COUNTY COURT.
Mr. M. Dietz and Miss Maggie Bastian, both from the vicinity of Elmwood, were granted a permit to commit matrimony by Judge Ramsey Saturday.

Petition for the admission to probate of the will of the late George Frank and for the appointment of Peter J. Hansen and Mrs. Frank as executor and executrix for the estate, was filed with County Judge Ramsey Tuesday. The estate is worth in the neighborhood of $2,500.

JUSTICE ARCHER'S COURT.
A complaint has been filed against "Bud" Green, the young man who attempted to stab Rev. L. C. Parker at Greenwood on Friday of last week. Young Green is a son of John S. Green and on Tuesday father and son came to Plattsmouth and appeared before Judge Archer in answer to the charge. The case will be tried on Monday next.

The two cases of the State vs. Bert Bay were dismissed in Judge Archer's court on Saturday afternoon. After listening to the evidence on the charge of malicious destruction of property which offense consisted of killing a dog belonging to Wm. Coffman—the judge dismissed the case, and the county attorney caused the charge of carrying concealed weapons to be dismissed.

The May Mortgage Record.
Cass county's mortgage record for May speaks volumes for the general welfare and prosperity of its citizens. It shows that while her people go in debt, they have the money to redeem their pledges, dollar for dollar. Here is the record as compiled at the court house today: Farm property—filed, $35,152.61; released, $46,319.71. Town property—filed, $10,519.91; satisfied, $22,541.02. Chattel mortgages—filed, $15,542.48; satisfied, $17,934.07. A decrease in the mortgage debt in one month of over $25,000 shows that Cass county people are making money, despite the senseless howl about depression, hard times, etc. A general handshake is in order.

The police were notified by the authorities at Louisville Monday to look out for two men who were coming down the Platte river in a boat, who were suspected of being the parties who burglarized Pankonin's hardware store on Sunday morning. The two men and boat put in at this port late yesterday afternoon and were promptly overhauled, but none of the stolen property was found aboard their craft. They were not placed under arrest, but gave their boat away to a pair of boys and returned to Louisville to find out if the authorities wanted them.

Does your gasoline burn well? If it don't, try Gering & Co., for the next lot.

The state supreme court was in session at Lincoln Tuesday and handed down the usual grist of decisions, but the Fitch habeas corpus case, in which all Cass county seems interested, was not on the list. The court will sit for several days further, and in the meantime the people hereabouts will earnestly hope that some action will be taken in the matter.

Don't pay big prices to traveling opticians for a pair of spectacles, but try Gering & Co.

The little four-year-old daughter of Henry Eichel, of Avoca, this county, strayed away from home recently, and twenty men were soon scouring the timber southeast of that town for her. She was tracked to the county line, two miles south, thence east four miles, and had then turned north until she came to the creek, where she was found at ten o'clock, fast asleep in the timber.

WANTED—100 men, wages, good health to try Gering's German Liver Pills.

Telegraph advices from Ogallala are to the effect that the south fork of the Platte river is so high that the water has spread out over a half mile on both banks. The flood came Tuesday, while a day previous the river bed was completely dry. In that event the "big muddy" will soon make things fairly hum when in its present "bender." It is fed by a flood from the Platte's mouth just above town.

All spectacles sold subject to a week's trial, and if not satisfactory can be returned at Gering & Co.'s.

Farmers from the central and southern parts of the county who were in town Tuesday report that enough rain fell Monday night to live up growing crops to quite an extent. Corn in particular looks good and even if small grain proves a failure, the prospects for a good yield of the yellow cereal makes the farmer feel jubilant after all.

Gering & Co. guarantee a fit in spectacles or no sale at the very lowest prices.
