Earl Oldham was attending to business matters in Omaha Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Markland were in Nehawka Tuesday attending the funeral of the late James Warden Heebner.

Edward Freeman was called to Plattsmouth last Tuesday to look after some business matters for a short time at the court house.

O. H. Allen from Omaha was looking after business and visiting friends in Weeping Water Tuesday.

Happy Brown was down in Kansas last week where he visited for a time with his old time friend, Roy Bickford, also looking over the crops there.

Dr. J. W. Brendel of Avoca was looking after some business matters in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week and also was called to Greenwood last Friday.

C. T. Edwards from west of Elmwood a democratic candidate for county commissioner in the third district was a visitor in Weeping Water Tuesday.

Ed Laurensen and Lester Wunderlich were in Murray last Monday looking after business matters. They also went on to Omaha and stopped at Plattsmouth on the way back.

Lawrence Askew, the shoe and harness maker and repairer, who occupies the Gorder building on the north side of west Main street, has recently had installed a new electric sign advertising his business which adds much to the appearance of this part of the business section.

The ladies of the Congregational church, needing money, and what church doesn't, and for use for the very best purposes, gave a very pleasant and delicious supper on the church lawn last Tuesday evening. A very neat sum was made for the use of the church.

Mrs. Andrew Olsen was hostess to a large number of her friends, members of the Weeping Water 500 club last Monday evening. Following an evening of cards very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Concrete Walls Could Not Hold Him. Contrary to the rumor that the Weeping Water jail had been destroyed and completely torn up it is entirely misleading, for the bastille stands as mute protestation to the rumor. The building was slightly disfigured and did not look the very best after the prisoner, who was locked up there, but not in the strong box, after having sobered up to some extent began wreaking his vengeance on mortar and stone, iron bars and glass windows, while it is reported he was watched by a large crowd of people to see what he would do. After wrecking the windows he squirmed through the barred windows and dropped to the ground and came down town for a bite to eat, as he did not like the jail menu. Thinking of the strong arm of the law, it is again reported that he turned his nose toward Idaho and followed it toward the setting sun. Anyway the strong house is empty and the bird flown.

Made Trip to California. Mrs. James Renford, a sister of Mrs. Earl Oldham who has been visiting in Oklahoma, she making her home at Mercerville, Mo., also visited with her sister here and then departed for New Mexico and after getting that far went on to California Enjoyed Sunday in Lincoln. The proprietor of the City Market, with his help which makes a good sized party, were enjoying an outing last Sunday at the Burlington Beach in Lincoln. They enjoyed an outdoor picnic with a abundance of fried chicken and other delicacies, as well as a dip in the crystal waters of the lake.

Attend Legion Convention. Ben Olive was attending the state convention at Fremont Monday, enjoying the gathering very pleasantly, but could not remain for a longer period as he had to return to care for delivering the rural mails. Tuesday Lloyd Behrens and Sam Baker were over and enjoyed the convention, while on Wednesday Arch Baker and John Jones attended. Postmaster Sterling Amick, while he desired to attend, had to miss the convention, for he and wife are slated to attend the national convention in the near future.

Takes Additional Mileage. Ben Olive, rural carrier of the mails out of Weeping Water, has been assigned extra miles on August first as the two routes out of Weeping Water have been consolidated, with Mr. Olive in charge of both routes and with an additional number of families. John Rohrdanz, Ray Wiley, Herman Rauth, John C. Rauth and John A. Stander. The regular carrier of one of the routes, E. B. Taylor, has been retired on a pension.

Make Visit in Colorado. Miss Catherine Bogenrief and Frank Connally departed Wednesday last week for points in Colorado where they spent the past week with friends, and as rumor tells, were united in marriage while in the west. They returned home Wednesday of this week and received the blessings of the parents and the best wishes of their host of friends. They are to make their home in Weeping Water. The Journal joins with their many friends in extending best wishes for their prosperity and happiness.

Cass county has no bonded indebtedness, as, like the state, we have paid cash for our hard surfaced roads and other improvements as we went.
