SODALITY HAS PICNIC

Sunday afternoon, May 21, a large number of the young people's B. V. M. Sodality of the Holy Rosary church and St. John's church of this city, accompanied by a number of adult chaperones, motored to Nebraska City where they attended a picnic of the Plattsmouth Young People's Deanery. The picnic was held at the Mike Roddy farm on Goose Hill road, two miles north of Nebraska City.

The afternoon was spent in playing games of all kinds and meeting and acquainting themselves with a number of other young people of different towns.

Rev. Monsignor George Agius pastor of St. John's church, and Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula, pastor of Holy Rosary church, were also present among the young people, who number almost seventy-five.

Miss Clara Toman served as chairman of the Plattsmouth group.

Following the afternoon of enjoyment and entertainment, the group indulged in refreshments, each coming with well laden baskets of food.

HERE FROM MARYLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cross have as their house guest, Miss Imogene Cross, of Baltimore, Maryland, a sister of Mr. Cross who is visiting in the west for a part of the summer.
