

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Judge Ramsey departed for the south yesterday.

J. H. Haldeman of Weeping Water was in the city yesterday.

Lawrence Stull was viewing the sights in the metropolis yesterday.

Paul Gering is confined to his home with an attack of rheumatic gout.

Chas. Graves, editor of the Union Ledger, was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

Solomon Long of Rock Bluffs was testing the local market with a load of vegetables Saturday.

Dr. Butler of Weeping Water and Oscar Baer of Nehawka were court house visitors today.

The county treasurer dropped into the county seat today to see how his office was getting along.

Ed. Fitzgerald is supposed to be out in the county trying to stem the tide that has set in against Holloway.

James Walker of Murray was a Plattsmouth visitor Saturday, and talking about everything but politics.

Patrick Campbell, who was operated upon last Friday for strangulated hernia, is reported to be getting along nicely.

E. J. Mathis of Greenwood, H. M. Brissay of Union and H. T. Richards of Wabash were court house visitors Friday.

Bishop Bonacum of Lincoln was in town over night visiting with Father Carney. He returned home yesterday morning.

Wm. R. Cross and Emma C. Frans, both residents of Cass county, have been granted a license to wed by Judge Ramsey.

J. M. Stone of Nehawka was in town Tuesday and gives very encouraging reports as to the position of affairs from a democratic standpoint.

W. C. Showalter of David City, Neb., ex-clerk of the district court of Cass county is visiting in the city and shaking hands with old friends.

Miss Eupheme Robbins is reported to still be in a quite critical condition, and her physicians expect a change for better or worse about tomorrow.

Friday morning's papers chronicled the fact that Ex-Senator Van Wyck died Thursday afternoon of apoplexy, with which he was stricken Monday.

The county treasurer dropped into town Friday to see how his office was getting on. He found it where he left it a few weeks ago, as near as he can estimate.

A great deal of new corn is being brought in now days, a large portion of it being from across the river. It sells for from fifteen to twenty cents a bushel.

A very handsome monument was erected Thursday by Miss Maggie O'Rourke, over the graves of her father and mother. The stone was furnished by Henry Tartsch.

There is a rumor that Bob Troop and Valentine Egenberger sr., are to buy out the Claus Brekenfeld hardware store. Hope it's true. They would make a strong team.

Ex-sheriff Rube Myers has been in the west part of the county putting in his best ticks for Chapman, and he says he don't give a d— for any of the rest of the ticket.

Frank Dickson departed this morning for a trip over the county, during the course of which he will distribute the sample ballots throughout the precincts, as required by law.

Hon. John A. Davies is understood to be out in the county doing some fruitless work among his pop friends in the interest of Judge Chapman. No use, John, he's a gone goshing.

Herman Streitweiser has a variety of onions called the Surprise of which he raised this year 100 bushels on a quarter of an acre of ground. Is there anybody in this vicinity can beat that?

Mrs. Wiley, widow of the late Dr. Wiley, has made application to court for an injunction restraining her son Ed C. Wiley from taking and carrying away the corn and oats from her premises, to which he has no rightful claim. In her petition Mrs. Wiley claims that she is restrained by filial affection from arresting her son for theft.

Take on the Horse!

The undersigned is now ready, with a good portable chute and tools to remove the weapons of horned cattle at ten cents a head. If those who wish to have such work done will address me at Rock Bluffs, Neb., they will be promptly answered.

Attention is called to the Poland-China hog sale advertised to come off on Saturday of next week—Nov. 9—at the home of Geo. J. Mulertz, 4 miles west of South Bend. Mr. Mulertz has a most excellent strain of these best-of-all hogs, and deserves to have his sale well patronized.

The repairs on J. V. Egenberger's store are rapidly nearing completion and J. V. will have one of the neatest store rooms in the city.

WHERE ARE THEY AT?

The sudden conversion of the Weeping Water Republican this week from a mild, meek and harmless sheet to a roaring, tearing, rampant Chapman organ is a remarkable metamorphosis, and has caused considerable comment. What is it, Brother Keithley, that has caused this upheaval? Answer out in school and let us in on the ground floor! Was it boodle that caused your columns to reek with abuse of the opponents of Chapman, while a deep and profound silence pervades its columns as to the balance of the ticket? Alas, for human depravity, that the tenuous chink of the "honest dollar" should have such a debasing effect on the moral tone of the Republican! May the good Lord have mercy on your poor, weak soul!

Evidently the channel by which this change was brought about was Hon. (?) John A. Davies, whose pen scratches are visible in almost every paragraph. This is apparent by the effort made to show that Judge Ramsey has tied up with the Poiks. This is the baldest of campaign lies, and is told to influence next year's campaign.

Never fear, Mr. Davies; the democrats will tan Poik's hide neatly next year, and yours, too, and don't let that escape your remembrance! The Poiks are not running the democratic campaign, any more than are Davies, Chapman & Co., and they know how lamentably they failed to do that.

The Republican says Ramsey never had a case go to the supreme court to have it reversed. As a matter of fact quite a number of cases, originating in county court, went on appeal through the district court, where Judge Ramsey was reversed, to the supreme court where he was sustained and Judge Chapman's decisions were reversed.

Again, the Republican represented that the Poiks are opposing Houseworth and favoring Dearing. The opposite is true. They are fighting Dearing bitterly.

The Republican's subsidized slings at the democrats can have only one effect: to show that Chapman, Davies, the Poiks and Sullivan are fighting each other, and no sensible man will be effected on either side of their controversy.

As to Russell, poor fellow, he is not worth minding.

If Ramsey is such great pumpkins why has there been so many cases brought out of his court to Otoe county on a change of venue? And if he has carried Cass county against such great odds why does he concede that county to Judge Chapman by 400? Ramsey won't be in it.—Nebraska City Press.

Say, Bro. Brown; when you start out to misrepresent, wouldn't it pay better to make statements that are not known to be untrue? No cases have been taken from Judge Ramsey's court to Otoe county. Furthermore the supreme court has decided that cases can not be taken from one county court to another, and they cannot even be taken to a justice court from the county court except by consent of the parties, or vice versa. The Press ought to know all these things. If it does not, its ignorance is excusable. A sillier little lie was never invented—unless it be the last statement of the above paragraph, which is a lie out of whole cloth. THE JOURNAL is authorized to say that Mr. Ramsey never made such an admission, but that he expects to carry Cass county by a good majority.

PEOPLE in the third commissioner district will not be apt to forget Mr. Hayes' action wherein C. H. Parmele was given the use of the county funds in 1894 at four per cent in spite of the fact that the First National bank at Greenwood had offered six per cent and put up a good and sufficient bond as security for the same. By that transaction the county lost two per cent interest on an average of $40,000 during the year, amounting to $800, at least, and Mr. Hayes was clearly responsible for that loss, because Mr. Dutton would not have made the contract had Hayes not agreed to it and Mr. Young was known to be opposed to the deal. That fact alone should defeat Mr. Hayes for re-election.

JUDGE SULLIVAN is a smart politician and when he gives anything up on his side, as he has in the case of the sheriff's fight, one may be sure there is something in it.

Dr. Dearing is a poor man himself, but if there is a poor family in this town that he has not helped, it is because their wants were unknown to him.

The democrats have, by universal acknowledgement, the best county ticket in the field. Now, if they will all pull together, they can win sure.

Judge Sullivan has admitted that Holloway's chances for election are getting shinner every day.

WHY IS THIS?

The presence of A. C. Wright in this city at the present should cause the people of this town to think a little. Why is this man Wright here? It is because he desires to visit his old time friends and acquaintances or is it because Sam M. Chapman discovers he is defeated and has to import fine workers to save himself? Which? This fellow Wright has long been identified with the state house ring at Lincoln. He has made an odorous reputation as a political trickster and smooth man. In the palmy days of the Lincoln ring Wright was a great hanger-on. He has never been known to break away from the public crib and is one of the festering leeches upon the taxpayers of this state. He is supposed to be a public servant, but instead is a public tool veering with each passing wind and always to be relied upon to show up when work is needed to save a republican ringster from defeat. In the past, say three years ago, Wright invaded Cass county hot on the trail of Bryan. Like many another he was misled by appearances and imagined that Cass county was the scene of battle instead of Richardson, Pawnee and Nemaha—so he came. Valiant Wright, soft voiced and tuneful as the lyre, you wrote Field upon the sands of Cass county. In the voice of the wind sweeping from the parching prairies of Kansas you heard Field crooned as a lullaby to your slumbers but in the drear autumn when the wind whistled cold and the sands were covered with the storm mantle of old winter, Field was buried with the past and Bryan was triumphant. So will it be this time. Melodious as the tuneful voice may be it will turn to tones of sorrow when on November 5 the voters of Cass and Otoe counties will turn your idol to the wall and in place of Chapman you will read Ramsey.

The Press says: "All the republican lawyers of Otoe county are supporting the re-election of Judge Chapman." Will the Press please name a single republican lawyer, outside of J. C. Watson, who has not openly and above board proclaimed himself as against Chapman? Have they not refused to go out and hold joint meetings with him? Have they not openly, on the streets, said that they could not practice law in his court? Name a republican lawyer who is supporting him, and The News promises to quote what these same lawyers had to say about him less than ten days ago. They are all fighting him, and hard, at that.—Nebraska City News.

THE News of last Tuesday had an absurd paragraph intimating that C. C. Parmele is to be appointed deputy treasurer under Mr. Tritzsch. The News should invent a more likely story than that, if it goes into that business. Mr. Parmele says he would hardly accept a deputyship when he could have had the nomination for treasurer by saying that he would take it—and with Mr. Tritzsch's full consent, too.

MICHAEL ARCHER is one of the pioneers of Cass county and has always borne an unsullied reputation. Of late years while acting as police judge and justice of the peace, he has studied law, has been admitted to the bar, and has fitted himself well for the duties of county judge. Those who vote for him will make no mistake.

"If I could get an allowance of $1,000 fees for doing $50 worth of work" said a republican lawyer recently, "I would be apt to remember my beneficiary also." That may account for the activity of a certain attorney in this campaign.
