

Pioneer Resident of Union Dies Tuesday

Mrs. Nancy Klaurens, Aged Ninety-five Years Dies at Close of a Long and Useful Life.

Tuesday night at 10 o'clock at her home at Union occurred the death of Mrs. Nancy Klaurens, 95, one of the last of the pioneer residents of the south part of Cass county.

Nancy Rakes was born in 1842 in that part of Virginia that was in civil war days made into the state of West Virginia. In the year 1850 she was brought by her parents to the new territory of Nebraska and they settled in the vicinity of Nebraska City and where in 1861 she was married to John Klaurens, one of the pioneer young men of that section where he had settled in the early fifties.

The family has since made their home in and near Union and where Mr. Klaurens died September 16, 1916, at the age of ninety-four years. They were the parents of eleven children.

Death of Aged Lady Occurs at Masonic Home

Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis, Ninety-four Years of Age Dies Late Saturday at the Home.

Mrs. Sarah J. Lewis, aged ninety-four years, nine months and twenty-one days, died late Saturday afternoon at the Nebraska Masonic Home, where she has resided for the past twelve years.

Mrs. Lewis was born March 24, 1843 in Marion county, Ohio, and came to the west when a young woman, making her home for the greater part of her life in Lancaster county. The family later located in Havelock and she was admitted to the Home from George Washington lodge No. 250 A. F. & A. M. of Havelock. Mr. Lewis preceded his wife in death in 1917 at Havelock.

There is surviving two sons, Orville, of Anoka, Nebraska, Albert of Aberdeen, South Dakota, two daughters, Mrs. L. N. Flansburg and Mrs. Kate Ogden, of Havelock.

The body was taken to Havelock where the funeral services will be held and the interment at Wyuka cemetery.

SECURE WANTED MAN

Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester Tuesday evening arrested Mike Johnson, wanted at LeMars, Iowa, for wife desertion. The office of Sheriff Sylvester received notice that the man might appear here and he was taken into custody at the local postoffice while calling for mail.

Johnson is being held here at the county jail to await the arrival of the sheriff from LeMars.

VISITS INJURED FRIEND

From Tuesday's Daily—Mrs. E. H. Wescott was at Nebraska City today where she was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitzer, old friends. Mrs. Pitzer sustained a fall several days ago at her home and as the result has been laid up with an ankle injury that has proven very painful.

BOWLING NOTES

From Tuesday's Daily—The Bestors won all three games from the Chevrolets last night. There were not many high scores shot in the series. Bob McClanahan had a high of 179 and a 511 series for the team. Iley Mays' 579 was high on the Bestors and Ed Thimman wasn't far behind with a 516. The Creamery took two games from the K. C. club and lost the first game by six pins. This leaves the Creamery still out in front in the city league. There were several good scores shot in the series between both teams.

MANY ATTEND COFFEE

The altar society of the Holy Rosary church held a very largely attended coffee on Sunday afternoon at the church club rooms. The ladies had prepared and served a very delightful luncheon and which was thoroughly enjoyed. The committee in charge were Mrs. Frank Aschenbrenner, Mrs. Charles Fulton, Mrs. Joseph Holly, Mrs. Kate Hiber, Mrs. C. F. Janda.

VISIT AT AUBURN

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridgewater were Sunday visitors at Brownville and Auburn where they spent the day with relatives and old time friends. The Bridgewater family were residents for a number of years of Nemaha county and have many old time friends in that section of the state.
