Robert Shrader, Life Time Cass Countian Dies

In Failing Health for Past Eight Years—Member of One of Pioneer Families of County.

Robert Shrader, 73, a lifetime resident of Cass county, died Wednesday night at 8:45 at the home of his son, Mont Shrader and family near Cedar Creek. Mr. Shrader has been in failing health for the past eight years and in recent months he has been gradually growing worse.

Mr. Shrader was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shrader, who came to Cass county in 1861 and settled near Rock Bluffs where Robert was born. He has spent his lifetime here and engaged in farming the greater part of the time as long as his health permitted.

He is survived by three sons, Mont near Cedar Creek and George and Oscar Shrader, living in California. There also remains one brother, Homer Shrader, five sisters, Mrs. Georgia Creamer, Mrs. Charles Wolf, Mrs. Tony Klimm, Mrs. Alma Yardley and Mrs. Alex Rhoden, all of this county. He is also survived by thirteen grandchildren and one great grandchild as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

Following the funeral services at the home of his son, Mont Shrader, he was buried in the Rock Bluffs cemetery.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of his son, Mont Shrader, near Cedar Creek. Burial will be in the Rock Bluffs cemetery.

The funeral services of Martin Fred Ruby will be at the church in Myrand, Nebr., at 2:30 Tuesday, February 28. Burial at Horning cemetery.

DEDICATED TO HARRIETT CASE

List a moment, pray:
He called you child,
The Father did
And left you
Sort of in a dream, and sad,
Not promising
To bring her back
To those she loved, her Dad,
Nor to her sisters,
Or her brothers! It is strange,
Ah, how unbelievable,
'Tis for the Best,
That she was bidden
to sing Easter praise
in that celestial Choir.

Take great Joy!
She went before you
To be
Just a lily, a guiding Light
Exquisite, clear and true, for friends. Yes, many
Who knew her,
Saw in her
A Model. Yet each his way was wont to stray, not 'prays
Giving a thought
Into Eternity,
Nor to God.

Who was it said, "A soul you have,
an only one;
If that be lost,
Then all is done?"

Or, little girl, you child of God,
If safe you are,
Please talk to our Creator
That he may hear us!

Garden Club Enjoys a Very Fine Program

Large Number Attend Meeting Held at the Hotel Plattsmouth Wednesday Evening.

From Friday's Daily—
The Plattsmouth Garden club held a very interesting and delightful meeting last evening in the dining room of the Hotel Plattsmouth at 8 o'clock. A large number of the members were present to partake of the business session and the delightful program which followed the business meeting of the evening.

The meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Luke Wiles and was opened by giving the salute to the flag and the roll call was also given. One of the high points of the business discussion was the plans and arrangements for the beautification of rural school grounds. The plan will be taken up with the teachers of the various districts in which they reside. Mrs. Lillian Freeman was called upon and reported that the public may secure garden books in the Plattsmouth public library at the present time. The club decided to purchase the book "Flowers East and West" which deals with the flower arrangement. Mrs. L. O. Minor reviewed the African Violet and she also presented the history of the Begonia, which was very instructive and educational.

Following the business meeting Emil Weyrich showed pictures taken by Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Heineman while on their recent trip in Minnesota. The pictures shown were of the "Beautiful Garden Called a Little Bit of Heaven," and was a film that was so well covered the beautiful scenery of flowers and shrubs. Mr. Weyrich also showed various distinct pictures of the highlights in Plattsmouth, the general theme being "Sunrise and Sunset in Plattsmouth." This part of the program proved very enjoyable and interesting to all present and those that were unable to attend certainly missed a feature that is certainly not known by many of the Plattsmouth residents. It typified the sunrise and sunset in Plattsmouth, how pretty and gorgeous it was and the beauty of that scene is one that so few people realize.

During the program L. O. Minor favored the group with two splendid numbers, "A Rose," and "Bells of the Sea," Mrs. P. T. Heineman being the accompanist.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

From Saturday's Daily—
The fire department was called this morning shortly after 7 o'clock to the residence on South 6th street occupied by the Fred Armstrong family, where fire originating from the flue of a chimney in the living room, threatened serious damage.

The fire had burned in between the walls but was extinguished with a very small loss, the firemen using their booster tank and the inch and a half hose to put out the flames, this holding down loss from water.

A large number were at the fire and the household goods were removed from the house with dispatch.

FUNERAL OF MARTIN F. RUBY

The funeral services of Martin Fred Ruby will be at the church in Myrand, Nebr., at 2:30 Tuesday, February 28. Burial at Horning cemetery.

A PENNEY SAVED is Not Always a Penny Earned

Expert butter judges rate Casco Butter the best in the state. Their judgment was not based on a single churning, but tests over a period of 26 weeks production. Why buy under grade butter when at best you can only save a penny or two on the pound?
