

Murray

Mrs. G. S. Ray has been visiting Mrs. Adda Hatchett a few days this week.

Mrs. Nickles and her daughter Bertha has as their guest Mrs. Margaret Carroll.

Mrs. Adda Hatchett was a guest of Mrs. G. S. Ray at a lovely dinner last Saturday.

Don C. Rhoden and Shrader Rhoden were in Plattsmouth last Monday looking after some business matters and as well were visiting with friends in the county seat.

Mrs. Rena Tennant from Miami, Florida, is visiting a few days with relatives in Nebraska.

Last Saturday night Mildred, Frank and Raymond Freeman of Weeping Water were in Murray to attend the dance.

Kenneth Copperthwait and family who were here conducting a cream station in the Churchill building have disposed of their interests to Howard Moyer and moved to Weeping Water where they will make their home for the present.

Shrader Rhoden, who has lived in the vicinity of Murray all his life, was in Plattsmouth early this week where he filed for sheriff on the democratic ticket.

The Sporer family were enjoying a very pleasant outing last Sunday when they met at the farm of Mrs. Charles Sporer, formerly Miss Stull.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, May 29th By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Maintaining Personal Efficiency" Dan. 1:8-16, 19, 20; I Cor. 9:24-27. (A personal aspect of temperance.)

Men in all ages have recognized the fact that if a man wants to be at his best, he must practice physical cleanliness and self-control. One example is Joseph, one of Jacob's sons, 1700 B. C., who by a virtuous life and self-control rose to be a "Dietator" in Egypt.

A thousand years later we have another example, 600 B. C., in Daniel, who in the great city of Babylon, at the court of Nebuchadnezzar, achieved a position like Joseph, by clean living and self-control and the epitaph on his tombstone is "He believed in God." (Dan. 6:23).

The third character in our lesson is the matchless Paul of whom much is to be said, but who also achieved the eminence he enjoyed by the same means, namely: Clean living and self-control.

These are characters of the past. What of men of our time? W. J. Bryan, Senator Shepherd of Texas, father of the 18th amendment, etc. They too stand out as exponents of clean living who also practiced what they preached.

We take up the study of the lad Daniel and his three friends. These boys, about 14 years old, were prisoners of war; they came from Palestine, being Jews, and were taken into Babylon in Mesopotamia, to the capital of Chaldea. They were fine lads of royal blood, well trained in the customs of Jewish law. They knew the difference of clean and wholesome food and the result. God had a plan and purpose for these boys, as he has for every boy and girl, if they will commit their life and future into His hand—take God into their life: He will find a way for them that they will get into the right place, and will not be "misfits." But it is not the easy road—think of Joseph, and Daniel and his friends. We marvel at the simple faith and confidence they displayed, putting God to the test. They were mere children; that shows what good home training can do—bend the tree when young. Think of the twelve-year-old boy Jesus of Nazareth.

How did God honor the faith of these youths? After a ten days trial they were physically better than the ones who had lived sumptuously on the king's food. Then for conscience sake they abstained from food offered to idols—another result of right occasion were Wm. Sporer and children, Chester Sporer and family of Mynard, Martin Sporer and family of Murray and Charles Sporer and wife of Murray.

Will Attend Summer School. Professor J. Greer who has been the superintendent of the Murray school, with the closing of the school year, has moved to Lincoln where he expects to attend school this summer and will return to Murray in the fall.

To Move to Murray This Week. Rev. Kinney who comes to the Murray Christian church as its minister, well recommended as a very proficient orator and an earnest worker for the church and community will move to Murray this week. He was here last Lord's day and delivered a pleasing discourse. The men were over to the parsonage cleaning the premises and planting a garden for the minister and his wife. The ladies of the church at the same time put the house in order, cleaning the interior, placing the building in very fine condition for the reception of the minister and family.

Improvements at Lumber Yard. The Murray lumber yard has been making some important improvements and adding more room for the handling of the lumber business. Some time ago concrete leaders were laid for the holding of outside lumber, shingles dimension stuff and the like. Monday of this week A. A. Young assisted by Walter Allen were making more leaders to care for the storage of the building materials.

Entertain Relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Dayle Tigner were host and hostess to a gathering of friends and relatives at their home last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman, parents of Mrs. Tigner, Frank Nickles and Frank Lawther of Weeping Water.

ter and Earl Freeman and family of Avoca. They spent the day very pleasantly and enjoyed an excellent dinner.

Dined in Plattsmouth Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nickles had as their guests for the day Sunday their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader of South Omaha. They enjoyed a fine visit and a trip over the country and had their dinner at the Farney cafe in Plattsmouth at the noon hour.

Building Lawn Furniture. Thomas Nelson, who is employed at the Murray lumber yard makes use of any spare time he may have in making lawn furniture, in the shape of individual chairs for the lawn as well as double seats and other lawn furniture.

Murray Has New Family. Howard Moyer and family who formerly made their home in Plattsmouth moved to Murray recently and are occupying the Churchill property. Mr. Moyer is employed in the Murray garage.

Christian Aid Society. Aid society of the Christian church will meet next Wednesday, June 1st with Mrs. Arthur Hansen, hostesses. Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Margaret Moore, Mrs. Carroll, Mrs. Anderson will be the leader. The public cordially invited.

Visit at Smith Home. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Holmes of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Nora Douglas of Waukegan, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes of Plattsmouth spent the day last Sunday at the W. S. Smith home, in the evening, J. W. and T. S. Holmes drove to Omaha to meet Mrs. Nellie Churchill who came in on the Challenger from Twin Falls, Idaho. All had supper at the Smith home and a most delightful evening together.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to our man friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral offerings.—Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hostetter.

Thanks the Patrons. The postmaster wishes to thank the people of Murray and vicinity for their splendid co-operation during National Air Mail Week, and especially on May 19th when Murray witnessed their first air mail pickup flight.

Wm. Minford donated the use of his sweet clover field three-quarters of a mile north of town which made a splendid landing field. The postmaster from Nehawka also used the Murray landing field as she was unable to find a suitable location near Nehawka.

The pilot, James L. Hurst of Lincoln made a perfect landing at 12:10 and was greeted by the Murray and Nehawka postmasters as well as a number of interested spectators from both towns. After picking up the mail and posing for a number of pictures the pilot made his takeoff at exactly 12:15. There were 127 air mail letters sent by the Murray people on this pickup flight, going to 26 different states and two foreign countries.

REMEMBERS JOURNAL From Monday's Daily—The Journal office was remembered today by a very attractive bouquet of flowers, a part of one of the exhibits of cut flowers from the Spring Flower Show, a most attractive and appreciated remembrance.
