A New Saloon.

He handles the celebrated Fred Krug beer, bottled and on draught. His whiskies are clear as crystal and tickle the palate with the velvety softness of oil of Cinnamon. And when it comes to wines, gins, brandies and cordials the connoisseur need search no further. In the art of mixing drinks Mr. Thompson is a past master. Sparkling cocktails, delicious gin fizzes, invigorating sherry flips, real Kentucky mint juleps, mint mashes, cremes de menthe—he makes them all with a skill that should at once and forever assure the success of his place in this city.
 Billy Neville who is one of our handiest men behind the bar does the opposite trick to Thompson in the place in front of the rows of shining glasses and decanters. Tables and chairs and a well lighted, cool and airy room offer a standing invitation to the tired and thirsty wayfarer to enter and take his comfort within.
