The family of H. W. Griffin were in Plattsmouth last Thursday evening visiting at the home of Mrs. E. M. Griffin, Mr. Griffin's mother.

Mrs. Ravina Taylor of Omaha was a visitor for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Everett where all enjoyed the stay very much.

W. E. Reynolds and wife who were spending some weeks in the west driving out as far as the coast, returned home last week well pleased with the trip.

Mrs. Susan Meade and children were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of H. M. Carr and also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzpatrick.

Paul Griffin and Miss Berdina Booher were enjoying the rodeo at Sidney, Iowa, last week, which was also attended by a large number of people from Union.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pittman were host and hostess last Sunday at a very fine dinner. County commissioner E. B. Chapman and wife and Clarence C. Willis and family were guests.

Mrs. Martha Lynn presented Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor with a very fine dressed chicken for their Sunday dinner which was greatly enjoyed and for which they are very thankful.

A. L. Becker was feeling rather poorly for the day last Sunday and was kept to the home and a portion of the time was lying down, but Monday was feeling somewhat improved.

The Swan school will open for the year the coming Monday, with Miss Joy as the teacher. She has taught for a number of years at Sciota and is a well qualified instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Everett and Glen Watkins who were over to Le-Grange last week visiting relatives and friends, returned late last week after having had a very pleasant visit.

Olin Morris who has been enjoying a ten day vacation from his work with the government at the South Omaha office where he is under civil service, was spending the time visiting at home and also with an uncle at Ashland, returned to his work on Monday of this week.

Omar Stevenson of Oklahoma, a son of the late Mike Stevenson who has been visiting relatives in Chicago, on his way home stopped in Union, guest of his friends and especially visiting at the home of Fred Clark and family and at the home of Mrs. William A. Caleke.

Elmer Kintner who formerly was engaged as a dentist in Weeping Water, but who recently disposed of his business there and moved to Omaha, was a visitor in Union last Monday morning and continued on to Omaha where he is in business. Dr. Kintner was spending the week end at Weeping Water.

Mrs. Emma Bryan, a sister of Mrs. Wm. Barritt who makes her home in Omaha, was visiting in Union for the past week where the ladies were enjoying a fine visit. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hammerston of Omaha drove down and visited for the day and on their return were accompanied by Mrs. Bryan.

Enjoyed Get-Together Sunday. At the home of J. C. Snavely last Sunday was gathered a number of their relatives and friends when they enjoyed a friendly visit and recounted the happenings of old Seven Mile creek in old Virginia many years ago, for they formerly resided there. The relationship making their home in Union and vicinity were there as well as from other places also. Among those present were Howard Snodgrass and wife, Moss McCarrall and wife, George M. Porter and wife and Charles Van Patton and wife of Lincoln, Wade Porter of Plattsmouth and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gobelman.

Improving His Property. Horace W. Griffin, the blacksmith, has transformed the interior of his blacksmith shop into a whitesmith shop, for the place on the inside is neat as a pin, and very much in contrast to the ordinary blacksmith shop. Not content with that, he has painted the front white too.

Getting School House Ready. Workmen have been at the Union school building getting it in readiness for the opening of school which will begin September 6th, instead of August 30th, and with the interior to be painted, Ralph Pearsley, Ben Anderson and King Clarke have been very busy this week with their brushes getting the building in readiness for the opening of the school year.

Played Ball Last Sunday. The Union baseball team which has concluded its games in the league had a game scheduled with the CCC team at Weeping Water which was played last Sunday, with the result that Weeping Water won, 8 to 4. Another game has been arranged for the coming Sunday with Avoca.

Fine Rain Near Union. The hot dry winds which parched the vegetation and was sure hard on the corn crop was followed last week by a very heavy downpour of water when in some instances the rainfall measured over three inches. This last rain and the cooler weather insures a great improvement in the corn crop.

Have Hopes of Good Crop. O. A. Pearsley and a number of other farmers have been buying corn pickers for the gathering of their corn. This does not look like the corn crop has been burned up, for when it is necessary for the farmers to purchase corn pickers, they must have corn to pick.

Hold Excellent Meeting Sunday. The members of the Methodist church at Wyoming were holding the quarterly conference at the church last Sunday, with an all day meeting and a dinner at the church, attended by a large percent of the membership.

The business of the conference was disposed of before the noon hour and during the gathering following the mid-day meal, Rev. M. E. Gilbert, first district superintendent, delivered the discourse. With the conclusion of the meeting at Wyoming, Rev. Gilbert came to Union where he delivered the discourse at the Union park, which was listened to by a large audience.

The meeting for next Sunday, the concluding meeting, will be conducted by Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth.

Home from the North. Messrs. and Mesdames Phillip F. Rihn and James Dysart who were spending a week at Minneapolis and other points in Minnesota, arrived home on Thursday of last week after having enjoyed a very pleasant trip. They say the crops are looking fine. They made the trip a year ago and say that conditions this summer are more than twice as good.

Exchange Your Wheat to Flour. We have made arrangements for the exchange of your wheat for the best Flour, manufactured by the Gooch Milling Co., of Lincoln. Just bring your wheat to the elevator here and get your Flour as you want it—all at one time or in small quantities as you need it. A good trade allowance.

It is claimed that there is one orchard near Brownville which will have 20,000 bushels of peaches for sale when they ripen, in about a week. People who have nurtured the idea that peaches cannot be grown in Nebraska must admit that this is growing some peaches. Not only do peaches grow here, but many other choice fruits. Better keep your weather eye on Nebraska for fine fruits.

School Opens Next Week. Just as well get a hustle on yourself and the kiddies and get ready for the opening of school which will be the coming Monday, August 30th, for it has to be done sooner or later.

Will Study a Year in Europe. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedecker and daughter, Miss Jane departed via auto Sunday morning at 4:30 for New York from where Miss Jane will sail September 1st for Paris where she will give most of her attention to receiving piano instruction. The lessons will be given privately, and for a time she will also attend a university where she will perfect herself in French. Mr. and Mrs. Boedecker will return to Murray after the daughter sails and expect to arrive home the latter portion of next week.

Enjoyed Lumbermen's Meet. George Nickles and wife were guests for the day last Friday and Saturday at the picnic given by the Chicago Lumber company, which has thirty-four lumber yards in Nebraska and to the managers and employes they gave a picnic and as well extended the invitation to all lumbermen in the territory contiguous to the yards of their own in Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Nickles accepted the invitation and attended the convention which was held at Columbus. Mr. Nickles, in speaking of the territory between Columbus and the Saunders county line had to say that the ground was parched and the crops very badly burned. He estimates that there will be a little over half of the ordinary crop of corn, but with an abundance of forage crops will allow the farmers there an opportunity to get by fairly well the coming winter.

Return from Black Hills. Everett Spangler and family and Mrs. Fred W. Nolting of Plattsmouth, mother of Mrs. Spangler who have been spending the past week in the Black Hills, returned home last Sunday after having had an excellent time.

Murray Wins Over Nehawka. The Murray Reds, the lively and hard playing team of Murray, were pitted last Sunday against the Nehawka Blues and after a nicely contested game the home team won over the visitors by a score of 3 to 0. This, of course, gave the Nehawka Blues the blues.

CROWNED KING OF HOBOES

BRITT, Ia., Aug. 25 (UP)—Dark-horse candidate—be-whiskered, bald-headed Harry Beetson, who calls Ashland, Neb., his home town—late Tuesday was crowned king of the hoboes at the seventh annual Britt hobo day.

Known to hobodom as "John the Baptist," Beetson won 34 votes and the title of King David I, with an acrobatic performance.

King in 1933 and 1934, Hairbreath Harry, noted for his inebriate foot wear and gunny sack suits, ran second in the balloting.

Harry took his defeat more philosophically than last year when he was defeated by Scoop Shovel Scotty, now serving a six months jail sentence at Cedar Rapids.

DIES FROM INJURIES

OMAHA, Aug. 24 (UP)—Injuries sustained in a picnic accident several weeks ago brought death last night to Charles E. Blattenburg, 38, who played an important part in the Townsend movement here. He suffered a rib injury when he was knocked down by contestants in a women's footrace he was judging. Complications resulted in his death.
