

NEW YEAR'S WEDDINGS

The wedding bells were ringing merrily in the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury over the New Year, three couples choosing this date for their nuptials.

On New Year's eve Innes Kovaril and Miss Lorraine F. Haugbarit, both of Omaha were callers at the court house where they were married.

On New Year's day Judge Duxbury was called upon to marry two couples at his home on west Pearl street, Arnold L. Stiekley of Fort Riley, Kansas and Mary Jane Spenser of Omaha was one of the couples seeking happiness and their wedding was witnessed by Leslie E. Jensen and Ruth E. Spenser.

John D. Lierman of Omaha and Miss Helen Shumal of Hebron were married at the Duxbury home with Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Lugar of Omaha as the witnesses.

GONE

Gone are the days of the old-fashioned grocery store where merchants climbed over everything from vinegar barrels to cracker boxes in filling a customer's order. Clean, modern methods of food selling are now required, and there is NO BETTER example of a good place to buy your foodstuffs than at our store opposite the South Omaha post-office. Try our store next.

FARMERS

We pay you cash for good fresh country eggs, and you can buy your groceries where you like, although you can, of course, do better here. We want good eggs laid by happy hens that won't ruin cakes or customers' dispositions. This is NOT a chain store. We are home-owned, independent, and appreciate your trade and your friendship.

HOLD DEATH DUE TO ACCIDENT

A jury in district court at Glenwood has decided that the death of Charles Dykes, former Plattsmouth man, last March, was the result of a traffic accident that he suffered a few days before his death.

The jury awarded to Mrs. Thelma Dykes, widow, the full amount of the $500 policy carried by the deceased in the Washington National Life Insurance company, together with interest.

The insurance company contended that the death was not the result of the accident. According to the testimony Mr. Dykes had stopped his truck on the highway and was tinkering with it when the brakes failed to hold and the truck started down a hill. He jumped in the truck and it later crashed against a stump. Two days later Mr. Dykes suffered a heart attack and died. The plaintiff alleged that death was due to the shock he suffered in the accident.

FIND STOLEN REGISTER

The cash register that was stolen from the office of the Plattsmouth Feed Center Sunday, was discovered late Monday afternoon. The register had been abandoned along the road near the Albert Timmas place, three miles south of the city and along the Missouri river. The party taking the register selected a travel well off the general line of travel to abandon it.

RECEIVES RECOGNITION

William F. Mutschullat, Lincoln attorney and former Plattsmouth resident, has been selected to serve as secretary of the republican state central committee. Mr. Mutschullat has been one of the active young republicans of the state and took a large part in the 1936 campaign on behalf of the national and state tickets.

HERE FROM MILLIGAN

From Tuesday's Daily—Roy Otreodosky, Milligan druggist, who was a victim of holdup men later captured at Union, was in the city for a short time today. He was a visitor with County Attorney and Mrs. J. A. Capwell, being a brother-in-law of the latter. He states they were not seriously bothered at the first appearance of the robbers, thinking it a joke, but later realized that the two meant business.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to take this means of thanking all of those who sent me letters, cards and flowers while I was at the hospital. They certainly helped to cheer me during my weeks of illness. These little remembrances will long be appreciated.
NORENE KAFFENBERGER.

BACK TO DOANE

From Monday's Daily—Joe Hendrix and Miss Harriett Goos, Plattsmouth students at Doane college, returned, this morning to Crete to resume their studies this morning at college.

SUFFERS FROM ILLNESS

From Wednesday's Daily—Mrs. Louis Lohues was at her home today suffering from a severe cold that made it impossible to look after her work at the office of Dr. P. T. Heineman.
