BENEFIT BALL GAME
On Sunday afternoon if the weather will permit, the baseball fans of Plattsmouth and vicinity will have the opportunity of paying tribute to a young ball player that has really placed the local team among the hot organizations of this section of Nebraska.
This is Harley Street, to whom a bright future in organized ball is being offered and who plans to take advantage of several offers that have come for tryouts and contracts with several of the big league farm teams where players are developed for the two big circuits.
The Florence Merchants have been secured to oppose the local ball team on Sunday at Athletic park and the local management has arranged that the proceeds of the game go to the fine young ball player that has made a real record for himself.

Come out and show appreciation of the fine work that Street has done in baseball the past two years and help boost him onward to a greater future.
FAIR BOOSTERS HERE
From Friday's Daily
This morning the auto caravan of boosters for the Cass county fair visited this city and enjoyed a half hour stay and meeting the local people and presenting the cause of the fine fair that our county holds each year in our neighboring city, Weeping Water.
The boosters brought with them their band that gave several pleasing numbers and also the fire bell that aroused residents here to the fact that there will be a great show at Weeping Water from September 13 to 16 inclusive.

Mayor Troy L. Davis, that veteran booster for the county fair was with the party and extended the official invitation to come to Weeping Water and enjoy every day of the fair.
They are planning on making the fair bigger and better than ever this year.
