From Monday's Daily—
Neighborhood Club Meets—
 The Neighborhood club met on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Alwin. The evening was spent in pinocle and in which the first honors were won by Ray Larson and Mrs. L. W. Niel and the second by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Manners. The members of the party enjoyed a very delicious luncheon as a part of the pleasant evening.

Hold Birthday Dinner—
 Thomas Cacy was passing his birthday anniversary on Friday of last week, but was not observed until Sunday when their son, Elton Cacy and wife of near Auburn came to celebrate the happy event with the parents and other members of the family, Thomas Cacy driving down Saturday evening to bring the son and wife up for a visit and the birthday dinner. Mr. Cacy had to work Sunday afternoon and their daughter, Miss Mildred and Charles Walden took the brother and wife back home.

Observe Anniversaries—
 Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Hudson, Sr., was the scene of a delightful family gathering, the occasion being the observance of two birthday anniversaries, that of Mrs. Hudson and her grandson, Duane Olson of Lincoln. The day was featured with a 12 o'clock luncheon which was served by Mrs. Hudson.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adams of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. George Olson and sons, Duane and Donald of Lincoln; Dr. O. C. Hudson, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hudson, Sr.

From Tuesday's Daily—
Entertains Guests—
 Miss Jane Rebal entertained today at luncheon for her guests, Mrs. L. V. Smith and son, Richard, of Omaha and Miss Jeanne Kinsell.

Entertained at Dinner—
 Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hendricks entertained on Sunday at their home in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Edward Donat, Sr., mother of Mrs. Hendricks. The occasion was marked by a family dinner party at the noon hour. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Donat, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donat and Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks.

Enjoy Luncheon—
 Misses Patricia Cloidt and Betty Brocktrup were here Sunday visiting with Miss Cloidt's father, A. W. Cloidt and brother, Bill Cloidt as well as the other many friends and relatives.

Mr. Cloidt was host to the young ladies at a luncheon served at the Jacobs cafe.
 Those present to partake of the luncheon were: Marjorie Fitch, Rosemary Cloidt, Bill Cloidt, A. W. Cloidt, and the guests of honor, Misses Patricia Cloidt and Betty Brocktrup.
 The young ladies are engaged in the study of nursing at the St. Joseph's hospital at Omaha and are at the present time roommates.

Celebrate Silver Wedding—
 Sunday, January 29 the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sieker at Elmwood was the scene of a delightful gathering when a large group of friends and relatives arrived unexpectedly to celebrate the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sieker and little did they dream of their friends calling on them so unexpectedly.

Everyone came with well-laden baskets and the main feature of the day was the sumptuous dinner served at the noon hour.
 During the afternoon various games and amusements were played and which were enjoyed by all present.

Those present to honor these good people on their anniversary were: Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sieker and family, Mrs. Sieker, Sr., and daughter, Ann of Elmwood; Mr. and Mrs. John Stander and family of Manley, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stander and family of Weeping Water, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Rauth and family of York, Herman Bergmann of Manley and Miss Rosemary Stander of Manley.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Shuffle and Deal Club—
 The members of the Shuffle and Deal club met last evening at the home of L. W. Egenberger where the evening was spent in card playing.
 L. W. Egenberger was the winner of the prize and Carl Ofc captured the second prize.

Following the party tea and crumpets were served.

Foursome Tea—
 Mrs. John A. Donelan entertained at another one of her foursome teas at her apartment at the Coronado last evening. The event took place at 5:30 p. m. and a delightful time was spent by the ladies.

The guests present were: Misses Verna Leonard, Dora Fricke, Minnie Guthman and Mrs. John A. Donelan.

Tender Stork Shower.
 Last evening a group of women consisting of Mrs. Richard Beverage, Mrs. Marie Richards, and Mrs. Walter Tritzsch entertained at a stork shower at the latter's home at the Coronado apartments for Mrs. Guy Long.
 The evening was spent in playing bridge and pinocle and the following awards were given: Mrs. Rudolph Iverson won first in bridge and Mrs. Leslie McKinney won first prize in pinocle.

Following the party refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Walter Tritzsch.
 The guest of honor received many useful and handsome gifts.

Shower for Miss Janda—
 Mrs. Russell Pullman entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on 6018 Florence boulevard in Omaha last evening, honoring Miss Ruth Janda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Janda of this city, whose forthcoming marriage to Mr. Allan McClanahan is to occur in the near future. A large number of the close friends and associates from the city of Omaha were present to honor the bride-to-be.

The evening was spent in playing various games from which all present derived a great deal of enjoyment.

The bride-to-be was showered with a large number of useful and beautiful gifts as a token of friendship.
 At an appropriate hour a delicious buffet luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Pullman to the twenty guests present.

Birthday Club Meets—
 Tuesday the members of the Birthday club visited at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Barkus, one of their members, to spend a few hours with their friend who is soon leaving the city to reside at Plainview. The members of the party came prepared to make an afternoon visit and all joined in completing the ironing and mending for Mrs. Barkus and each came provided with a covered dish for a most pleasant treat. The jolly group also presented her with a handsome gift. The members of the club comprise Mrs. Ray Larson, Mrs. James Rishel, Mrs. Fritz Kaffenberger, Mrs. Florence Coleman, Mrs. H. B. Perry, Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mrs. Harry White and Mrs. Barkus.

Delphians Meet—
 The Lewis & Clark chapter of the Delphians met Monday evening at 7:30 at the office of the L. W. Egenberger agency in the Bekins building. Seven members were present. The study of the evening was "Correct English," and a round-table discussion was held by the members.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, February 13.

Meets Ruth Etting—
 C. L. Johannes, of Nebraska City, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Creighton at the Fontenelle hotel at Omaha Monday night. Mrs. Creighton was formerly Miss Jean Gallagher, member of one of the leading families of Omaha.

While in the dining room Mr. Johannes recognized Ruth Etting Alderman and her husband. Both Mr. Johannes and Mrs. Alderman are from David City. In conversation Mrs. Alderman stated they were on their way east and she still plans to make her home eventually on her farm in Butler county.

Mr. Johannes is the owner of the Joe's New Way grocery in this city.

PROPOSE NEW CONFERENCE

Negotiations are under way to organize a new Cornhusker conference for the high schools in the Platte area. While the plans are not completed, it is expected that they will be far enough advanced to award a basketball trophy. To date the following towns have been approached on this question: Plattsmouth, Blair, Wahoo, Ashland, Valley, and Boys Town. For some time a need has been felt for such a conference. Plattsmouth would logically belong in this conference as the distant southeastern conference made scheduling of games prohibitive. There has been some discussion of making a north and south section with the north group including Tekamah, Decatur, Walthill, Oakland, Lyons, West Point, and Sioux City.

MRS. PILNY STILL CRITICAL

From Tuesday's Daily—
 Reports were received from the St. Catherine's hospital today to the effect that the condition of Mrs. Vincent Pilny, Jr., who has been seriously ill the last few days, was still unchanged. Mrs. Pilny was rushed to the hospital Saturday evening and since that time has just been able to hold her own. The many friends hope she may rally from her severe illness in the next few days and soon be on the highway to recovery.
