

MURDOCK ITEMS

Ferdinand Reichmann is driving a new Chevrolet.

Mrs. Leah Winkler visited at the H. R. Schmidt home last Wednesday.

John Thoms has disposed of his Model A Ford, getting one of the new V-8 models.

August Ruge purchased a new Royal Chrysler through a local sales agency July 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Troup and Mrs. Long of Lincoln visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Zabel last Sunday afternoon.

Charles Bohn of Oklahoma visited relatives and friends here last week, among them Charles Haertel and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller.

During the time when his housekeeper, Mrs. Arnold, is away on her vacation, L. Neitzel has been doing his own cooking and has become quite adept at batching.

Mr. and Mrs. Court Opitz and son, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Margaretta Rikli during the past two weeks, returned to their home in Binger, Oklahoma, Tuesday.

Mrs. Joseph Johnson and three sons were in Lincoln last Sunday to spend the day with her father, Andrew Benson. Mr. Johnson remained at home to look after trade at the cafe.

A. J. Tool who takes stock during the summer instead of in the winter, was invoicing the stock at the store last week, making as much speed as he could and attend to trade at the same time.

Frank A. Melvin, who is employed by the Stocks Implement company, went to Lincoln last Wednesday to get some repairs for harvesting machinery, which is being put to full time use just now.

William Rich and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Luetchens last Sunday. They drove down from Lincoln in time to attend divine worship and the Bible school with their host and family.

Geraldine Schmidt, daughter of Louis Schmidt, of Wabash, started training in an Omaha beauticians' school the first of August. She graduated from the Murdock high school last spring. She believes her choice of work will be much to her liking.

Mr. H. H. Bredthauer, of North Loup and Mr. A. Higgins of Scotia were in town last Wednesday looking at crop conditions and the country in general. They found crop yields here much better than in their own county, where the corn crop is lost again this year.

Mrs. E. W. Thimman, who has been a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bryan McDonald and family at Murdock, returned home a week ago and was accompanied by the daughter and her children, who visited at Plattsmouth. They returned home Sunday, August 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dehning, of Enid, Oklahoma, have been visiting friends and relatives here. They were accompanied by Henry Bruener, father of Mrs. Dehning. The return trip was made via the Ozark country of Missouri, where they also planned to visit briefly with relatives.

The Murdock Christian Endeavor met on the lawn of Miss Eloise Pool in Weeping Water last Monday evening. A fine business meeting was conducted earlier in the evening, after which sixty young people met for a happy lawn fellowship. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Blanche Anderson and Miss Leola Kroll were honored guests of the occasion.

The Misses Verona and Elizabeth Rikli, of Naperville, Illinois, who visited over Sunday with their relatives here, left for Denver and Colorado Springs last Tuesday to enjoy a brief vacation in the mountainous country. Miss Elizabeth is a graduate nurse in a hospital in Galesburg, Illinois, while her sister teaches school in Illinois. They expect to visit at points in Oklahoma before returning to their positions.

Electric Pumping Outfit I have an electric pumping outfit with tanks, all in excellent shape, for sale at a reasonable price.—Mrs. Hannah McDonald, Murdock.

Demonstration Wednesday The Farmers Union Company had a large ad-in the Journal Thursday calling attention to the demonstration of the F-12 Farmall tractor to be held on the Otto Miller farm a quarter of a mile east of town on Wednesday, August 4. Two cash prizes of $3 and $2, respectively, are offered to the two persons registering the closest and second closest estimates as to the time the F-12 rubber tired model will plow with 50 cents worth of tractor fuel. Better arrangements to attend this demonstration as you must register your guess in person on the field the day of the demonstration.

Ball Team Visited Here Oscar Rikli, with his ball team from Enid, Oklahoma, was here last week and played with a number of towns in this vicinity, one of their games being with the Syracuse Blue Birds, a girls' team. They played at many towns along the way both going and coming.

Here 34 Years Saturday Last Saturday marked the completion of 34 years of living in Murdock by the manager of the lumber yard, W. T. Weddell, who came here in 1903. Mr. Weddell remembers there were thirty-six residences in the town when he came, all of them being occupied, with a number being built since, while some have burned down. There still remain some thirteen people here who were residents of Murdock when Mr. Weddell came to town. They are Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Tool, Mrs. George Utt, Mrs. Hannah McDonald, Lacy McDonald, H. H. Lawton, Mr. and Mrs. Mat Thimman, L. Neitzel, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool. A lively stable and and elevator that were here when he came, have since burned. Ten new business houses have been built. Two barns, two elevators, a $45,000 school building, a waterworks system and an electrical distribution system have also been added in that time, and Mr. Weddell believes Murdock is a better town than when he first located here.

Death of Sarah M. Campbell Mrs. Sarah M. Campbell, a long time resident of Cass county, died at her home near South Bend, Nebr., Sunday, July 25, after an illness of but a week. She lived on the old homestead place since 1902, and throughout the years gathered about herself many friends. Her lifetime of 80 years, 4 months and 20 days, was lived in a quiet, unassuming and unselfish manner. Two daughters, Mrs. Frances M. Schafer and Mrs. Sara B. Rau, were in constant attendance at the bedside of their mother during the last illness.

Funeral services were held at the home at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and at 3:00 p. m. in the Marcy Funeral Home in Ashland, conducted by her pastor, Harvey A. Schwab. Interment took place in the Ashland cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah M. Campbell, nee Reid, who was born at Millbrook, Ontario, Canada, on March 5, 1857, passed into eternity Sunday morning July 25, 1937, at her home near South Bend, Nebraska. She was a dutiful child in the family of twelve children and studied in the early Canadian schools, where education was a cherished privilege and personally costly. While she never graduated from an educational institution, yet her life revealed that she learned largely and well lessons in the school of life experiences.

Sarah M. Reid was married to John Campbell at Millbrook, Canada, on November 7, 1876. They sojourned together for better or for worse, for 56 years. They found life challenging and beautiful. God's universe was wonderful and enriching for them. Their days came and went as a song that is sung and a tale that is told. Sons and daughters came to them as God's special gifts. The family companionship continued unbroken until June 25, 1937, when the husband departed this life.

Wabash News

George Moomey attended the community sale at Syracuse last Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Wood has purchased a new Chevrolet car, trading in the old one on the deal.

E. W. Thimman was a visitor in Wabash last Tuesday, coming with a crew of men to handle the installation of two new WPA toilets for the Wabash school district.

Louis Dehning and wife, with the father of Mrs. Dehning, Henry Baurman, of Enid, Oklahoma, were visiting with friends in and near Wabash last Wednesday.

Parker Otte, the barber, was called to Weeping Water to look after business matters Tuesday of last week, and while there was meeting with a number of his friends.

Louis Schmidt, the road man, was called to Plattsmouth Wednesday of last week, where he went to secure some repairs for the caterpillar tractor which he uses on his road work.

Louis Schmidt and H. H. Gerbeling were making some repairs on a bridge northeast of Murdock. The recent heavy rains had weakened the structure, making it unsafe for some of the heavy loads the threshing season might bring over it.

John Wood has been kept pretty busy with the delivery of wheat from the threshing machines to the elevator in Wabash. In order to handle the grain it has been necessary for the force there to work well into the night and then be back on the job at the peep of day the following morning.

Have Good Return of Wheat William Knaup has just completed the threshing of his wheat for this year and finds that it has turned out better than was expected. Although it was looking very fine until the coming of the extreme hot days and dry wind, when hopes for a bumper crop went glimmering, the grain from one field made 38 bushels to the acre, testing 60 lbs., while another field on richer and lower ground only made 24 bushels to the acre, testing 59 pounds to the struck bushel. The first field contained 60 acres, and from the two Mr. Knaup will realize a right neat sum.

Ladies Enjoy Gathering The Ladies Aid of Wabash, including many who live in the country hereabouts, met one day last week at the home of Mrs. Fred Towle, being entertained in splendid manner and also looking after various phases of their regular routine work. Refreshments were served and the ladies voted Mrs. Towle an excellent entertainer.

terian church in Canada in tender childhood. Deep satisfaction and inward spirited poise attended her through the years in her fellowship with Christ her Saviour. After she came to the United States, in 1881, at the age of 24 years, she later joined the Methodist - Episcopal church in South Bend. Recently her active church affiliation took place with the Ebenezer Evangelical church in Murdock, where it remained until her departure.

After the deceased came to the state, she, with her husband, located in Weeping Water, but in 1902 they moved to the house near South Bend where she lived continuously for thirty-five years. In that home the last illness overtook her Sunday, July 18, 1937. One week later, on Sunday, July 25th, release from suffering and pain came to her and swept her immortal soul into the great beyond.

A host of friends have been blessed by the presence and poise of this unselfish life of 80 years, 4 months and 20 days. Comforting hymns were sung at her funeral by Mrs. William Zabel and Mrs. Harvey A. Schwab, who were accompanied by Miss Doretta Schlaphoff.

The pall bearers were six of her grandsons, Russel, Harold and Chester Campbell, Norman and Edward Rau and Ollie Campbell.
