From Friday's Daily—
Entertains Pinochle Club—
 Edith Vandervoort entertained the pinochle club yesterday. Marie Horn won the first prize and Ida Waters won second.

Delta Deck Club—
 The Delta Deck club met last night with Miss Amelia Martens. First prize was won by Margaret Scotten. Emma Egenberger won second and Lillian Livingston got third prize.

Guests From Preston—
 The home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cotner was the scene of a very pleasant afternoon Thursday when a group of friends from Preston, Nebraska, were here for the day. The members of the group were Mrs. Mary Meyers, Mrs. Rhine Shelley, Mrs. Frank Snyder and Mrs. Elmer Huntley.

Entertains at Party—
 Mrs. Wm. Nelson entertained last evening for a group of young ladies of the neighborhood. The evening was spent playing Kan-U-Go, prizes for which were won by Miss Marie Nolting and Miss Anne Knieke. The evening was climaxed by a dainty luncheon served by the hostess. Those enjoying the pleasant event were Misses Marie Nolting, Agnes and Gertrude Brink, Margaret Bauer, Lois and Eleanor Giles, Florence Leamy and Anne Knieke.

St. John's Altar Society—
 The general meeting of the St. John's Altar society was held Wednesday afternoon at the church and club rooms. The meeting in the church was addressed by Monsignor George Agius, pastor of the church and who greeted the society at the first meeting since his return from his trip abroad.

The business and social program of the afternoon was held in the club rooms of the church, bridge and pinochle being the diversions of the occasion. In bridge Mrs. Lester Gaylord won the high score and Mrs. W. H. Ofe proved the most successful in pinochle.

Circle No. 2 served a very much enjoyed luncheon at an appropriate hour.

From Saturday's Daily—
Given Kitchen Shower—
 A group of about eighteen neighbors and friends of Miss Maymie Schwenneker surprised her at her home yesterday afternoon at a kitchen shower. Miss Schwenneker's marriage to Ralph Tuttle will take place Sunday evening. She is planning her kitchen in a color scheme of red and white and the many fine gifts she received carried out this theme. The group brought refreshments which were enjoyed and the afternoon was spent in visiting.

Entertains Session—
 The members of the session of the Presbyterian church with their wives, enjoyed a very fine social on Thursday evening at the Fellowship room of the church. The session in the business meeting named John Wehrlein as the delegate to the presbytery at Falls City.

The ladies had arranged a fried chicken dinner that was very much enjoyed by the party and will long be pleasantly remembered. Miss Eleanor Minor gave a very interesting talk on the work of the young people's conference. Those attending were: Dr. and Mrs. H. G. McClusky, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cloldt, Mr. and Mrs. John Wehrlein, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tritsch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock.

Football Now Holding Sport Throne at H. S.

Fifty Youngsters Are Out to Take Part in Practice—Three Teams Are Being Planned.

The spirit of football now prevails over the youth of the Plattsmouth high school, Coach Clark Boggess having some fifty of the boys out for the first practices of the season.

The first game of the season will be on September 16th at Weeping Water at the county fair and the team is being given a hard workout in readiness for the curtain raiser.

Several teams are being worked out this year and at least three men for all positions are being trained by Coach Boggess and his assistants so that seasoned players will be available for the future as well as the present season.

Of the lettermen who are back for service this year, the backfield finds Ronald Rebal, captain; Warren Reed, Allan White, Harry Shiffer, William Steinkamp. In the line the veterans are Joe York, Bill Armstrong, Stephen Devoe, Jimmie Jones and Carter Minor. All of the players have gained weight during the summer vacation and become hardened for the season of football.

Very promising sophomore material is now being trained for the season and the freshmen who are out in force look very good as prospects and after short training should be able to get in and battle for the blue and white.

The young people out for football in addition to the above named players are: Ed Smith, Leonard Bashus, Ralph Stava, Harley Cottingham, Corbin Davis, Robert Hayes, Clement Rhodes, Joe Noble, Harry Griffin, Roy Wilson, Bob Richter, James McNair, Stuart Sedlak, Fred Nave, James Sandin, Warren Allbee, Tom Gradoville, Dale Nearhood, Joe Phillips, Kenneth Wohlfarth, Robert Yelick, Donald Martin, Leonard Sikora, Henry Hobscheidt, Bill Gayer, Bob Mrasek, Ralph Hill, James Yelick, Donald Dooly, Howard Favors, Leroy Bashus, Dale Jackson, Stephen Wiles, Roy Means, Bill Cloldt, Donald Kozek, Donald McBride, Frank

GOES TO WYOMING

Mrs. Warren Tulene departed Friday night for Saratoga, Wyoming, where she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Iske and family. Mr. Iske was here for the funeral of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Claude Iske, and on his return Mrs. Tulene accompanied him.

Warns Today's Tennis Players—George Lott, for many years a ranking star, warns present-day top-flight players not to take game too seriously. "It doesn't deserve to occupy the best years of your life," he writes in Colliers. "Play a year or two of tournament tennis, develop contacts that may help you establish yourself in the business world, and play tennis for fun during your vacation."
