

[Copyright, 1893, by the Author.]

up at a common lodging-house. They father to me." constituted a traveling show, and, health, and suffered from a severe anything?" cough; but on this particular evening his weary bones in bed, soon after his he lives??" arrival. He complained of feeling very "Grimmy"-or to give him his full to remove him. name, Grimwald, the dog, was not for-

During the night the old man be- lad sobbed piteously. came vary feverish, coughed incessant- "Be a brave lad, Jimmy, and He who night with him.

hard with him.

"Spangles" proceeded:

and that's the truth; for in my time I and to give you a start." gin at the beginning.

the frying-pan into the fire,' for the quently and fondly mingled. new task-master to whom I had been bound had no compassion, and during doctor called again, he was deeply the earlier part of my appren- moved by the intense and unrestrained ticeship used to treat me shamefully grief of the poor lad, who held his dy-

Here the old man seemed exhausted from a fit of coughing, but he rallied omewhat after a dose of his medicine, and he resumed his story.

"Jimmy, my lad," said he, "that baby was you! I promised my darling Annette that I would be both father and mother to you, and I have tried hard to do the best I could for you."

"Oh, dear, dear master," sobbed the poor lad, "you are not going to leave Footsore and weary, one autumn me and Grimmy? Whatever shall we evening, an old man, a lad, and a dog do? You have always been so good and arrived in Wokingham, where they put | kind to us both, and a dear, kind, good

Grimmy, hearing his name menafter performing all day in the streets | tioned, came to the bedside, and sat up of Reading, they had walked over begging, with his shaggy head on one here—a distance of ten or twelve miles. | side, as if trying to say: "I know The old man seemed broken in there's something wrong. Can't I do

"Poor Grimmy!" said "Spangles." he was worse than usual, for he had "You'll be good to him when I'm gone, got a chill, and was glad to lay down | Jimmy, and never part with him while

Grimmy jumped on the bed, and cold and thirsty, and the lad procured licked the old man's hands and face, him some tes, which they both enjoyed. | and it was as much as Jimmy could do

"I will, indeed, be good to him, and gotten, for the trio were inseparable, never part with him, dear master," and soon afterwards they all retired to said Jimmy, "but, oh! what are we to do when you are gone?" And the poor ly, and complained of a pain in his cares for the sparrows will not forget chest, out Jimmy, the lad, did all he either you or Grimmy. Be always could for him, and sat up most of the truthful and honest, however you may be tempted to do otherwise, and In the morning, poor old "Spangles" whatever you find to do, do it with all -a name dear to many children your might. Bear in mind that your throughout England-was no better, mother is an angel Jimmy, and I am and when the doctor was summoned, going to join her at last. In God's and had examined him, he told the good time you, too, will join us; think landlady that he was very ill, suffering how happy we shall all be there; and from an attack of inflammation of the when tempted to do wrong, just think lungs, and that he feared it would go that if you do it you may be prevented from ever coming to us, and God will "Spangles" recognized his own dan- help you to do right. You and I and ger, and calling the lad to him, said: poor Grimmy have played through 'Jimmy, my boy, you've been a good many towns, and tramped for many lad to me, and I fear the show will | miles together; yet we never had an soon be closed forever! Sit thee down angry word, whilst we sought to earn beside me, lad, as I have something to an honest living. Poor old 'Spangles' tell thee," When the lad had sat down, is going to leave you, but life is before you yet, my lad; and although I have The great Mr. Shakespeare says: 'A | not been able to save much, yet you man, during his life, plays many parts,' | will find enough in my bag to bury me have played many parts, and under He then sank back exhausted, and many and divers names; but I will be- while the lad sobbed as if his heart would break Grimmy howled piteous-"My father died when I was only a ly, and sat up begging in all directions.

boy, and my mother married again | During the succeeding night the old some time afterwards, my stepfather man rested more quietly, but had sevbeing an ill-natured, cruel man, who eral severe paroxysms of coughing, of his mission, especially at this time. frozen. There is no snow in most hated and ill-treated me; and, unable which thoroughly exhausted him; he to bear his cruelty any longer, I ran | was also, at times, delirious, when his away from home and joined a traveling mind seemed to be dwelling among earlier memories and bygone scenes in "But I soon found I had gone from which the name of Annette was fre-

On the following morning, when the If I was clumsy or made mis- ing master's hand in his own, whils.

The Hawaiian President Asked to Surrender.

Informed That This Action Is Requested by President Cleveland-Promised Amnesty by the Queen If She Is Restored.

DOLE'S REPLY NOT YET KNOWN. formed that its wishes in regard to the of the islands, and that while President able to the queen.

The message received was cabled from Auckland, to which city it was conveyed by the steamer Alameda, suicides have used this means of killing when court convened for the after-dinwhich sailed from Honolulu December themselves. 22. The information is that the reply | In Toulon it grows colder. In Pariwill be delayed until the case can be mand of the United States.

All this is news to the president and The only obstacle was the decision of in all southern counties. was placed there.

To encompass this difficulty the in- at the mouth of the Thames. rect course in public matters.

a hopeful view of the matter, but does are out, as the river, which not seem to be sanguine of the success provides the generating power, is The government has only informed him parts of the empire and the crops will that it will submit a reply in due time suffer severely. Emperor Francis Joand is now getting it in shape.

Iulu in an article supporting the gov- tense (4 degrees below zero) they were States congress has taken the matter pedition. out of President Cleveland's hands by calling for the papers in the Hawaiian correspondence, and asserts that the In the city Wednesday night the mer-be employed. one who knows of the message received by a hurricane that is blowing that the condition of affairs on the isl- from the north. So fierce is the wind and is daily growing more complicat- vessels are unable to leave or enter cial information of the intention and the streets are almost deserted. of the United States government The tradesmen, seeing no prospect by the newspapers and Minister of doing business in such weather, Thurston's messages, has been have put the shutters upon their to all intents strengthening its store windows and given the forces. The members of the regular clerks a holiday. The theaters were police force have been notified of the closed Wednesday night owing to the probable conflict and their number cold and it is probable they will not greatly augmented. The arms are all open until the weather moderates. The the Americans are at the head of this have been injured. The cold is growforce. The number of men who will ing more intense. Many persons have placed at from 5,000 to 4,000, as it is Dole from other islands are gathering a choking dust. at Honolulu to take part in any defensive action made necessary. The provisional government continues firm. and there seems no feeling on any hand other than that a return to the old order would mean a step backward which must not be taken.

HOWARD SENTENCED.

The Swindler to Serve Nine Years in Prison

JACKSON, Tenn., Jan. 6.-Howard, the foreign claim swindler and clerical deceiver, was sentenced by Judge Hammond to nine years and one month in the Columbus (O.) penitentiary, $1,200 fine and the costs of the two trials, which foot up in the neighborhood of $20,000. A greater part of the day was consumed by the defendant and his associate counsel in arguing the motion for a new trial. The court overruled the motion in an address in which the prisoner was most mercilessly scored. Sentence was then passed, Howard manifesting no emotion. The court said inasmuch as the defendant was an attorney he would be stricken

A LEGISLATOR SHOT.

Farm.

BIRMINGHAM. Ala., Jan. 6.-James Huffman, a member of the state legislature, was shot from ambush while going through a field on his farm near Bessemer Thursday about dusk. It was a rifle bullet and went straight to his heart. Suspicion pointed to a farm hand Huffman had had arrested me, and I have known and loved him stealing. Sheriff Morrow with a posse

NATIONAL BOARD OF TRADE. Twenty-Fourth Annual Session to Open at

Washington January 23. WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.-The national board of trade, composed of delegates from various commercial organizations of the country, will begin its twentyfourth annual session in Washington on the 28d inst. The sessions of this body are devoted to discussions of matters relating to the financial, ordered that the suspension of his pencommercial and transportation systems of the country, with a view to influencing the action of congress thereon by tions of the board.

A HARD WINTER.

Much Suffering and Many Persons Frozen to Death in Europe. PARIS. Jan. 6 -The weather is becoming colder. The river Seine is covered with thick ice. The railway trains arriving in the city are hours be He Will Testify That by the Aid of a hind time, the delay being caused by the water freezing in the feed-pipes of the engine. Many deaths have been caused by the extremely cold weather. A number of Washington, Jan. 6 .- The United old and poor people have been frozen States gov rament has just been in- to death in their miserable lodgings. Others, despairing of finding other regovernment of Hawaii have been con- lief from their sufferings, have killed veyed to the provisional government themselves and several destitute per- duce a reputable witness who would sons have been picked up lifeless in the swear that he had seen Daniel Cough-Dole has promised a reply soon it is streets. An old couple occupying a flat lin, in company with two other men, hardly expected that this will be favor- in the Boulevard Clichy were found riding on a wagon in which was a trunk Auckland Thursday night. dead in one of their rooms. They had at 1:40 o'clock on the morning of ignited a brazier of charcoal and the fumes had killed them. Many of the made at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, a small boat as soon as the cutter was sorts, everything is snowed up. Heavy gone into thoroughly and the conten- snowstorms are reported from Corsica. be fully set forth in answer to the de- with ice and it is feared many vessels will be caught fast.

London, Jan. 6 .- A blizzard prevails the return of the lawyers. the cabinet, but it was not unexpected. simost everywhere in England. In bore positive instructions to Min- shows no signs of rising. At Doking, the deposed monarch that she would Dispatches from North sea and Balposed by President Cleveland but ing. The indications are that the whole would insist upon support after she of northern Europe is affected. A large fleet of vessels is lying weather-bound formation now received is the queen Bennin, Jan. 6.-At 2 o'clock a. m. has informed the minister who trans- the thermometer registered 7 degrees mitted the conditions to the provisional above zero, Fahrenheit. In the surgovernment that she will grant am- rounding country it is hardly above nesty to all those who took zero. In Munich it is 4 depart in the revolution and in sub- grees below zero. In Breslau and sequent acts of the government; Chemnitz 3 degrees below. Four per- Frank Bardeen. At that time the dis- department at Washington. will carry out all contracts since en- sons have been found frozen to death tered into, and will take care of all the in Berlin. Many deaths from the cold business on the basis of which it is now have occurred elsewhere. The public conducted. She agrees, further, to and private refuges in Berlin are overand will be guided by men whose char- exceeds by hundreds the number him. acter will be a guarantee of their cor- of beds. Those without beds are glad to lie in the straw. seph and his suite returned from The Commercial Advertiser of Hono- Murzsteg, where the cold was so inernment declared that the United compelled to give up their shooting ex-

VIENNA. Jan. 6 .- The weather in Austria and Hungary is bitterly cold. provisional government will not retire cury registered 18 degrees below freezfrom power unless compelled to by ing point. The suffering among the force, and says that this is not likely to poor is terrible. The Danube is frozen over from Vienna to Belgrade, Servia. In the same connection it is stated At Trieste the cold is intensified The government, since its unoffi- the port. Traffic of all kinds is stopped at hand, and the most resolute of police returns show fifteen persons fight for the provisional government is been frozen to death. The absence of snow deprives the poor of one of the stated that many of the supporters of usual sources of relief. The wind raises MADRID, Jan. 6 .- The thermometer below zero. Many persons have been frozen to death in the provinces of Burgos and Asturias. Heavy snowstorms are reported throughout the north of Sprin.

BATTLE IN HONDURAS.

City of Choluteca Taken by Storm-One Hundred and Fifty Men Killed.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 6 .- The town of Choluteca has been taken by storm. Gen. Villela made a heroic defense. The loss in killed is said to have been 150 men. Gen. Williams and several other officers were taken prismen were wounded.

Villela retreated on Rancherias, where battle was begun with the vanmerchants.

MAY COST SIX LIVES.

Wet Powder Carelessiy Thrown Into

Stove at Spring Creek, Mo. WEST PLAINS, Mo., Jan. 6 .- Sol Collins, of Spring Creek, sat by an open fireplace with a keg of blasting powder beside him. He threw some of the powder into the fire, thinking it too damp to burn. An explosion blers you.' And I only saw her once promised master he shall never leave a few days ago on a charge of hog- followed, tearing the roof from the house and burning eight persons. and dogs started at once to look for Some saved their lives by jumping into "Never mind, my lad," said the doc- him, but a posse of citizens got ahead a creek which runs close to the house. of him and a lynching is expected if The doctors think Collins, his wife and four children will die.

JUDGE LONG'S PENSION.

Commissioner Lochren Decides That He | Fatal Explosion on the Illinois Drainage Cannot Withold It Longer. WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.-The commissioner of pensions has decided in view of the passage of the act of December 21, 1893, declaring pensions a vested right, that he no longer has the right the contractors. The explosion took to withold the pension of Judge Long. of Michigan, and has accordingly sion be removed. Accident to a Jurist.

McGregor, In., Jan. 6 .- Judge Hatch communicating to it the recommendar of this city, fell from a bridge and broke both legs above the knees.

SAW BIG DAN.

A New and Important Witness Against Coughlin.

Flash Light He Saw the Ex-Detective on the Wagon Containing Cronin's Body.

ANOTHER SENSATION.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8 .- The greatest sensation of the Coughlin trial was caused Friday when the attorneys for the state announced that they would pro-May 5, 1889. This announcement was ner session.

Counsel on both sides and the court of President Dole and his colleagues gueux, among the mildest of winter re- retired to Judge Tuthill's private room, where Frank Bardeen, who is connected with the Bardeen paper works of Ottion of the provisional government will In Antwerp the docks are incumbered sego, Mich., was waiting. An ominous silence pervaded the courtroom. For an messenger to return against a strong hour the spectators and jurors awaited tide.

At 3:30 o'clock Judge Tuthill returned as it is now said that the Corwin London the mercury stands at 24 and to the court-room and announced that the secret examination of the new witister Willis that he should make near which place the duchess of Marl- ness would probably require the entire his demand for the queen's restora- borough has leased an estate, and in afternoon. The jury was dismissed and tion at once and use every means the vicinity of the town there is good court was adjourned until Monday to carry it to a successful termination. sleighing. There is also plenty of snow morning at 10 o'clock. After three hours and a half spent in the examination of Mr. Bardeen the lawyers co side of the bay, and at 1:15 o'clock not accept the throne on the plan pro- tic ports report a furious storm is rag- emerged from Judge Tuthill's private was off Sausalito on her way to Mare-who lives in this city, a dealer in Cath- congress. tion on the common topic.

Capt. Schuettler learned of the exist- ervation, west of San Francisco.

He continued: wagon coming down the street In the moon- denied with strong emphasis at the men on a wagon. They were coming in the direction of the place where I was sitting. When they came close to me I turned on the thirtytwo candle-power lamp which was placed over the doorway. Its rays shone directly on the horse, and seemed to frighten him, as he stopped suddenly. In the wagon was a box that I thought was a tool chest. A man sat on this as he drove the horse. "Just as the light shone full upon the men two of them jumped out of the wagon. One of these I recognized as Dan Coughlin. He ran around on the other side of the wagon so that I only saw him for a moment. I knew Coughlin. For nearly two years I lived within two doors of the East Chicago avenue station, where Coughlin was stationed. The men went on down the street following the wagon.

"Son e time after the murder I read in the papers the account of Coughlin's supposed connection with the crime and the circumstance of the trunk and the disposition the murderers had made of the body. 1 was convinced that it was the murderers I had seen. I told my wife about it, but it made her very registers 5 degrees below zero. Centi- nervous and she begged me not to say anything grade, here. Elsewhere it is 12 degrees about it. I promised her I wouldn't, and then I did not wish the notoriety which I knew inevitably would come. So I did not testify at the trial. Coughlin the search for Mr. Bardeen | the French territory. was begun. Clew after clew was run down, only to find that the wrong man oners in the engagement and many had been traced. Capt. Schuettler did Thirty Men Killed in One City and Ten in not give up, but obstinately stuck to the search.

has been ordered to await a Honduran | there came a rumor to the ears of having 9,000 inhabitants. The disrelative of his. He has full charge of ties to quell the disturbance. two mills. Capt. Schuettler left for Otsego, Mich., a week ago. He met Mr. Bardeen at his residence, and after much persuasion prevailed upon him to Lavoratori, which wound up in a concome to Chicago and testify.

Joseph McLaughlin, brother of Mrs. Andrew Foy, will be a witness against Dan Coughlin for the murder of Dr. Cronin. He sailed from Glasgow December 30.

KILLED BY DYNAMITE.

LEMONT, Ill., Jan. 8 .- Friday morning there was an exposion of dynamite on section 10 of the drainage canal, on which E. D. Smith & Co. are place in a little house where laborers heat dynamite. It is not known how the explosion occurred, as no one was near the house. Foreman J. L. Miller was killed and Engineer Ben Bich was seriously injured. These two were in the engine house about 20 feet from the heating but.

THE CORWIN IS BACK. She Brings News from Hawali, But It Is

Kent a Secret. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8 .- The United States revenue cutter Corwin, which left for Honolulu early in December with important instructions for Minister Willis and which has been expected here for a week past, was sighted 8 miles outside the heads at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning. The exact date upon which the Corwin left Honolulu is not known yet, but unless there were special efforts to make a fast run it is probable she has been at least twelve days on the voyage, which would make the date of her departure December 24, only two days later than the advices received from

The regular messenger of the Merchants' Exchange, who had put off in sighted, made an attempt to board her at the entrance to the harbor. Capt. Munger, of the Corwin, shouted to him roughly from the bridge, and not only refused to give him any information but also refused to permit his boat to tie alongside the cutter, leaving the

The small revenue tug Hartley started after the Corwin as soon as she entered the harbor and went alongside the cutter and offered her services. Capt. Munger informed the commander of the Hartley that there was no service he could perform for him, and refused to allow anyone aboard.

The Corwin avoided the San Francisisland navy yard, 30 miles away. An In March, 1890, two months after officer, presumably having govern-Dan Coughlin, Martin Burke and Pat- mental dispatches, was landed in a rick O'Sullivan were taken to Joliet, small boat near Presidio military resence of a witness who could testify that | It is believed here that the Corwin he had seen Coughlin, whom he knew Brought the answer of the provisional quite well, in Edgewater on the night government to Minister Willis' demand of the murder in company with two for surrender. The reply is undoubtmen. The name of this witness was edly already in the hands of the state covery was not considered important Washington, Jan. 8.-Cipher disand was not pursued. When Coughlin patches have been received by Secreapplied for a new trial, however, Capt. tary Gresham from the Corwin. He Schuettler saw the value of Bardeen's will not reveal their contents. The govern strictly under the constitution crowded. The number of applicants story and began an active search for belief in Washington is that the vessel brought information that the status It was in a roundabout way that Bar- quo was still maintained, but the greatdeen's knowledge came to the ears of est interest is to learn how the queen Minister Willis, it is said here, takes The electric lights in Nuremberg the police. He was traveling on a received the news that the Cleveland Puliman sleeper between St. Louis and administration had done all it could Chicago in February, 1890. On the car for her restoration and was under the with him was William McLaughlin, necessity of turning her case over to

> olic books. At that time the whole | The state department was not incountry was talking about the Cronin clined to credit the statements as to trial, and McLaughlin had a conversa- Minister Willis' actions at Honolulu contained in the cable dispatches from "I would have been a valuable wit- Auckland received by the Associated ness for the state," said Mr. Bardeen. Press Thursday. Such action, it was The assertion aroused the curiosity said, was totally contrary to the inof Mr. McLaughlin. When questioned structions sent to Mr. Willis by the Mr. Bardeen said that he was at the Corwin and received by him December Edgewater electric light plant at about 11. That he could have writ-2 o'clock on the night of the murder. ten to the provisional government. after he received those instructions re-'I was sitting on the steps when I heard a questing that they surrender office was state department, and the expression in the president's message in this connection were pointed to as refuting the statement. The setting affoat of such a report in Honolulu was attributed to a malign purpose to impugn the good faith of the presiden t.

BRITISH SOLDIERS SLAIN.

A Captain and Twenty-Six Men Killed by French Troops in Africa.

LONDON, Jan. 8 .- Military and political circles are excited by a sensational report which reached here from Sierra Leone, Senegambia, the British colonial settlement of west Africa. According to the reports Capt. E. A. W. Landy, inspector general of the frontier police, and twentysix men and several officers of the First battalion of a West Indian regiment, who were engaged in an expedition against the Sofas, have been killed, and it is added that they were shot by French troops. It is also reported that At this time Mr. Bardeen thought a French officer engaged in the attack that the celebrated Cronin case had was captured, and that this confirms passed out of the courts and had ended | the story that the British force was with the confinement of the convicted | destroyed by the French troops. The men in prison. When Mr. McLaughlin affair has caused the greatest excitearrived in Chicago he told a friend the ment: no further details have as yet singular circumstance related in Mr. been received. The expedition started Bardeen's story. This friend told it to g few weeks ago to chastise the Sofas, Capt. Schuettler. So when it came who have been giving much trouble totime to prepare for a new trial for the British traders on the coast near

RIOTS IN SICILY.

Another. ROME, Jan. 8. - A dispatch has reached. The utmost secrecy veiled every step Naples from the correspondent of guard of the invaders, who hourly ex- in the hunt for Bardeen. It was Neapolitan paper at Palermo announcepected reinforcements. Gen. Ortiz, thought that the defense knew nothing ing a most serious riot at Marino, 11 commanding the Nicaraguan forces, of such a witness. One day last month miles southeast of Palermo, a town attack, and if made immediately to is- Attorney Bottum that a much wanted patch says that a body of riotvade their country. The government Frank Bardeen was a brother of ers who were demanding the abhas levied a forced loan of $350,000 on Circuit Judge C. T. Bardeen, of olition of the octroi duties in the Wausau, Wis The clew was fol- manner now familiar through the dislowed out; the web was untangled, and | turbances in Sicily made an attack on-Frank Bardeen was found at Otsego, the town hall which resulted in thirty Mich. He was working at that place of the rioters being killed and fifty as chief engineer of the Bardeen wounded by the troops, which were paper works, which are owned by a called upon by the municipal authori-

> A dispatch from Caltinesette says: that there was a demonstration there under the auspices of the Fasci dei flict between the troops and the peasants. One of the soldiers was wounded by a peasant, and when this was learned the troops fired a volley intothe crowd of rioters and killed ten and wounded several others.

CHEROKEE STRIP BONDS SOLD

The Astor Family Buys the Entire Issue

In Chicago for $6,740,000. CHICAGO, Jan. 8.-R. T. Wilson & Co., of New York city, as agents for the Astor family, have brought. through J. C. McElroy & Co. of Chicago, the entire issue of United States bonds known as the Cherokee strip bonds. The bonds only bear 4 per cent interest, and all of them mature inside of five years. The amount of the issue is $6.620,000, and the Astors take them on a bid of $6,740,000.

hind, saying: 'Dear Jim-you are too good to me. I have gone to him! God "I didn't blame the poor wench, for all my life." she was little better than a child, but I felt her absence cruelly, and I don't

me and 'Sig. Lupino, the Matchless

Bareback Rider, although she finally consented to become mine - deserted me one morning and left a note be-

business.

although I have tried to do my duty. one sort or another, all over England, reg'lar dramas but it was just about with Jimmy and his dog. twelve or thirteen years ago, when I she was ill; and I, thinking of nothing | men what you can do! Good dog! but of seeing her again, went at once. And even as the doctor, the lad and but only to find that he had been killed Grimmy stood round him, he stretched she was dying after giving birth to a en asleep; but the soul of poor "Spanbaby boy."

GRIMMY SAT UP BEGGING.

moved in blessing.

takes when learning the acrobatic the lips of the poor old man were feebly "In a few years, however, I became Even the faithful dog seemed to feel 'Alva, the Flying Wonder;' then a that he was losing a dear friend, for member of 'The Illustrious Schmidt he was restless and uneasy, sat up beg-Family,' then an 'acrobatic clown, and ging all over the room, and had refused

finally a ring-master, during which lat- to eat since his master's illness. ter period I became devotedly attached The doctor, however, spoke kindly to to 'Mile. Annette, the Daring Eques- the lad, and when the weeping youth from the roll of the bar. trienne,' and we ultimately got mar- said: "My dear master was the only ried and left the circus business alto- friend I had in the world," he cheered him up by saying that he must not A Prominent Alabaman Killed on His "My happiness, however, was short- give way, as the future was before him, lived, for my poor young wife-who and as he had been a good boy God had wavered in her affections between | would not forsake him. "In fact," he added, "a friend of my own is seeking such a youth as you, and I shall not fail to recommend you to him." "Oh! thank you, sir," said Jimmy, 'you are very kind, but I dare not be parted from dear Grimmy, as I have tor, "we must find some place for you think I have ever been the same since, where the doggie can go too; so don't the suspect is captured.

grieve." "The greater part of my life was af- ! Poor old "Spangles" was fast passing terwards spent in traveling shows, of away, and could now scarcely be said to be conscious; but it was affecting to and for some years I was with a stroll- hear him, as in his delirium he imagined ing company of actors who did the he was going through his performance

"Houp-la! Houp-la!" he muttered. was about fift, and my poor wife was "Over! over !! over!!! Well done, sir! about thirty-are, that she sent me a Good lad! Now Mr. Grimaldi! steady, letter, begging me to come to her, as old boy! Show the ladies and gentle-by a horse three months ago, and that himself out and appeared to have fallgles" had vaulted into Heaven!