Quick... Easy... yet good enough for company is this EGG DISH

By Dorothy Greig

MOTHER often declared, "With eggs in the house, I can always put together a meal." And so echo we all. The obliging egg, it seems, belongs to any meal, any occasion.

The a la King part of this dish is a delicious mushroom sauce

For instance, the dish given here is for luncheon or supper. Now, creamed eggs of one sort or another are not new. But this one has no ordinary cream sauce. The sauce is made of condensed cream of mushroom soup! It boasts a glorious mushroom flavor, enhanced by the actual slices of mushroom in the soup.

First, we hard cook the eggs—in water, please, kept just below the bubbling point. That makes the eggs firm but tender. (Eggs boiled violently take their revenge by being bouncy and rubbery in texture and hard to digest.)

Eggs a la King
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1/4 cup milk
2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1/4 cup pimiento
Mix the cream of mushroom soup thoroughly and add the milk, stirring constantly. Heat to the boiling point and add the sliced, hard-cooked eggs and pimiento. Mix very gently to prevent the egg slices from breaking up. Heat and serve on toast, in patty shells, or in a single large dish garnished on top with additional egg slices. Serves 4.
