

Softball Teams are Preparing for Tournament

September 2nd to 5th Inclusive Selected for Dates—Standing of Teams.

From Tuesday's Daily—The Softball League managers held their meeting last evening at the Recreation Center and to plan for the holding of a tournament starting next week and which will be a real treat to the fans.

In the regular league games the standing of the teams so far this season is as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Weeping Water	5	0	1.000
Pacific Junction	4	2	.667
CYO	3	3	.500
BREX	2	3	.400
Engineers	0	6	.000

It was voted to have the four day tournament to open Friday, September 2nd and be completed on Monday, September 5th, the teams being allowed to secure players for the tournament outside of the regular members.

The tournament is to be played on the elimination basis with the exception of the losers in the semi-finals who will play for third and fourth places.

Each manager is to select three players to appear at the ball park on Monday, August 29th at 6 o'clock or in event of rain on Wednesday night.

All members of tourney teams to be at park on August 29th at 6 p. m. to arrange for fencing.

The umpires named will be Pat Reed, chief umpire; Ben Olive, Dr. O. Sandin, Frank Krejcl, umpires.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their expressions of sympathy at the time of death of Mr. John Geiser and to those who by their thoughtfulness may have aided him in his last days. We also wish to thank those who sent the flowers and assisted in the funeral services.—A. W. Bradway and Family; Mrs. W. T. Edward and Family; Mrs. James Nunson and Family.

TWO EVENING PROGRAMS AT MYNARD CHURCH

Two programs of a sacred nature will be presented in the community hall basement of the Mynard church this week, each of which features a dramatic performance of a serious nature. The public is cordially invited to both performances. No admission charge will be made, but an offering will be lifted on each occasion.

On Friday evening, the group of young people who have been representing York College throughout the surrounding territory this summer will give their program which features a three-act playlet entitled "The Lost Church" and various musical numbers. The group is being sponsored by Rev. A. V. Howland, field secretary of the college.

On Sunday evening, in response to numerous requests, the Christian Endeavor society of the church will present for the second time, the sermon-drama "Nason, the Blind Disciple." This playlet, in two scenes, is directed by the pastor, and makes use of local young people in the play and in special numbers. Following this service, the official board will meet in fourth quarterly conference, to finish the business of the year, preparatory to the annual conference, which convenes at Lincoln on September 7.

RETURN FROM BLACK HILLS

Quivering nerves can make you old and haggard looking, cranky and hard to live with—can keep you awake nights and rob you of good health, good times and jobs. What you may need is a particularly good women's tonic—and could you ask for anything whose benefits are better proved than famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Let its wholesome herbs and roots help Nature build up more physical resistance and thus help calm your shrieking nerves, give more energy and make life worth living again. More than a million women have reported benefit—why not let Pinkham's Compound help YOU, too, to go "smiling thru" trying times like it has other grateful women for the past generations? A large consignment of commodity flour has been stored in the Eagles building for use in distribution among the relief cases. The flour is purchased by the U. S. government from surplus stocks and is sacked with the lettering on the sacks against sale of the flour and for its exclusive use in relief cases.

MARRIED BY JUDGE DUXBURY

From Tuesday's Daily—Last evening County Judge A. H. Duxbury was called upon to officiate at the marriage ceremony that united Lyle E. Smith and Helen E. Darrell and William G. Hickling and Hazel E. Price, all of Omaha. After the wedding the bridal parties returned to their homes in Omaha.

FLOAT AT LOUISVILLE

The King Korn Carnival float with old King Korn himself as the chief feature, was at Louisville Saturday night to participate in the festivities and in which the Recreation Center band also took part. The float made a big hit. W. F. Evers acted as the master of ceremonies and the guiding hand of the float.

ATTEND BARBECUE

One of the largest gatherings of the summer season was held at the Linoma Beach, near Ashland Friday, the occasion being the lumberman's picnic for themselves and friends. Henry Ketsel of the Ketsel Well Co., Ralph Timm and Howard Hill of this city, also attended the big picnic party.

ELMWOOD CELEBRATION FINE

From Wednesday's Daily—Sheriff Homer Sylvester was at Elmwood last evening to enjoy the first day of the Golden Jubilee of this fine little Cass county city. The sheriff states that the entertainment was fine and the large crowd jolly and in good order and with plenty of enjoyment for all.

TO ATTEND VETERANS' DAY AT THE STATE FAIR

The Plattsmouth Legion Junior Drum and Bugle Corps will participate in the Veterans' Day activities at the state fair again this year. This is the third consecutive year the boys have entered the competition. Veterans' day is the Sunday before Labor day.

Participation includes appearance of all musical organizations in the afternoon parade down the quarter stretch and in front of the grand stand, the playing of a concert on the fairgrounds during the afternoon and competitive drill formation under the flood lights in front of the grandstand in the evening.

Participating corps are paid certain expense money and compete for additional sums offered as cash prizes for the three best rated.

In 1936 a night rain canceled the competitive part of the program, but expense money and proratement of the prize money was disbursed. Last year Plattsmouth took second place in the competition.

Cars will leave here early in the forenoon, so the boys may attend Sunday school or church services at Lincoln prior to 11:30, when they must be registered in at the fair grounds or forfeit their right to expense and prize money.

The Plattsmouth delegation will wear King Korn Carnival badges advertising the forthcoming King Korn Carnival here and it is possible the official King Korn float may be sent to participate in the afternoon parade.

TO MARK HISTORIC SPOTS

In connection with the King Korn Carnival, Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the King Korn Carnival committee and the citizens at large, will mark scenes and historical spots of Plattsmouth. Private historical documents, pictures and mementoes of early days will be exhibited in connection with the antique exhibits of the Cass County Historical society during the Korn Carnival.

This is a community affair and Fontenelle chapter asks for help of the residents of the community. They are especially anxious for anecdotes of the early days of Plattsmouth history. Will you not join the "Remember When" club in securing these anecdotes? Write or call Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

DEATH OF AGED MAN

Tuesday afternoon at the Horton funeral home funeral services were held for Calvin Clary, 75, a resident of Weeping Water for a great many years.

Mr. Clary had been ill for a period of several weeks and his condition was such that he was taken to the Bryan Memorial hospital at Lincoln to be cared for and where he passed away on Monday.

As far as can be learned Mr. Clary had no relatives in this part of the country.

Interment was made at the Oak Hill cemetery in the west part of the city.

SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Wynn were at Missouri Valley, Iowa, Sunday where they visited with George Forbes, a brother of Mrs. Wynn. George fell last week while painting and injured his hip, it being thought that a bone of the hip may have been splintered. He is now showing some improvement, however.

AIDS IN GOOD WORK

In the marking of the historic spots over the city and which will include the historical story of the first Burlington activities here, the railroad company is assisting in the work that the D. A. R. is planning. The railroad very generously is supplying the boulders and markers that will be used on the various places of historic interest.

Find Many Old Time Friends in California

Mrs. James Mauzy and Son Find Many of the Old Friends Located on West Coast.

Plattsmouth residents who visit the Pacific coast from San Francisco south to the border can find many of the former residents here who are making their homes there, as this was the experience of Mrs. James G. Mauzy and son, Jimmie, who have just recently returned from a few weeks visit on the coast.

They stopped at San Francisco to enjoy a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Mauzy and who showed them many places of interest and then visited with Miss Margaret Mauzy, sister of James G. Mauzy, who has made her home for a number of years on the west coast.

From the metropolitan area of San Francisco where the preparations for the 1939 world's fair is the center of attraction, they visited in the south of the state in Los Angeles and surrounding territory and where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mauzy, who accompanied them back home.

In and near Los Angeles Mrs. Mauzy and son were able to meet a number of the old friends and among these Mrs. Katie Walling, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schulhof, Mr. and Mrs. George Kravaneck, the former Norine Schulhof, Mrs. Ruth Roman Swanson, while many of the others called by telephone to extend their greetings. One of the friends whom Mrs. Mauzy had not met for seven years when they resided here, Mrs. Fred Collins was also a caller to see Mrs. Mauzy.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson entertained at their Long Beach home at a very pleasant dinner party for Mrs. Mauzy and James and where they also had as guests Dr. Albert A. Fricke of Los Angeles and Miss Dora Fricke of this city, vacationing on the west coast.

Mrs. Helen Snow, formerly Miss Helen Beeson, was hostess at a luncheon to Mrs. Mauzy and James during their stay in the Los Angeles area.

Among those who called to greet the Plattsmouth visitors at the Robert Mauzy home was Mr. and Mrs. Milford B. Bates, friends of the Mauzy family during their residence here.

On their return the party came by way of Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and Bryce and Zion canyons in Utah.
