Troy Shrader Tells of Hold-Up at Idaho Falls

Former Nehawka Man Writes to Relatives of Startling Experience in Idaho City.

Troy Z. Shrader, formerly of Nehawka, has written relatives here of his recent startling experience at Idaho Falls, Idaho, when he was kidnaped by two strangers and held prisoner for some time.

Mr. Shrader had gone to a dance with a friend and his wife who were working in the potato fields at Idaho Falls, at the Eagles hall.

When Mr. Shrader left the dance hall to go home he saw two strangers near the entrance but thought nothing of the matter until they followed him to his car and stated that they were going his way and wanted a ride.

They proceeded to get into the car and forced Mr. Shrader to drive them on outside of the city, then they proceeded to rob him of what money he had on his person, took the wheel and drove on north of the town of Idaho Falls where they held Shrader until the next morning as a prisoner.

The duo of robbers then took Shrader on to the vicinity of Boise, about 400 miles from the scene of the kidnaping.

They stole two shirts, two suits of heavy underwear that the young man had purchased and had in the car, as well as his wrist watch and $8 in money.

They beat the prisoner up when he failed to have a large amount of money on him and threatened to kill him if he told of the kidnaping.

The men told Shrader that they had watched him from the time he had arrived in Idaho Falls, selecting him as a victim as he was well dressed and looked as though he had money.

The sheriff at Idaho Falls took charge of the case when it was reported by Shrader and secured the arrest of two suspects in Oregon and they are now under $2,500 bond for kidnaping and robbery.

SCOUTS HAVE MEETING

From Tuesday's Daily—
Last evening the Plattsmouth Boy Scouts met at the high school gym and had a most interesting session with a large number of matters of importance to come before them.

The plans for the forthcoming court of honor at Auburn, Nov. 2 was discussed, the local Scouts having part in this activity.

A canvas of the twelve year-old boys of the community, eligible for scouting is being taken to fill up the troops as others grow older and pass out of the active scout work.

The members of the scout troop are looking forward to the Halloween party that is to be tendered there by the American Legion Auxiliary at the scout cabin on Saturday night.

Scouts who are going are asked to meet at the Ofe Service station at Pearl Street and Chicago avenue at 7 P. M. Saturday.

RESERVES WIN GAME

The Plattsmouth Reserves Tuesday afternoon won a hard fought football game from the Glenwood Reserves on the local lot, by the score of 7 to 0.

The teams were well matched and both teams showed plenty of fight and well developed defensive play.

The game was drawing to the last thirty seconds when the Plattsmouth score was made.

Joe Noble threw a ten yard pass to Carter Minor who raced the five yards to the goal to bring victory to the blue and white. The extra point was made on a pass from Harry Shiffer to Minor.

Coach Bogges gave all of his reserves an opportunity in the game, they showing up well.

Joy Miller, captain of the first Platt first team, served as the referee and Donald Wall as the umpire.
