GIVE TEAM A TREAT

In honor of winning the Twin Valley League, the entire Plattsmouth Merchants ball club was feted with a barbecue and all its trimmings at Jesse Ogden's "shack" near the sandpits. The "big feed" was given by Manager Ray Shaffer, Jesse Ogden and the Nord boys.

This was the biggest treat the champs received, together with the many setups given by the local concerns for each victory, and was very much enjoyed and appreciated by everyone who attended.

ATTEND SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET

Miss June Kell, Gerald Kell, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kraeger, Rev. A. Lentz and family, Mildred Engelkemeler, and Wilma Friedrich, attended the annual Sunday school convention at Hanover, Kansas. The sessions were held on August 17 and 18 and were largely attended by the church people of the central west. The local people enjoyed very much the trip and the meeting.

REPORT OF DEATH UNFOUNDED

Dr. J. H. Hall, veteran Cass county physician, has had the experience of having his passing away reported and in fact a silent tribute was paid at the Rock Bluffs picnic to the good doctor. While Dr. Hall is not in the best of health, he is able to be up and around and the report of his death was wholly without foundation.
