Nehawka

Mrs. Sarah Brooks and son, Sam, of Plattsmouth were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney.

Clarence Heebner of Imperial was here to attend the funeral of his brother and as well to visit with his stricken father, Henry Heebner of Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Watson who are entertainers at KFAB were spending the week-end at the home of the parents of Mr. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney.

Carl M. Balfour of southwest of Nehawka, was over north of Nehawka where A. G. Cisney farms on a place of Mrs. Balfour and was building a porch on the house.

A mixup of cars near the home of John Campbell between a stone truck and the car of Mr. Campbell, damaged both cars considerably, but did not injure either of the drivers, though a woman was quite badly injured.

M. N. Tucker who was receiving treatment since returning from the hospital some time ago, is gradually recovering his health, although he is still compelled to return to the hospital for a checkup occasionally.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Leach and Jack Burch and their three kiddies were over to the home of Mrs. A. D. Asch Sunday, all enjoying a very pleasant visit. The two families have been close friends for many years.

Grover Hoback was in Manly last Monday, called there to attend a free weekly movie, where there was a large attendance. Mr. Hoback sought to meet the voters as he is a candidate on the democratic ticket for commissioner in the second district.

W. O. Troop and son, Thomas, went to Syracuse last Wednesday where they attended a sale there managed by Robert Troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop. Mr. Troop reports a very fine rain over that way, but not coming any too soon.

Mrs. Lois Troop, Mrs. C. S. Sherman and Mrs. May Paymiller, all of Lincoln, drove down to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop where they picked up Mrs. Troop and the party visited with many old time friends of Mrs. Lois Troop which she knew when she resided on the farm north of Nehawka years ago. They enjoyed a very pleasant visit with their many friends.

Laverne Steffens, son of J. H. Steffens was feeling quite poorly most of last week and was taken to the doctor late in the week, who upon giving the found man an examination found he had a serious case of appendicitis. Laverne was hastened to the Clarkson hospital in Omaha where an operation was performed. He is now reported as doing fair.

Miss Ruth Palmer, who has been teaching school for some time, has since being on her vacation been troubled with repeated attacks of appendicitis, was taken to the Clarkson hospital in Omaha last Sunday where an operation was performed from which she rallied nicely and has been getting along very well since. The mother, Mrs. James Palmer, has been with the daughter at the hospital.

Dies at Clarkson Hospital.
James Warden Heebner, son of Henry Heebner of Murray, who has been making his home at Wayne, was taken first by a very high fever which was diagnosed as rheumatic fever, which seemed difficult to control and which finally ran into polio. The young man passed away at the hospital early Sunday evening at 7:15. He was born February 22, 1904, near Nehawka and grew to manhood here. He was married to Bessie Middleton February 12, 1937. One child, a daughter, came to bless the home about three weeks ago.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church in Nehawka, of which he was a member, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor. Interment was at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Besides James Warden Heebner there was also another son, Clarence Heebner, who makes his home at Imperial. His mother passed away several years ago. She was a sister of Hugh Warden and Miss Kate Warden.

James Warden Heebner was a young man of great promise and his death caused much sorrow to family, relatives and friends.

No Services Coming Sabbath.
The services at the Methodist church in Nehawka, have been cancelled on account of a very serious accident which occurred at Casper, Wyoming, to the husband of a daughter of Rev. W. D. Lenker, pastor of the Methodist churches at Weeping Water and Nehawka, necessitating the departure of Rev. Lenker for Casper, answering a call from his daughter to come immediately as the injury to her husband was very severe.

Visiting With Sister Here.

Celebrate Anniversary.
Lyle Kruger and Miss Sarah Ann Hohman were united in marriage at Plattsmouth August 3, 1904 by the then District Judge Harvey D. Travis and last Sunday at their home at Nehawka the children and other relatives of this happy couple after thirty-four years of married life together came to do them honor. An all day's gathering was enjoyed and a very fine dinner served.

Among those present to assist in honoring this couple were W. H. Kruger and family of Nehawka; Harry L. Kruger and family of Plattsmouth; Fred Guade and family of Unadilla; Lawrence Kruger and family of Otoe; George Bucholz and family of Avoca. The occasion was made the more enjoyable as Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kruger were also celebrating the passing of their wedding anniversary as they were wedded ten years ago on July 28th.
