving in the U. S. navy, Mrs. Jessie Moore, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Frances at home. One son, Paul, died in infancy.

The body was taken to the Horton funeral home and will be sent to the old home at Bolivar, Missouri, this evening on the midnight Missouri Pacific train.

The burial will be at the Shady Grove, Missouri, cemetery.

That a death penalty for any person revealing the methods of the silk worm industry enabled the Chinese to keep them secret for 2000 years. The culture extends 5000 years into the past, although the date assigned to its beginning by the Chinese is the reign of Emperor Huang-Ti, 2356, B.C.

Elmwood News

Mrs. Verona Olsen and daughter, Mrs. Hazel, were visiting friends in Omaha last Sunday.

Uncle Henry Hayes, who has been very poorly for some time, is said to be in serious condition at the time this is written.

William Harig is having a palling fence built at the farm, the palling being prepared at the Elmwood lumber yard so they are ready to be placed on the fence.

Mrs. Frank Gillett, who has been in poor health for some time, is reported some better now. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank Gillett, Jr., is here assisting in the care of the patient as well as with the house work.

On last Tuesday Mrs. J. P. Cobb, great aunt to the little lady, and Guy Clements, were in Lincoln to see the little lady who has been christened Dorothy Jean Beechner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Beechner of Lincoln.

Mrs. Emily Gonzales was a visitor in Lincoln last Sunday, going over to visit her son, Donald, and enjoying a fine dinner with him. Donald is a student at the University of Nebraska and will be home as soon as school is out.

New Service Station

Frank Hoffman, who has resided in Elmwood for some time, has secured the old shop west of the bank building and garage and with the aid of Clarence Ohms has torn part of it down and is converting the remainder to a modern filling station.

This will add another service station to the number already here.

Met in Country

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church held their meeting last week at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parsell, five miles southwest of Elmwood. A very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed in visiting and looking after routine business. The meeting was climaxed by the serving of a delicious luncheon by the hostess.

Will Work in Alvo

De Loris Schwartz, who has been operating the delivery truck for the Standard Oil Company out of Elmwood, has tendered his resignation and accepted a position with the John E.
