At Union . . . and Wyoming
It was a very happy day for L. Neitzel, the Murdock Pilgrim, last Sunday. His destination was the M. E. church at Union, where he arrived in time, expecting to participate in the worship service, but the pastor informed him that the pilgrim would have to accompany him to "Wyoming" and preach. At first thought he hesitated to go so far, feeling sure they would be late for service, even with the fastest airplane. His fears were soon dispelled however, when he was informed it was only 5 miles to Wyoming. Arriving there, Mr. Neitzel taught a class in the Sunday school and gave the people the best he had in a talk about "The Joy We Find in Our Religion." It was a very fine and appreciative audience and Mr. Neitzel says a most profitable day, although a 70 mile drive, teaching and preaching proved quite a task for our 83 year old friend.

BUREAU REPORTS 74 RESERVOIRS IN ARID LANDS
WASHINGTON (UP)—The bureau of reclamation has indicated that there will be an adequate supply of water for irrigation in the arid and semi-arid areas of the west during the summer.

Two new irrigation storage reservoirs, put into service this month, brought the total number of federal reservoirs which will be useful this summer to 74.

The new reservoirs were those created by unity dam, on Burnt River, Ore., and Caballo Dam on the Rio Grande, N. M. Unity Dam, now completed, has created a reservoir of 25,260 acre-feet, while the Saballo Dam, 75 per cent completed will create a reservoir with a capacity of 250,000 acre-feet.

SELECT NEW COACH

The board of education of Nebraska City, who have for the past few weeks been debating the selection of an athletic director and coach, have selected Warren Stevenson, now coach at the Worthington, Minnesota, junior college.

The newly elected coach is still under contract at Worthington and his release will be necessary before he can take up the Nebraska City job.

Mr. Stevenson is a native of Peru and graduated from the state teachers college there. He has had a very successful coaching career and formerly coached at Peru Prep and Malvern in this territory.

While coach at Yankton, South Dakota, he sent two basketball teams to national meets.

TO AID TAXPAYERS

The first quarterly report for 1938 for Nebraska unemployment compensation fund is due April 30th and delinquent thereafter. This is the first report which calls for a payroll breakdown. This breakdown must be accurate in every detail in order that the employer and employee may receive proper credit. Therefore the unemployment compensation division is sending a special representative for the purpose of assisting the employer in completing his contribution report.

Luke Mundy, field adviser will be in Plattsmouth, at Employment Service office on April 15, 1938 from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. for this purpose. All employers having any questions should feel free to call on Mr. Mundy for assistance.

HOLD JEWISH SERVICES

VIENNA, April 16 (UP)—Vienna's chief synagogue, closed for several weeks after the Nazi accession to power opened last night for passover services. There was but a moderate attendance because of nervousness among Jews.

Services were held at all other synagogues. Nervousness extended generally to 3,000,000 Jews in central Europe as they observed the passover. A Budapest dispatch quoted police as alleging that they had discovered a Jewish organization which was propagating opposition to most governing Jews and that 100 were arrested, of whom 10 were kept in custody.
