

MURDOCK ITEMS

A boy came to the home of the former Virginia Schewe on May 10. Eddie Craig and wife were at Weeping Water last Tuesday, where they looked after business and visited with friends.

A. H. Ward has been assisting in the matter of dragging the roads, assisting the regular road man, Louis Schmidt, who resides in Wabash.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dill on Sunday, May 8, a baby boy, Dr. Formanek, attending physician, reports mother and baby doing nicely.

We learn that Ruth Neitzel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Neitzel, has accepted a position with the First National Bank of Lincoln.

The Nebraska Power company had a force of workmen here last Wednesday placing some poles and doing some work near the water tower.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller were at Bucklin, Mo., last Sunday, where they drove to visit over Mothers' Day at the home of Mrs. Miller's mother.

A large number of eighth grade students from the country surrounding Murdock were here a couple of days last week taking the eighth grade exams.

Mrs. J. J. Arnold left Saturday for Wheaton, Illinois, for a vacation, to be gone a month or more. That gives L. Neitzel a chance to practice bachelorhood.

Edward Parriott, brother of Miss Parriott, the beauty operator was a visitor in Murdock last Wednesday, driving over in an auto which he had assembled himself.

Nels Peterson has been assisting with the work on the farm which is operated by Albert Theil. Nels was assisting with the discing of a field for the planting of corn.

W. O. Gillespie and Frank Melvin have been hard at work on the remodeling of the home which was recently purchased by Merle Gillespie and are getting the work well along.

Grant Peters of Greenwood has been placing a new roof on the barn of Henry Gakemeier and Mrs. Peters was visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gakemeier during the time they were here.

Mothers Day was made the more enjoyable at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tool, when their daughter, Margaret and family (Mr. and Mrs. George Work and the kiddies) came down from their home in Omaha to spend the day.

The Woman's Missionary club of the Evangelical church were meeting at the church building last Wednesday and while they were doing work connected with the present needs, they were also laying plans for the coming summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goerthey were at Peru Friday of last week, where they went to bring their daughter, Miss Dorothy, home to attend the graduation services held that night. She went back to resume her school work Monday as the school year does not end at Peru for some two weeks yet.

Attended Pastor's Funeral Rev. G. H. Humpkin, who for 37 years before being superannuated, was a minister in various Evangelical churches of Nebraska, died at his home in Lincoln Saturday, May 7. Funeral services were held Monday, May 9. Among the pastors attending his funeral were H. Piper and C. J. Jansen of Elmwood and F. C. Weber and Harvey A. Schwab, of Murdock.

Attending Annual Conference Rev. Harvey Schwab and Rev. F. C. Weber, together with a number of members of the Murdock and Callahan churches which they serve, are to attend the annual conference of the church which is to be held at Milford this week, running from May 17 to May 22, inclusive. Many who will not be able to attend the weekday sessions will go over for the closing day Sunday.

Visiting Friends in Murdock J. W. Long and wife and Mr. Long's sister, Mrs. C. L. Creamer, of O'Neill, have been guests at the I. C. McCrorey home in Murdock during the past week. As they resided in this community some years ago, they enjoyed meeting various old friends here.

Home from the South I. G. Hornbeck, who has been at Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he was receiving treatment at a sanitarium, returned home last Sunday evening and is feeling much improved, but is suffering from a strained ankle which he sustained when he slipped and fell down. The injury is improving rapidly, however, and he feels he has received much benefit as a result of his trip to the Springs.

Practice Game Friday A season opener practice game in the Murdock Kittenball league is scheduled for Friday night of this week, May 20. The first real game of the season will be played Tuesday night of next week, May 24. This year promises to be a most interesting one in kittenball circles here.

Out After Many Weeks Several weeks ago Conrad Baumgartner had the misfortune to suffer the fracture of his ankle, which kept him confined to his home until just recently, when he was able to have the cast removed and is now getting around fairly well, being able to drive his car for the first time since the accident.

Files for County Commissioner Henry C. Backensyer, who was named as county commissioner for the third district at the time of Mr. Gorder's resignation January 1, and who has filled the office in a very able and efficient manner, filed last week as a candidate for the regular term, subject to the will of the voters at the primary August 9th.

Little Corn Moving Henry E. Carson, manager of the Murdock elevator, reports the shipment of two car loads of corn during the past week, despite the fact that there is little corn left on the farms and what there is has been moving very slowly. The 2,500 bushels that went into these two cars came from five farms, all owned by August Rice—the one he farms himself and those on which Fred Cordes, Frank Rosenow, Carl Reichart and Fred Lau reside.

Twelve to Graduate This Year There are twelve members in the graduating class of the Murdock high school this year, all of whom have passed with high grades and are leaving the school to take their places in the world or enter more advanced institutions of learning the coming year.

The class is composed of John Gakemeier, Jr., Orville Cordes, Maurice Earhardt, Reuber Stock, Lyle Stock, Fern Buck, Irene Boerthey, M. Barden, Maxine Miller, Sarah McCrorey, Doris Cortes and Wayland Ward.

Baccalaureate Services. The senior baccalaureate services were held Sunday evening, May 8th in the Ebenezer Evangelical church with a large audience of parents and friends. The graduating class with the high school faculty, at the appointed time, marched into their places in the Murdock church, as Miss Avalon Cooksey presided at the piano. Marcus Rikil sang a beautiful selection during the program and Wesley Riecke and James Mills rendered two beautiful clarinet duets.

The message, "Remember Now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth," presented by the Rev. Harvey A. Schwab, urged the class to fill a large place of service and to know the

Wabash News

Louis Schmidt and family spent Mothers' Day with the parents and as well a sister, who was visiting at the home of the parents.

During the last week a general corn planting movement has been inaugurated and many farmers are in the fields, but we have not heard of any one who has finished as yet.

Guy Hinds, Missouri Pacific employee who was caught in the recent layoff and returned to Wabash to await the time when he may be called back to work is busying himself caring for the garden and clearing the weeds and grass from the property that had gotten such a start while the family was away.

Spent Day in Wabash Ernest Underwood and family of Eagle were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reese Mothers' day. John Cardwell and family were also there and enjoyed a fine visit.

Visited Daughter in Lincoln Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Stanley were pleased when they went to Lincoln to visit for the day Saturday before Mothers' Day with their daughter, Miss Mildred, who is employed there and could not get away from her employment to come home and visit the folks on Mothers' Day.

Greatly Improved Hearing Le Roy Stanley, who has been inconvenienced by his inability to hear when conversing with people, has been seeking for some means of obviating this inconvenience, and recently he found a new device which is known as Sonotone and is in the nature of a bone contact. This is an electrical device that makes use of a battery carried in the hip pocket, and the bone contact on his head just behind the ear.

We were surprised to note the great change that this instrument has wrought, as with just ordinary conversation, Mr. Stanley was able to understand readily all that was being said. He is now able to go about his business and hear the greetings of his friends as well as to carry on conversation in an ordinary tone of voice.

Birthday Dinner at Home Harold Richards, who works out of Lincoln, was a visitor on his regular trip to Wabash last Wednesday and spent the dinner hour at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Richards, enjoying at the same time the passing of his 20th birthday.

Home for Mothers' Day The family of Orvil Gerbeling, who is farming a few miles from Wabash, were guests last Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gerbeling. His sister, Mrs. Lloyd McCoy, with Mr. McCoy and the children were also present at this Mothers' Day gathering.

Overhauling Road Tractor Road Patrolman Louis Schmidt has been overhauling his road tractor and has been assisted by Earl Elliott, John Lytle and A. H. Ward, getting the road machine in fine working order. A. H. Ward of Murdock has been assisting Mr. Schmidt in his work on the road, as when the rains came the work piled up on him and it was necessary to have assistance in order to keep the highways in good condition.

reality that comes to one, when God is remembered and followed in the paths of service.

The Rev. F. C. Weber assisted in the services. The junior class, under the able direction of the class sponsor, Prof. E. M. Miller, had the chance of the church beautifully decorated in the springtime flowers and potted plants.

Good Luck Gardeners The first meeting of the Good Luck Gardeners was held Saturday, May 7, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. W. Race. Four members were present. Each member got a Nebraska Boys' and Girls' 4-H Members' Book and a Garden Record Book. George Buell was elected president, Wayne Thoms secretary, Herbert Klemme news reporter.

Our motto is "Make the Best Better." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thoms, Tuesday, May 17, 1938.—Herbert Klemme, Reporter.

BRITISH SHIP SUNK

VALENCIA, May 14 (UP)—A British ship was set afire and sunk by a bomb during three air raids between 11:30 last night and 3 a. m. today. Twenty were killed and 18 wounded ashore during the raid.

The name of the ship was given as Greatland. (Lloyds does not list a Greatland but lists a British ship called Greatend.) The raid was one of a renewed series being carried out on loyalist cities on the east coast. Two intensive raids occurred in Barcelona at midnight and 1 a. m. today. The extent of casualties or damage was not known here.

CHARLIE GARDNER DIES

OMAHA, May 14 (UP)—Charles R. Gardner, 59, manager of the convention bureau of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce and for many years secretary of the Ak-Sar-Ben died suddenly of a heart attack at his home here today.

Gardner probably contacted more persons during his career than any present day Omaha man. After leaving Ak-Sar-Ben he as manager of Hotel Fontenelle before becoming connected with the Chamber of Commerce.

WILL HEAR ATTORNEY GENERAL

LINCOLN, May 14 (UP)—The supreme court today announced it will hear Attorney General Richard C. Hunter's quo-warranto action seeking removal of Lieutenant Governor Walter H. Jurgensen during the week of June 6. This was the date requested by council for both sides. A hearing of the case at that time will permit the decision before the high court recesses in June.
