W. F. M. S. Honors Member

Yesterday afternoon the members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist ladies met on the regular meeting day for a 1 o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. R. R. Walton who has been very active as a member since coming to Plattsmouth. Mrs. J. C. Lawson was hostess, assisted by a committee of officers, Mrs. H. B. Perry, chairman, Mrs. F. L. Barkus and Mrs. Ray McMaken, having charge of arrangements.

All were seated at a long table arranged in the large rooms of the parsonage. Two lighted candelabra were at both ends of the table. Favors were pink and yellow rose buds made by Mrs. Perry, which was a china and crystal service made a lovely table.

After the delicious luncheon Mrs. Walton was presented with a crystal centerpiece as a gift from the members of the society to whom she has been an inspiration and loyal supporter of their missionary program. She responded with much appreciation and revealed what the open friendship she received from Plattsmouth church friends had meant to her. The members gave answer informally as to their appreciation of this new friend who is so soon to leave them.

The solo "My Task" was given as expressive of the purpose and sentiment which make true missionary members and with which spirit Mrs. Walton came among the members. She herself said "You gave me this or that to do,"—considering it a privilege rather than an added burden.

It being the regular meeting day devotionals in keeping with the subject "World Citizenship" were given by the stewardess, Mrs. E. W. Thimigan and included a duet "The Old Rugged Cross" by Mesdames M. S. Kerr and Thimigan. A brief review of the lesson was given from the study outline emphasizing the responsibility as Christian women in supporting better motion pictures, refined radio programs and abstinence of alcoholic beverages. Another solo "The End of a Perfect Day" was sung for Mrs. Walton and a brief business session followed to take care of needed action. The meeting was closed with one verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
