

Alvo News

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickel spent Thursday at the Will Nickel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mickle and Lloyd Mickle spent Thursday at the Glenn Dimmitt home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Banning went to Lincoln Friday evening. They went in time for the Christmas parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Riper and son Irvin of Clarkson were over night guests Wednesday evening at the Ben Muenchau home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau drove to Plattsmouth Friday. They visited relatives and friends and also secured their drivers license.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Rouse were guests at the Orville Quellhorst home in Elmwood, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Orval Gerbeling and daughter spent a couple of days with her parents, while her husband was employed in a Beatrice store.

Miss Alta Linch, a teacher in the Beatrice school, came home Thursday to spend her Thanksgiving vacation with her father, P. J. Linch.

Mr. and Mrs. John Banning spent Thanksgiving with friends in Nebraska City. On their return trip they called at the W. B. Banning home at Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coatman, Billy George, Jesse Hardnock and son Forrest were dinner guests Thursday at the Albert Swanson home, where they enjoyed a turkey dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Muenchau and family enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner with the Muenchau families that gathered at the home of Mrs. Muenchau of Elmwood to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Fred Rehmeier and family of Weeping Water and Henry Mogensen, also of Weeping Water, enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner Thursday at the Simon Rehmeier home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mickle and son, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gerbeling and daughter of Murdock and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hardnock were guests at the Harold Nickel home Thursday evening, where the families enjoyed an oyster supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fischer and children, Mrs. Jordan and Miss Emma Jordan were dinner guests at the Joe Vickers home for Thanksgiving dinner. Meryl and Verna Vickers, of Lincoln, were also home for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Thanksgiving Vacation

The teachers and school children enjoyed Thanksgiving vacation over the week end. School was dismissed early Wednesday, thus giving the teachers a better opportunity to reach their various homes a little earlier for Thanksgiving.

Injured When Attacked

Frank Edwards had three ribs broken and a sprained knee as well as being quite badly bruised Tuesday evening when he was attacked by a bull when doing some chores in the barnyard at the farm where the Edwards family have been living.

Mr. Edwards feels very lucky to escape being killed from the manner in which he was attacked.

Firemen Provide Skating Rink

The Alvo Firemen have provided a skating rink just north of the Phillip Coatman home, but warm weather came and spoiled the skating, at least for the present.

Entertains Club

Mrs. Arthur Skinner delightfully entertained the members of the Mothers' and Daughters' Council at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. Garhard had charge of a Thanksgiving program.

The hostess served delicious chicken sandwiches, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

Club members drew names for an exchange of Christmas gifts.

RUNS DOWN AUTO

LINCOLN, Nov. 27 (UP)—Vern Benecke, 27, of Palmyra used his speed, developed as a high school athlete to run down a hit and run automobile driver whose machine crashed into Benecke's parked car early today.

Benecke who has been staying in Lincoln for several days was awakened from his sleep by the collision. When he heard the car driving away, he leaped into his trousers and set out in pursuit. He halted the driver and his car after a short chase.

The driver, William King, of Lincoln was found guilty of drunken driving in municipal court and was fined $100 and costs by Judge O. C. Wood. King's drivers license was suspended for one year.

AVOCA NEWS

Monte Lum was called to Omaha Tuesday, where he had business to transact.

Leland Daniels, coach at Avoca high school, is driving a new Pontiac car, which he purchased from Carl O. Zaiser, the local dealer.

The Avoca school was dismissed on Wednesday of last week in order that the faculty and students might enjoy a Thanksgiving vacation.

The family of Elmer Hennings enjoyed a visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hennings and family, who reside south of Louisville.

Miss Dorothy Gollner, who has a position working for the government at Lincoln, came home for a Thanksgiving visit and remained the rest of the week.

William Wolfe and wife and Mrs. Celia Wolfe were in Lincoln last Tuesday, going to see Dr. J. W. Thomas, who is treating the eyes of the latter.

A party of Avocaites made a trip to Lincoln last Saturday on business, among them being Henry Maseman, Stuart Maseman, Roy Ruben and Dwight Baier.

Henry Maseman and family have moved from the home they occupied in the northwest part of town to the Kuhlman or Price property in the eastern part of town.

J. J. Cullin and wife departed last Monday for Reliance, South Dakota, where they expect to visit for a week at the home of the parents of his father. They made the trip via auto.

Mrs. Emma Rawalt visited in Lincoln last Saturday, where she was a guest of friends and attended the football game despite the very cold and disagreeable weather, enjoying seeing the Cornhuskers defeat the University of Iowa.

We are under obligation to Carl O. Zaiser, accommodating garage man at Avoca for taming our auto which refused to work properly as we drove into Avoca last week. Carl knows his "P's and Q's," as printers say, in the automobile line.

The Elmer Hallstrom family were Thanksgiving day dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Zaiser. Yesterday they went to Plattsmouth, where they enjoyed a second Thanksgiving day visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hallstrom.

Fred Carsten and wife, Albert Sell and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Pittman were in Nebraska City on Tuesday of last week, where they visited Mrs. Edward Morley, who underwent an operation a week ago last Saturday, but is getting along very nicely now.

Among those who attended the Nebraska-Iowa football game at Lincoln a week ago Saturday were Superintendent and Mrs. Jensen and Coach Leland Daniels and his mother, the latter visiting with friends in Lincoln during the afternoon instead of going to the game.

Ernest Gollner was a guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gollner a week ago Sunday, enjoying the opportunity of a short visit among the home folks. He returned to Omaha where he was appearing with the Joe Hart orchestra of Kansas City at the Chermot ball room.

Fred Wildrick and wife, former residents of Avoca and vicinity, accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Duskin, all of Alliance, arrived in Avoca Tuesday and visited here for a number of days, looking after the farm which the Wildricks have in this vicinity.

Entertained for Dinner

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kokjer were host and hostess at their home in Avoca last Thursday, having as their Thanksgiving dinner guests the family of Henry Maseman and Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Hall, the new minister of the Congregational church and his wife. A very pleasant gathering was had.

Enjoyed Passing Birthday

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Staack on last Sunday all the members of the family were gathered for a visit and a splendid birthday dinner in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Staack.

Gave Their Friends a Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Carsten who at the time of their marriage last February were twice charivariated, planned to entertain their friends at a dance at some future date, and this past week concluded the time had come to do so. Accordingly they gave a free dance for all their friends last Saturday night.

Mrs. Morley Improving

Mrs. Edward Morley, who has been in poor health for some time past and was at the St. Mary's hospital at Nebraska City for some time under observation and receiving treatment, underwent a major operation last Saturday and since that time has been showing good improvement. Mr. Morley was at the hospital with the wife during the trying ordeal of the operation. During the time he was away, Hilbert Nutzman, who operates a produce station just across the street from Mr. Morley's service station, was looking after business at the service station.

Attended Brother's Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCann and son Leo were at Plattsmouth Tuesday of last week, where they attended the funeral of the late Peter Curtis, a brother of Mrs. McCann, who passed away on Sunday. The funeral was held from a Plattsmouth funeral home and interment was in Oak Hill cemetery at Plattsmouth.

To Make Home in Missouri

Mr. and Mrs. George Shackley departed early last week for a point in southern Missouri, where they visited a year ago, and will make their home there for the greater portion of the winter. They have relatives and friends there and are looking forward to a very pleasant winter in the milder climate of that vicinity.

At Home in Avoca

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Corbin, who have a farm home just across the road from the North Branch church, where they have resided during the summer, last week moved back to their home in town to reside during the winter, bringing with them their cow, a number of chickens and a hog or so. They are now nicely located and are pleased to again be back in town for the winter.

Much Stock Being Lost

During the early part of last week twelve cattle in this vicinity died from the effects of the so-called cornstalk disease. Louis Gorthey lost four, Elmer Wessell two, L. H. Carsten four and John Mohr two.

That is certainly a heavy loss to the farmers named, but it seems it cannot be helped and there have been scores of cattle and other farm animals lost in this county during the fall.

Attended Brother's Wedding

Elmer Hennings and family were over south of Louisville last Sunday, where they attended the wedding of Elmer's younger brother, Ernest Hennings, who was united in marriage to Miss Gladys Shelburn. They will reside on a farm near Murray.

Guests at Brendel Home

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel entertained a group of relatives and friends at their home on Thanksgiving day, when a splendid dinner was served. The guests included Fred Marquardt and family, of Avoca, A. L. Cockle and family and Miss Selma Marquardt, all of Omaha. All enjoyed the opportunity of visiting together during the day, as well as the fine dinner that was served.

U. S. EXPRESSES CONCERN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (UP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull said today the United States has made representations to Japan expressing American concern over possible interference with the Chinese customs system.

American concern was expressed specifically over any changes which might interfere with the present system of collecting and distributing the customs revenues—pledged in large part to payments on China's foreign debt obligations.

Hull declared that at least two or three other powers were making parallel representations to Tokyo. The United States is exchanging information with the other powers, he said.

The representations were made to the Tokyo government by American Ambassador Joseph Grew at the instruction of Hull.

The American views were presented as Japanese officials in China prepared to take over the administration of the bulk of Chinese customs organization. There has been no indication that Japan proposed to divert customs revenues from the channels to which they have been pledged by China.

CAN'T DRINK AT HOME, SO JAIL IS WELCOME

UTICA, N. Y., Nov. 27 (UP)—Raymond Lux, 49, says "If a man can't drink in his home he might as well be in jail."

Lux appeared at police headquarters demanding that he be arrested. Police accommodated him.

In court, Lux said his wife refused to let him drink "in his own home," so he might as well be in jail.

MURDOCK ITEMS

Miss Pauline Kroh enjoyed a very pleasant Thanksgiving day at the Herman Schweppe home.

Mrs. Wilhemina Baur, who was very poorly for some time at her home, is reported much better at present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Amgwert and Jack spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. George Kruse of Clay Center, Nebraska.

Mrs. Hannah McDonald has been visiting in Sterling, Colorado, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Eastman and family.

I. G. Hornbeck and Miss Elsie Bornemeier were dinner guests last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hornbeck in Lincoln.

Mrs. Fred Klemme, who has been in poor health for several months, although she has been receiving the best of treatment still remains very poorly.

Jesse and Harry Stock were business callers in Plattsmouth Saturday, taking time while there to attend a hearing at the court house in which they were interested.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winkler and daughter of Elmwood enjoyed a fine Thanksgiving dinner at the Louis Schmidt home in Wabash.

Edward Ganaway was in Lincoln Wednesday forenoon, where he was looking after business matters and purchased some supplies for his shoe repair business in Murdock.

Mrs. Fred Stock and son, Paul, moved to Murdock from the farm on Tuesday of last week and are now very nicely settled in the home that Mrs. Stock purchased last spring.

Herman Bornemeier, of near Alvo, who is administrator of the Bornemeier estate, was in Murdock last Wednesday afternoon posting bills for the sale of some notes due the estate.

Mrs. Glen Harger and the son that was born to her at the Bryan Memorial hospital in Lincoln, returned home last Thursday and are pleased to be home again and all are feeling fine.

L. Neitzel left last Wednesday for Kansas City to spend Thanksgiving day at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clara Hartung and daughter. He was expecting to prolong his visit to Sunday.

Eloise Pool, former teacher of the Murdock schools, who now makes her home in Lincoln, where she is engaged in teaching, was calling on old friends here a number of days during the past week.

Henry C. Backemeyer of near Greenwood was a caller in Murdock and was looking after some business matters last Wednesday and as well was meeting many of his friends here and sure he has a lot of them.

Albert Schroeder, who was taken to a Lincoln hospital some ten days ago seriously ill is reported making good progress and indications are he has an even better than fifty-fifty chance to recover, although he is still a long ways from being a well man.

Henry A. Tool and wife went to Ackley, Iowa, to visit over Thanksgiving day and the balance of the week with Mr. Tool's aged mother, now in her 96th year. Bryan McDonald looked after business at the bank Friday and Saturday while the Tools were away.

As a part of the Thanksgiving day celebration at Grandpa Dehning's in Elmwood, the Rev. Harvey Schwab had the privilege of baptizing nine children, the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dehning of Cedar Creek, and five children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cole of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Amgwert were at Barneston last Sunday, where they enjoyed a very pleasant visit at the home of Prof. and Mrs. P. T. Johnson. Mr. Johnson was formerly superintendent of schools in Murdock, but for the past few years has been superintendent at Barneston.

The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klemme, who are students at Nebraska Wesleyan University, spent the brief Thanksgiving vacation at the home of their parents and their friends here, returning to Lincoln Sunday night in order to resume their studies Monday morning.

Early Monday morning, November 22, Mrs. Carl Schlaphof and Alfred Rikli started for Tucson, Arizona, where they will spend some time with Doretta and Elmer Schlaphof. They were accompanied to Enid, Okla., by Roland Rikli, who will spend the winter months there, employed in the Rikli stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Luetchens and family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. William Witte at Clay Center, Nebr. After visiting for several days with Mrs. Luetchens' parents, they returned home on Monday. The trip was made in their new car, which was bought to replace the one damaged in their recent accident in Chicago.

Alvin Oehlerking did not share in the general enjoyment of the Thanksgiving celebration at the Walter Oehlerking home at Elmwood. On Tuesday he made a trip to the dentist where he had a badly impacted wisdom tooth removed. As a result he has been spending most of his time in bed during the past few days.

Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool included their son, Douglass, who is superintendent of schools at Atlanta, Mr. and Mrs. George Work and two sons of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meyer and family of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Meyers and family also visited Mr. Meyers' mother, Mrs. August Panska, while here.

The fathers and sons of Murdock are to have a banquet at the Murdock high school on Tuesday evening, December 7th. This was made possible by the work and interest shown by Lacey McDonald, who is president of the Fathers' and Sons' organization of Murdock. Mr. McDonald has secured Mr. Troy Davis of Weeping Water, who will be the principal speaker for the occasion.

A large group of relatives and old friends enjoyed a happy fellowship and a bounteous dinner at the Wm. Rikli home on Thanksgiving day. Those present were Grandma Rikli, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rikli and family, the Rev. and Mrs. Harvey A. Schwab and Veryl, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johansen, the Carl Schlaphof family, Kenneth Pughs, the Misses Alvina and Polly Kuehn and Edgar Kuehn. Later in the day the Herman and Reuben Dierksen families of Drummond and Enid, Okla., arrived for a pleasant visit.

Sells His Herd of Cattle

Jesse Stock has disposed of his herd of cattle to an Omaha firm that will have them cared for and fed on the former McCrorey farm which has just recently been purchased by John W. Gamble of Omaha. G. P. Gerhart, who is farming the place will have charge of the feeding operations.

Church Women Active

The various women organizations of the Murdock church have been active in raising funds for the various church work, particularly missions. Just recently the tiny tots of the Bible school, under direction of Mrs. Harvey A. Schwab gave a program to raise funds for this work at which they were very successful. At one of the recent programs, Misses Martha and Marie Schweppe sang a most beautiful duet.

Red Cross Roll Call Here

The result of the Red Cross roll call in Murdock has been most gratifying to those who have collected in the money. The list of members and contributors turned over to the Journal for publication includes Henry A. Tool, Mrs. Henry A. Tool, Mrs. Frances Gillespie, W. O. Gillespie, Mrs. Frank Buell, Henry Meierjurg, Mrs. Johanna Panska, M. S. Briggs, Berdine Hansen, Conrad J. Baumgartner, Mrs. Bertha Heineman (contributor), Chas. Haertle (contributor), H. F. Schweppe, Rev. Harvey O. Schwab, Mrs. Amelia Rieckman, Mrs. Otto Miller, C. T. Formanack (contributor), W. H. Zabel (contributor), L. Neitzel, Eddie Craig (contributor), L. B. Gorthey, A. J. Tool, E. E. Ganaway (contributor) and Mrs. Hannah McDonald.

LEAVES LARGE ESTATE

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 (UP)—The late Louis F. Swift left an estate of approximately $4,000,000. An inventory on file in probate court showed today.

Swift willed the bulk of his estate to his son Louis F. Swift, Jr., Wheaton, Illinois, a daughter, Mrs. Ida Swift Minotto of Phoenix, Arizona, his widow, and three children of another son, Alden.

Principle holdings of the estate, the inventory said, were mortgage notes $1,000,000; real estate, $800,000; life insurance, $444,429; accounts receivable, $176,742; and Swift & Co. stock $263,176.

Elmwood News

Louis Langhorst, who holds a position as inspector for the state, was touring the county last week looking after his official duties.

Albert Alford has been under the weather, suffering from an attack of the flu. At latest reports he was considerably better, however.

Lawrence Race is employed in Elmwood at the garage of Elmer Stevens, since disposing of his business in this line in Murdock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Copple, who reside west of Alvo, were visiting and looking after business matters in Elmwood on Tuesday of last week.

Fred Pratt, who formerly resided at Tobias, departed for that place last Wednesday, where he is visiting with relatives and friends for a few weeks.

Eldon Stark and family spent a part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Miller, who reside south of Lincoln, where they enjoyed a fine Thanksgiving dinner.

Roy Rhoden and Walter C. Boy, who have been serving on the petit jury at the session of the district court in Plattsmouth, were home on Thanksgiving day and over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Moore of Omaha spent their holiday and a number of days following in Elmwood as guests at the home of the parents of Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Langhorst.

Mrs. Emily Gonzales and son Donald, who is a student at the University of Nebraska, were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of a sister of Mrs. Gonzales, Mrs. James Mills and husband, north of Murdock.

John Wood was working at Alvo several days last week, looking after business at the Nelson Grocery during the time Mrs. Nelson, the proprietor, was spending Thanksgiving and the balance of the week at the home of relatives at Jensen.

Carl Schneider, of Lexington, was here for an over Thanksgiving visit with his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams. Miss Anna Williams, a sister of Mrs. Schneider, who is a teacher in the schools at Brock, was also home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene and son James were at Weeping Water Thursday of last week, where they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keckler, who were entertaining for Thanksgiving. In addition to the Greene family, those present included the parents of Mr. Keckler, Ralph Keckler and wife of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Max Campbell of Lincoln.

Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, well known Nebraska authoress, spent Thanksgiving day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Milton Beechner, at Lincoln. This left to care for the household, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cobb, who quietly enjoyed the occasion at home. The Beechners and Mrs. Aldrich went to Exeter for a visit at the home of Milton's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Beechner. Rev. Beechner is pastor of the Methodist church at Exeter.

Visited at Wichita

Mrs. Lucy Lyle, manager of the Elmwood telephone exchange, accompanied by her daughter and family, Mrs. Florence Buell, made a trip to Wichita, Kas., last week, where they were guests over Thanksgiving day and the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hanke and family. Mrs. Hanke was formerly Miss Gladys Lyle.

Return to Home in Plattsmouth

On Friday of last week, Mrs. J. E. Reeder and twin daughters, who have been staying here with Mrs. Reeder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams, returned to their home in Plattsmouth. Mr. Reeder coming for the family and Miss Hilda Friedrich, who has been acting as nurse for Mrs. Reeder and the twins during their stay in Elmwood.

Mr. Colburn Very Poorly

C. L. Colburn, former agent for the Missouri Pacific here, who was recently retired on a pension, and who has been making his home with the family of B. E. Sumner, who succeeded him as agent here, is reported in very poor health and unable to get about. He is being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Sumner.

Spent Day at Marquette

Oscar Turner, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bothwell and their daughter, Miss Jeanne Adair, Orest Cook and family and County Treasurer John E. Turner, wife and daughter, of Plattsmouth, were Thanksgiving day guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Turner, of Marquette, where they enjoyed a splendid visit and a most sumptuous Thanksgiving dinner, complete with all the trimmings.

Visited at Roca

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Cook were enjoying the holiday which comes to mail carriers on Thanksgiving day, spending the time at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Emory McDowell at Roca. They drove over in the morning to spend the day and enjoy a fine dinner at the McDowell home.

Injured Folks Some Better

Mrs. Bert Reber and the family of John Box, all of whom were more or less injured in an auto wreck two weeks ago, are showing good improvement at the present time. Mrs. Reber, who was confined to her bed for some time, was the one most seriously injured, and she was able to be up a part of the time last week.

Will Farm the Coming Year

Word comes from Los Angeles that Alfred H. Race and family, who recently moved to the west coast, are returning to Elmwood to reside during the winter and early in the spring will move to Leon, Iowa, where Mr. Race has purchased a farm. R. M. Dennis, who has been in the western city at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Race, will return with them and again make his home here. They are expected here the last of this week.

Entertained for Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bornemeier entertained on Thanksgiving day at their farm home, having as guests a group of Mrs. Bornemeier's relatives. Those present were Fred Ostertag of St. Louis and Daniel and Frank Ostertag of Wichita, with their respective families, and Mrs. Bertha Ostertag, the mother of Mrs. Bornemeier and her brothers, who resides in Elmwood. It was a most pleasant family reunion.

Visiting in Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Flaishman, who have been accustomed to serving a Thanksgiving dinner at their home each year, this year drove to Illinois to spend the festive holiday at the home of relatives of Mrs. Flaishman, Mr. and Mrs. Grant and Elmer Kendall who reside in that state.

Leo Horton, who has been making his home here, keeping house by himself, left last week for Falls City, where he will spend the winter at the home of his daughter Mabel, now Mrs. Fred Rothro.

Entertained the Entire Family

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wood entertained the remainder of the family on Thanksgiving day, all the children and their respective families being at home for the holiday and to enjoy the sumptuous dinner that was served.

Car Insurance

We will be having snowy, slippery roads and frosty windshields for the next few months.

INSURE FOR PROTECTION

If you own or drive a car, you need good insurance.

Call or See

INSURANCE AND BONDS
DUXBURY & DAVIS
PHONE 16
PLATTSMOUTH

RICHARD L. KING
Architect AND Builder
Bldg. Modernizing Store Fronts Latest Farm Bldg. Design
Erick Work - Concrete Work - Plastering
Telephone 200 Brick Porches - Fire Places Plattsmouth

WE ARE THE Authorized Plymouth (and DeSoto) Dealers in Plattsmouth
Make Your Next Car a 'PLYMOUTH'
THE CAR THAT STANDS UP BEST
R. V. Bryant Motor Co.
Sales and Service