

IN AND AROUND THE TOWN.

J. M. Stone of Nehawka was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday.

Wm. Wettenkamp of the precinct is seriously ill with liver trouble.

John Murphy, one of Center precinct's best known farmers, was a Plattsmouth visitor Friday and called at these headquarters.

Fred Lyon and Paul Giger of Glenwood, Iowa, came over on their "bikes" Sunday and made a short visit with the family of C. W. Sherman.

Peter J. Vallery has an industrious hen. She has hatched and brought out a half dozen chickens a day or two ago—in mid-winter. She hid her nest under a coal pile.

G. A. Mayfield former publisher of the Eagle Eaglet, was in town Monday on business. George has sold his plant in Missouri and is now looking for another location.—Elmwood Echo.

The mortgage sale of the remnants of the Herald newspaper plant by Mr. Knotts, was booked to occur Thursday, but on account of a lack of bidders the proceeding was adjourned until Jan. 26.

Lawyer A. N. Sullivan journeyed to Lincoln on Tuesday to argue the defendant's side in the appeal case of Father Corbett vs Bishop Bonacum before the supreme court.

Andrew Nelson, Swan Monson, Gust Nollin and Herman Anderson, four of Plattsmouth's Swedish citizens, have returned from Montana, where they have been building bridges on the B. & M. extension, for the past several months.

Will Myers, who has appointed to the clerkship of the senate committee of public lands and buildings, of which Mr. Tefft of this county is chairman, departed for the state capital Monday morning to enter upon the fulfillment of his duties.

Out at Hastings a butcher has been arrested on the charge of selling hogs which had previously died of cholera. If the charge is proven, the fellow deserves no small punishment. There is little honor in a butcher who would thus jeopardize the lives of his customers.

Mayor Newell journeyed to Lincoln Tuesday to attend a session of mayors and city attorneys representing the second-class cities in Nebraska, the object of the meeting being to perfect plans for seeking relief from present onerous laws at the hands of the state legislature.

Lanson Anderson, who died at his home in this city Wednesday, was born in Denmark, New York, Jan. 29, 1814, and was thus aged eighty years, eleven months and nine days. The funeral services were held Thursday and were conducted by Rev. P. Van Fleet at his home on Fourteenth and Oak streets.

A party of some twenty couples of old neighbors and friends, both in and out of town, invaded the mansion of Henry Eikenberry Thursday night and surprised him with tokens of esteem on the occasion of his 60th birthday. It was a pleasant gathering, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The numerous penurious fiends about the town are urging that a tournament be arranged to occur in some lodge hall in the city. No game of cards has ever been more popular in Plattsmouth than penurie, and if proper arrangements can be perfected the affair would call out dozens of players.

The Livingston Loan and Building association will issue its thirteenth series of stock next month, and Henry Gering, the hustling secretary, has already disposed of stock to the amount of $25,000. Plattsmouth people are evidently well enough satisfied with the local associations and have had their fill on most of the foreign fakes.

An experienced hunter says: "A curious thing about a rabbit is that it always faces the sun turning slowly around all day to do so. In hunting them in fields this fact should be kept in mind and the ground be gone over by the hunter with his back to the sun. He can then see the eyes of the rabbits in the bushes and they will glitter like diamonds in the sunlight."

Out near Bay Springs, this state, one Fred Patrick was seriously injured Thursday while blasting rock with dynamite. He placed the charge ready with fuse and stepped away, but the fuse burned slowly and he returned to relight it, supposing it had gone out, when the charge exploded, tearing his arms off and shattering one leg. He cannot recover.

A. B. Pirie, master mechanic for the B. & M.'s southern division, with headquarters at Wymore, and Messrs. F. J. Kramer of Alliance, C. A. Dixon of McCook and C. W. Hedges of Lincoln, the latter three travelling engineers on the same system, were in town Friday attending the regular monthly meeting of travelling engineers at the office of Mr. Hawksworth, superintendent of motive power.

A strange crazy man drifted into town Monday night. He walked down from Omaha and, although he was extremely peaceable in his actions, the officers housed him in jail over night. It was learned that the fellow was the son-in-law of Alex. Powell, a well-known resident of the Iowa bottoms. The father-in-law was apprised of the situation and came over next morning and took the man to his home.

Will H. Miller of Riverside, Cal., formerly of this city, has just received the appointment of deputy clerk of Riverside county, and has entered on the duties of his office. He is unquestionably a capable man for the place, and is an agreeable, accommodating gentleman. THE JOURNAL joins his host of Plattsmouth friends in their congratulations at his promotion.

Owen Marshall, one of the best-known farmers in Western Cass county, has leased his farm lands and taken his departure for his old home in Ohio where he will take up his permanent place of abode. Mr. Marshall came to Cass county in the early '60's, and was a candidate on the greenback ticket for sheriff in the campaign of '73 when Martin Cutler of Greenwood precinct was elected to that office.

D. M. Jones, who has been superintending the storing of ice at the Poissal ice houses on Seventh street, sustained a rather painful injury to his hip on Tuesday. He was engaged in moving a chute, when a long spike, which protruded from one of the timbers in the chute, thrust itself into the fleshy part of his hip, cutting a deep gash some three inches long. Mr. Jones will take a vacation for a few days as a result of his accident.

Jno. Denson, jailor at the county edifice on Pearl street, thought he had nabbed a burglar. Jack officiates as guard at the jail during the night season and at about 12 o'clock a. m. Saturday he heard sounds as if some one was slowly walking up the steps which lead up from the outside of the jail to the second story, where the jailor's family lives. Jack's first impression was that the stranger was a burglar, but when he rushed outside he found it was only an intoxicated resident of the Iowa bottoms who was deliberately trying to break into jail through fear of freezing if he attempted to cross the river on the ice to reach his home. Jack turned the Bethlehemite over to Officer Murray and the fellow passed the night at police headquarters.

Deafness Cannot be Cured By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.

Constable Bartram took a long trip down to the Cass county line the other day to make service of a man who had a note. There were reasons for getting service quickly and good service. Bartram reached the man's place and was informed that the man was down at the barn milking. He went to the barn and served his summons and came home satisfied that he had made a good job of it, but he was chagrined some days later to learn that he had gone a little far, for while the man's horse was in this county, his barn was in Cass county, and the service was therefore no good.—Lincoln News.

The Nebraska City National bank is after a pair of Lincoln grain merchants named Kendall who represented that they possessed several elevators brim full of grain, and on producing warehouse receipts to back their tale the bank let them have $10,000. It has now transpired that their story was all myth and the elevators existed only in their minds. Unless the Kendalls make good the $10,000, the bank people are resolved to send them to the pen.
