John Christwiser was called to Union last Monday to look after some business matters in connection with his work of maintaining the highways.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Stone of near Murray were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton, parents of Mrs. Stone.

Charles Land of Union was looking after some business matters in Nehawka Monday afternoon of this week. He was consulting with Olaf Lundberg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooney of Nebraska City were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of the sister of Mr. Cooney, Mark Burton and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop were hosts for the day and dinner last Sunday at their country home north of Nehawka. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wehrbein and little son, Billy, were guests.

Miss Lanna McReynolds, postmistress at Nehawka, has just arrived home after spending two week vacation. She spent part of the time at Omaha and the remainder at Denver, Colorado.

Floyd Smith and family of Omaha who have been visiting with friends in Nebraska City, last Saturday stopped in Nehawka on their way home for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mason, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burton and daughter were in Lincoln last Saturday attending a school of instruction given by representatives of companies carrying apparatus for caring for public buildings.

Thomas Mason, Jr., mail carrier on one of the rural routes, accompanied by his wife spent the greater part of last week as well as this, visiting friends at Kansas City, taking the annual vacation.

E. W. Thimgan was in Nehawka last Monday looking after business in connection with the government sanitary project which he supervises at Plattsmouth. He arranged for the installation of a half dozen units in this vicinity.

Mrs. C. S. Sherman and Mrs. Lois Troop and Misses Agnes Chapman, all of Lincoln while on their way to Plattsmouth last Monday to attend a dinner party at the Gering home, stopped at the W. O. Troop home for a short visit.

Raymond Creamer made the purchase of a combine which he initiated in the cutting of the wheat field of W. O. Troop Wednesday of this week. The first report of returns from harvesting was out in the country where the wheat made twenty bushels and tested 59 pounds to the bushel.

Meets Serious Accident.

S. C. Sprague, living a number of miles north of Nehawka where he and his son are engaged in farming, was plowing corn last Saturday afternoon when the team which he was using became frightened and ran away entangling Mr. Sprague who is past seventy years of age in the plow with the result that one of his legs was fractured and a severe gash cut in the other one, as well as filling the wound with dirt from the field. He was given treatment and taken to the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City where he is being cared for. While the injuries are very severe he is reported as getting on fairly and it is hoped that he will make the desired improvement.

Has Head Injured.

Harry Obernaulte and wife, living south of Wabash who have a daughter, Miss Melba attending summer school at Peru came this way last Sunday to visit the daughter and picked up Wm. Obernaulte and wife, taking them with Henry and wife to visit the daughter. On arriving near Peru they struck a very rough piece of roadway, causing the auto to jump very badly and threw Wm. Obernaulte against the roof of the auto, cutting a severe hole in his scalp which required the services of a physician to close. He is getting along all right but has a very sore head which will be some time healing.

Entertained for the Day.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Steffens entertained at their home in Nehawka last Sunday for the day and a very fine dinner, the members of the family, and had for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of Mr. Steffens, Miss Mollie Magney, mother of Mrs. Steffens, Albert Anderson and family, D. Steffens and wife of Nehawka, Frank Horstman and family of Talmage, the daughters of Mr. Steffens, Maxine and Laverne, which made a very happy family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Jones of Enid, Oklahoma, who are visiting at the Steffens home, were also guests at the dinner.

Will Have Free Movies.

Two young men from Omaha were in Nehawka Monday of this week and arranged with the business men of Nehawka for the giving of free moving picture shows each Saturday evening starting with the coming Saturday night, as a drawing card for the town. Heretofore many of the people, even in Nehawka, have drive into other towns to attend free movies, as well as much of the country precincts, thus making their trading places at places where there are free shows, thus depriving the home town merchant of the trade that should come to him.

Visited Old Time Home.

Joseph DuCluse who made his home in Nehawka for many years but who has been in the south staying on the farm of Governor George Sheldon for the past seven years, arrived in Nehawka last week and has been visiting friends. Mr. DuCluse is working this week, assisting in the harvest on the farm of Otto Schaffer north of town.

Guests of Grain Exchange.

Messrs. J. J. Pollard and James Palmer were over to Omaha last Sunday, guests of the Omaha Grain Exchange at a school of instruction being given for the testing of grain for the ascertaining of the exact degree of moisture in wheat before it has been declared sample grade but the amount of moisture has been reduced to fifteen percent when it is called sample grade and other grades have been reduced in proportion which has raised the quality of the wheat for each grade.

Visiting in the West.

Henry Wessell and wife departed last Sunday for Seattle, Washington, where they went to visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. W. Miller. Dr. Miller being with the Pacific coast fleet of the United States. Mrs. Miller was formerly Miss Melba Wessell. TRYING AN INNOVATION AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. J. W. Taenzler, pastor of the First Christian church of this city has instituted a new mode of procedure during the summer months in hopes of bettering the service at the morning worship as well as improving the attendance. The hour of morning worship starts at 9 o'clock, followed by Sunday school at 10. At the early service the extreme heat of the day has not been reached and it is more pleasant to attend worship service. The first service following the change was last Sunday when a larger number of worshippers were in attendance. This new schedule allows all morning services to be over by 11 o'clock instead of 12.

Legion Junior Baseball Season Opened Monday

Plattsmouth Turns Back Louisville by the Score of 8 to 5—Local Team Looks Good.

The Plattsmouth team of the Junior American Legion baseball league made a good start of the season Monday afternoon when they took the Louisville team by the score of 8 to 5. The game was marked by sharp clashes between the onlookers, but the kids themselves were in the game to play ball and nothing else. The visitors garnered two runs in the second inning when errors and one hit permitted the scores being registered at the plate and left the locals dragging.

The Plattsmouth team started to go places in the third frame of the game, Rebal hitting safely to right and was resting on first while Jackson fanned. Gakemeier of the visitors blew in this inning and passed Shiffer, Phillips was out at first and then Jones and Hayes were walked and in the meantime Rebal had scored. Don Wall, the local hard hitter, poked the ball for a double to deep center and on which three Platt runs came over the plate. Wall was scored on the hit of Wiles.

The locals scored again in the sixth inning when with two out, Jackson and Shiffer were walked and scored when Phillips hit safe. Wiles pitched a good game all of the way. Plattsmouth will play Elmwood on Thursday.

The box score of the game was as follows:

Plattsmouth—

LEGION'S 10TH ANNUAL RED OAK CELEBRATION

Monday, July 5, Lorraine Post, American Legion of Red Oak will pull off its tenth consecutive celebration in Red Oak, with what promises to be the greatest program ever attempted in this section of the state and undoubtedly the greatest celebration in Iowa this year.

From early morning till late at night there will be something doing. Ten high school marching bands will put on a competitive exhibition under flood lights at Legion park in the evening. These same bands will be featured in two spectacular parades, one at noon and one at 7 p. m. The bands will also give a concert in the city square at 5 p. m.

Two ball games by the fastest amateur teams in the midwest—Stanton Vikings vs. Red Oak Gassers and Ft. Crook vs. Farmers' Union of Des Moines—will be played in the afternoon on Legion park diamond, the finest ball field in southwest Iowa, and the games will be free to all holding celebration tickets. Also a game in the morning between Legion Juniors of Red Oak and Shenandoah.

Two regular old-fashioned balloon ascensions will occur at 2 and 7 o'clock p. m. This is something which has not been seen in these parts for many a year, and will be enjoyed by all. Fireworks—daylight and night—$1,500 display of pyrotechnics, the newest and finest.

Picnic grounds are cool and commodious, plenty of parking space for all, and swimming in the finest pool in the state free to holders of general admission tickets. Dancing in Rainbow pavilion from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 9 p. m. on through the night.

One of the finest carnivals on the road will offer many excellent attractions, and the midway is free to all celebrators. The bands and ball games alone are worth-going miles to see and paying twice the small admission charge of 49c plus tax. It is expected that from 25,000 to 30,000 will enjoy Iowa's greatest celebration at Red Oak on July 5th.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.

Obituary. Inez Alvina Gray was born near Minneapolis, Minnesota, July 11, 1856 and departed this life June 24, 1937 at the age of 80 years, 11 months and 13 days.

She came to Nebraska with her parents at the age of eight years. They resided nine miles from Nebraska City at a place called the "Nine Mile Place" for three years. The family then moved to a homestead in Otoe county not far from where Avoca now is. There she lived until her marriage to Samuel Rodaway on October 1, 1887. Mr. and Mrs. Rodaway located on a farm just across the section from Mrs. Rodaway's homestead home. To this union was born six children, Mrs. Ray Wall, Mrs. Myrl Hall, Milton Rodaway of Elmwood, Edgar and Carl of Los Angeles, California. One daughter, Mrs. Walter Moreland, passed away a number of years ago.

They resided in Otoe county until 1900 when they moved to York county. After living there two years, they moved to Cass county where she lived until her death.

She loved to tell of the early days when this part of the country was just a prairie. She was one of a family of eight children, of whom William Gray of San Francisco is the only one surviving. She had been bedfast for the past year and a half and death came as a welcome relief. She made many sacrifices for her family and will be greatly missed.

She is survived by one brother five children, fifteen grandchildren and four great, great grandchildren.

DIES IN MISSOURI. Marvin Walker, 82, a brother of Mrs. Robert H. Patton, of this city, died on Sunday, June 20th, at his home in Springfield, Missouri, where he has made his home in recent years. Mr. Walker was formerly a resident of Worth county, Missouri, where he spent his younger years and was educated at Albany, Missouri, where he attended college and later was a teacher in the schools in Missouri and Texas. He later engaged in stock raising and farming for a number of years and then followed the insurance business for some years. He has been the manager of the Empire apartments at Springfield for several years.

Mr. Walker has been a visitor here a number of times in the past years and was an old time friend of Col. M. A. Bates, and Robert A. and T. B. Bates, who were for several years in the newspaper business at Grant City, Missouri.

He is survived by seven children, five of whom reside at Springfield, one son in Colorado, and one daughter, as well as the widow.

The funeral was held at Springfield last Tuesday.
