

Nehawka

Superintendent of Schools Stimbart who has been ill for some time and not able to look after the work at the schools is reported as being some better.

J. H. Steffens of Nehawka was down to Lorton to look after the bank conducted by his father, C. Steffens, while the father was called away on business.

Clarence Hansen who has been selected as one of the jurors of the district court departed for Plattsmouth last Tuesday to serve as one of the regular panel in the term which opened this week.

David C. West was a caller in Plattsmouth Monday of this week where he had some business to look after for the day in line of the federal farm loans of which he is superintendent in this locality.

Joe Banning and son, Luacan of Union were in Nehawka last Monday to secure a combine which was shipped with two others to Granville Hoeber. On the same car were three more being shipped to other points.

Clifford Trotter, who has been having a tussle with rheumatism, was so serious that he could not come down to his garage and workshop for a number of days the present week but it was thought he would be able to get down Wednesday.

Mrs. John Yeiser and children were in Nehawka last Sunday guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sturm for the day. As there was a vacation in the Omaha schools, Susanne Yeiser remained for this week but the boys, Andy and Jack, returned home with their mother.

Mrs. Lyle Kruger received word that a sister, Mrs. Laura Mathers of Oklahoma City, Okla., was seriously ill and departed on the midnight train for the home of her sister where she is to be nurse for the patient. It is to be hoped she will find the sister better when she arrives at her home.

Making Good Gains.

Marion N. Tucker who underwent a major operation some two weeks ago and who was brought home a week ago has been showing good gains and was able to be down to the store late last week for an hour after which he returned home.

Returned from Hospital.

Mrs. Emma Chriswiser who has been in poor health for some time was taken to an Omaha hospital last week where she was under observation for a time and later on Sunday was brought home where she will remain and see how she will succeed in making gains. The many friends of Mrs. Chriswiser are hoping for a rapid and permanent recovery.

Able to Be Home.

Raymond Sutton, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sutton who has been so seriously ill at the hospital in Omaha was able to return home Tuesday of this week. The parents were in Omaha last Sunday where they visited the little son and were promised he could be returned home Tuesday, when the parents went to Omaha and brought the little fellow home.

Many Attend Church Sunday.

The Methodist church and Bible school was crowded at the morning services last Sunday. A number of unique items were introduced in the services. One very pleasing was the reading rendered by Mrs. J. J. Poland during the morning worship period, which was greatly enjoyed by the large audience.

Enjoyed Celebration of Birthday. Mrs. Z. W. Shrader was passing her 85th birthday anniversary which was celebrated Saturday by her many friends in Nehawka and on Sunday her relatives from Nehawka, Mura and Plattsmouth. Mrs. Shrader, whose maiden name was Rachel Mayers Murray, received some forty-four special birthday cards.

She was born at Little California, in Nodaway county, Mo., on April 9th, 1853 where she with her parents lived for less than a year before they moved to Glenwood, Iowa, where she resided for a number of years before coming to Cass county, Nebraska. While living near Glenwood she remember of some 1,500 Indians leaving for further south. When moving to Cass county she with her parents settled near Rock Bluffs where she resided until her marriage to Z. W. Shrader. Mr. Shrader passed away some years ago.

Mrs. Shrader tells of years ago when there were not even wagons or buggies in this country, that a cowboy came through, passing Rock Bluffs where James Patterson, now passed away, father of R. F. and Tom Patterson, was conducting a store. The cowboy was on his way back east and became stranded and offered to sell his horse and top buggy which was bought by Mr. Patterson, that the cowboy could continue on his way back east. She tells of real frontier days when she was a girl, of cowboys, ox carts and of farming with cattle. She tells of her and her brother, Wm. Murray, now long time passed away, of making a small calve and playing with two small calves and later of driving oxen in the farming operations seventy years ago.

Visited in Nehawka.

Mrs. Clara Kruger, making her home in Kansas City, mother of W. H. Kruger of Nehawka, has been visiting here for the past week and enjoying a good time with her two sons, Lyle and W. H. Kruger. Last Sunday another son, H. L. Kruger of Plattsmouth came with the family to take the mother home with them for a visit.

A. F. Sturm Some Better.

A. F. Sturm who has been ill now for the past month has been showing some improvement, but up to Tuesday had not been allowed to go down to the lumber yard. The many friends of Mr. Sturm are hoping that he may be able to be out soon.

Will Celebrate Coming Tuesday.

Fifty years ago this coming Tuesday Will A. Lewis who has made his home in this neighborhood for many years, was united in marriage to Miss Rachel Trop. Miss Trop, who was daughter of William Trop, Sr., was born near Muray. They continued to reside here until some twenty years ago when they moved to the northern part of the state. On the coming Tuesday this couple will celebrate the passing of their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home near Laurel, where the entire family will be present for the celebration. A. G. Cisney and family, C. H. Peck and family and Mont Shrader and family, all of this neighborhood will attend, while at the home in the north are two daughters, Fern and Mabel and a son, Willard Lewis.

LINCOLN SPECIALIST DIES

LINCOLN, April 11 (UP)—Dr. William O. Colburn, 57, specialist in children's diseases, died here Sunday of coronary thrombosis after an illness of two weeks.

He was a founder of the Lincoln Children's Clinic and came to Lincoln in 1916 following post graduate work at Harvard and after 11 years of practice at Stuart, Neb.

Dr. Colburn was born at Warren, Ill., went to high school at Dexter, Ia., attended the University of Iowa medical school and received his medical degree at Northwestern in 1904.

He suffered a heart attack at an American Medical association convention two years ago from which he never fully recovered. Surviving are his widow and a daughter.

Funeral services will be held here Tuesday at 2 p. m., with burial at Kansas City, Mo.

TEST TRANSPORT LAW

LINCOLN, April 11 (UP)—Constitutionality of the 1937 law regulating gasoline and oil transport trucks was at stake today in arguments which opened in District Judge John L. Polk's court.

The united petroleum transporters contended the act constitutes "special legislation designed to drive the trucks off the highways," and that it usurps jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission.

Under the law petroleum transporters are required to pay a license fee of $10, prohibited from operating on the highways between the hours of 6 a. m. and midnight on Sunday, independence day and labor day and must pay increased bonds.

Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carsten making their home east of Avoca, were guests for the day and dinner last Sunday at the home of their former neighbors and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew.

Mrs. Thomas Murtey and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lempe were in Omaha last Saturday looking after some shopping and visiting friends. They drove over to the big town in the auto of Mr. and Mrs. Lempe.

J. F. Wilcox, formerly of Weeping Water, now making his home in Lincoln, was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week and was visiting friends here. While in town he was a guest of his friend, Dr. M. U. Thomas.

Mrs. Henry Snell who has been kept at home since the beginning of the year and a greater portion of the time in bed, has been showing some improvement and was able to be down town Tuesday for the first time since her illness.

Opens New Store Today (Thursday).

On January 23 this year one of the very worst blows was dealt to the business section of Weeping Water when five business buildings were burned. The spirit which has made Weeping Water a business center would not be downed and Elmer Michelsen immediately went to work to rebuild. Not waiting for good luck or any other turn in the tide of fortune, but just went to work notwithstanding the winter and soon had the lot which he purchased cleaned of the rubbish and started work on the building. The building has been completed and is filled with goods. The store room was built especially for the conduct of this business, and as a result Mr. and Mrs. Michelsen have one of the very best and nicely appointed variety stores in the state. The store is being opened Thursday (today) with a completely new stock of goods.

Dr. W. E. Colburn Passes Away.

Dr. W. E. Colburn, formerly of Weeping Water, but making his home in Lincoln for some time passed away there last Sunday. The funeral was held at Lincoln Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Joe I. Corley and Miss Anna Hubbard of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbard of Taylor who drove down, were attending the funeral at Lincoln Tuesday afternoon. Many of the old time friends and acquaintances who resided in Weeping Water when Dr. Colburn lived here will recall this very fine gentleman.

Miss Alice Louise Davis.

Yes, that is the name of the little lady who a few days ago came to make her home with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Davis and as well brought joy to the home. The little lady and her mother are getting along very nicely.

Taken Severely Ill.

W. H. Homan who has been employed in the government quarry east of town while engaged in work was taken severely ill and had to stop work and be brought home. He has been kept to his bed since and while he has been trying to get rest and recuperate he seems not to make much improvement and at this time seems to be in no way improved.

Visited Here Sunday.

Dr. J. W. Thomas and wife of Lincoln, where they have made their home for some years, were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of the parents of the doctor, Dr. and Mrs. M. U. Thomas where they enjoyed a very fine visit and excellent dinner, the latter being eaten at the Joyce cafe and restaurant. Mrs. Perry Walker of ourland, Kansas, was also a guest for the day and dinner.

Loses Billfold Sunday.

Peter Spangler, while in Weeping Water on last Sunday made some purchases and paid some bills. First he paid out a dollar, for some work which he had done, leaving nine one dollar bills in his billfold, and later made some purchases at the store and paid for his dinner at a cafe, out of small change, leaving the one dollar bills still in the billfold. He attended church services and when he arrived at home he found that the billfold and contents was gone.

Will Visit the Employers Over State in April

Unemployment Compensation Division of the State to Contact—Here on April 15th.

The unemployment compensation division of the state department of labor is sending three representatives over the state to contact employers subject to the Nebraska unemployment compensation law and assist them in filing the contribution and wage report for the first quarter of 1938. The last day for filing this report is April 30th, Director R. T. Malone states. Failure to remit the contribution of 2.7% by April 30th on wages payable during January, February and March will entail liability for a delinquent charge of 1% interest a month.

"As a service to Nebraska employers subject to the unemployment compensation law," stated Mr. Malone, "D. P. Miller, assistant legal counsel of the division, Floyd Atkins, chief field adviser, and Luke Mundy, deputy examiner, will make scheduled visits to seventeen cities outside of Omaha and Lincoln where permanent offices are already set up. Employers are invited to call upon these division representatives when they arrive for any directions needed in filing their contribution report."

"This special service is being offered," advised Mr. Malone, "because, for the first time, employers will be required to furnish not only the name, but also the social security account number of each worker, his individual wage record, and any additions to or removals from the payroll. This information is necessary to set up in the division the individual wage records of Nebraska workers covered by the act for later computation of benefit payments which become effective in January, 1939. Employers are cautioned to insure accuracy in reporting on their workers to avoid later annoyance and correspondence.

The schedule of visits is as follows: Mr. Miller's itinerary: Grand Island, April 11 and 12; Hastings, April 13; Kearney, April 14; Holdrege, April 15; McCook, April 16; North Platte, April 18; Ogallala, April 19; Scottsbluff, April 21; Alliance, April 22.

Mr. Mundy's itinerary: Beatrice, April 12; Falls City, April 13; Nebraska City, April 14; Plattsmouth, April 15.

Mr. Atkins' itinerary: Ord, April 18; Norfolk, April 19; Columbus, April 20; Fremont, April 21.

The division representatives will headquarter at the respective local Nebraska state employment service offices except at McCook where Mr. Miller will be at the Keystone Hotel. Local offices will be at the court house.

gone. Mr. Spangler has made every effort to find the missing pocketbook and its contents but without success. The name was in the pocketbook, which would guide anyone who might find it in returning it.

Home From Hospital.

Rudolph W. Hart who has for some time been troubled with repeated attacks of appendicitis, went to the hospital in Lincoln some three weeks ago to have the trouble corrected, undergoing an operation for relief, was able to return home last Saturday and since has been making more improvement in his health. Rudolph's many friends are pleased that he has been able to return home and showing improvement in health.

Easter Egg Hunt.

Weeping Water is staging an Easter egg hunt under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce for Saturday, April 16th, at 5 p. m. The committee in charge is offering prizes for the event and it is expected to attract a large number. The event will be held at Woolcott's pasture and prizes are offered to the winners.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, April 17th

By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"The Victorious Servant"

Acts 2:22-36.

This Easter lesson is the keystone of our religion. With this stands or falls the whole structure. The Christian religion is built upon a living Christ, who lives forever. "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable." (I Cor. 15:19).

The fact of the resurrection of Jesus Christ has never been denied by his enemies, because of the unimpeachable character of its witnesses. The phenomena of the pentecostal scene was witnessed by people of sixteen different nationalities, as recorded in the preceding verses. The fact that the apostles spoke the language of many nations was proof that something had happened to these men; and the boldness with which they stood their ground, and the undisputed proof they cited of the O. T. scriptures was so convincing that thousands were ready to follow these leaders.

The section of Peter's sermon, which we study today, shows us that he spoke under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. (See Matt. 10: 19; Luke 12:12). Peter brings to the notice of his hearers some unpleasant facts that were known to them, having only taken place six weeks before. We marvel at the accuracy of the facts presented; at the fine diplomatic approach to his audience and the audacity, in reminding them of the reproach of the inscription they had placed at the head of Jesus' cross: "Jesus of Nazareth . . ." how he was approved of God by mighty works and wonders and signs. (Here the teacher should ask the class to tell what Jesus had done) and that they knew of these things, and there was no denying. Here the bold preacher goes into matter that has confounded some of the deepest thinkers and devout scholars. How, in due time, Jesus was "delivered up" as the Lamb of God, a propitiation for the sin of the world, because of the law's demand—the soul that sinned shall die. (Gen. 2:17). God so loved that he gave up his well beloved Son—the law must take its course. But this act was preceded and determined in a "counsel" of the Trinity. Here we go back to the "beginning" of John I; in this counsel it was proposed to "make man" and in the foreknowledge of God, man's fall was seen, and the plan to redeem him was executed—"from the foundations of the world Jesus suffered." (Rev. 13:8).

Jesus had to take my place (see Phil. 2:6-8) and his suffering, rejection and humiliation is told by Isaiah, chapter 53. The cross was not something that came unexpectedly into the life of Jesus; his death upon the cross was the only way by which he could make propitiation for our sins, give us eternal life, and bring us into the presence of God. (I Pet. 3:18).

The Jews by the hand of "lawless men" (Roman soldiers) killed Jesus. The death of Jesus, like the tragedy of Judas had been fore-ordained, but that was no justification of the actors; their guilt remained. They had acted in moral freedom, though they had been the means of accomplishing the divine purpose. (Luke 22:22; Acts 4:28).

This Jesus who died was resurrected, as abundant proof is furnished from the O. T. writers. This brings us to the exaltation to our Lord. After tasting death, fulfilling the demands of the law, the price is paid, God is reconciled, upon repentance man can obtain forgiveness and be restored into God's favor. Having completed his work of redeeming the race, He returns to his home in heaven, sitting at the right hand of the Father, the place of honor; and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, who shall henceforth represent him in the church and administer the merits and fruit of this great redemption; that is the work of the Holy Spirit. Read here John 16:7-15; that passage is very illuminating and clear. How glad and happy is the church that she has such a glorious Gospel to offer to the world; happy is the soul that has a Christ to whom God has given "all power," and this power is at the disposal of every Christian; this great power-house is unlocked with a key called faith, and all things are possible to him who has faith. He can remove mountains of doubt and fear and be victorious with a victorious Christ. Therefore, the church is a glorious church, because she has a glorious Christ. By the decree of God Jesus is both Lord—to whom all owe allegiance, and Christ, the anointed of God as Saviour.

The church is happy this Easter morning and sings: "Jesus shall reign wherever the sun Doth his successive journeys run; His kingdom spread from shore to shore 'Till moons shall wax and wane no more. "To him shall endless prayers be made, And endless praises crown his head; His name, like sweet perfume shall rise With every morning sacrifice." Hallelujah! What a Savior!
