FOUR MILE COMMUNITY CLUB

A very delightful meeting of the Four-Mile Community club was held March 14th at the beautiful home of Mrs. Russell Stander with Mrs. Ralph Wehrlein assistant hostess.

The president opened the meeting by having the members repeat the Homemaker's Creed followed by the roll call with each member responding with a definition of a friend.

The regular business affairs were discussed and the president, Mrs. Elmer Tritsch gave a very interesting account of the Social Worker's Flower club's silver anniversary party at Mynard to which she had been a guest.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. John Wehrlein who gave a very interesting discussion of Friendship.

At the close of the lesson a social hour was spent playing Chinese checkers. Mrs. Leonard Born was awarded first prize and Mrs. L. G. Meisinger the consolation.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wehrlein and Mrs. Stander.

The next meeting will be held April 11 at the home of Mrs. Hugh Stander with Mrs. F. G. Nolting assistant.
