BUY PLANT FOR $2,964,603
NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 4 (UP)—Directors of the Platte Valley public power and irrigation district, meeting here today, announced that the price fixed for the purchase of the facilities of the Northwestern Public Service company in the North Platte and Columbus area is $2,964,603.

No figures are available on separate costs, it was stated. The total would be split between the Platte Valley and Loup River districts, it was stated. The price asked for the entire Central Power company, which serves among others, Nebraska City, Kearney and Grand Island, was placed at $5,968,211, to be split between Platte Valley, Tri-County and Loup River district. The hydro-electric districts are considering offering power to municipalities with rates not exceeding the reclamation rate, it was stated. The rate being considered for wholesale power, delivered to the switchboard at North Platte was set at 1 1/2 c per kilowatt hour. The power would then be resold to the actual users. The board may take formal action late today.

Former Resident Here is Injured in Fall

Bert Henton of St. Joseph Mo., Suffers Fall From Train Near Steel City, Nebr.

Bert Henton, veteran conductor of the Union Pacific and a former resident of this community, was very painfully injured near Steel City, Nebraska, a message received here by his aunt, Mrs. J. H. Adams, state. Mr. Henton was taking his train back into St. Joseph from the end of his run at Grand Island, and his absence was noted by other members of the train crew who started an investigation and it was found that he had fallen off the train and was lying along the right of way. He was very severely bruised and bleeding from small cuts and was also suffering from a sprained ankle. The injured man was taken on into St. Joseph and placed in a hospital where he will spend sometime recuperating.

Mr. Henton will be remembered by many of old residents of the vicinity of Mynard as he was brought up by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gillespie at their farm home.

URGES HOLDING SOWS
LINCOLN, Aug. 4 (UP)—Noting that many light smooth sows are being marketed from Nebraska farms now, Professor H. J. Gramlich of the Nebraska college of agriculture urged farmers today to hold the animals on their farms if it was at all possible.

"The corn-hog ratio is unusually favorable," he observed. "In Iowa where last year's corn is available the ratio is better than 20 to 1 or an exceedingly profitable basis. In Nebraska, with a relatively large crop of small grain possessing a comparatively low market value it would seem that young sows would be held to produce another litter for the 1939 market."

KING SNAKE VANQUISHES RATTLER IN ONE ROUND
LEMON COVE, Cal. (UP)—Mr. and Mrs. Len Bequette witnessed a royal battle here between a king snake and a rattlesnake that ended in a real finish for the rattler.

The king snake, oblivious of the presence of human beings, crawled up on the rattler, wrapped itself around the latter's body, squeezed it to death, and then worked up towards the rattler's head, which it began to swallow. Within an hour and a half, the king snake had swallowed half of the rattler and by the next morning the rattler was entirely consumed.

BELIEVES NO WAR DANGER
PARIS, Aug. 5 (UP)—Foreign Minister Bonnet receiving the foreign press today expressed optimism that the Far East border dispute would not bring on a Russian-Japanese war. "There is no reason for pessimism over Korea or Czechoslovakia," Bonnet said. "Both are subject to negotiation."

Bonnet conferred with U. S. Ambassador William C. Bullitt and Chinese Ambassador Dr. Wellington Koo. SODA POP FLOWS IN STREET
SAPULPA, Okla. (UP)—Sapulpa's Oak street ran red—with soda pop. About half a truck load of 9,995 bottles slithered to the pavement when the side of a truck gave way. "It was quite a mess," James Sawyer, the truck driver, said of the broken glass and splattered liquids.

BOYS PURSUE BANDIT

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Aug 5 (UP)—Four small boys, seven to nine helped thwart an attempted bank robbery today by chasing an armed bandit down an alley while throwing rocks at him. The boys saw the gunman start to run down the alley after leaving the First National Bank. Someone on the street shouted to them "stop that man."

They went into action. They picked up rocks and threw them. They pursued him as rapidly as their short legs would carry them for several blocks. Finally a patrol wagon overtook them and captured the bandit. The bandit, later identified as James McKinnin, 36, entered the bank alone and pointed a pistol at the cashier. The latter dropped to the floor and sounded the burglar alarm. The bandit fled out the front door into the alley where the youngsters took over. The boys were Eddie Johnson, 9, his brother Paul, 7, Don Campbell, 8, and Virgil Kidd, 7.
