Spain Sc Far Forgets Her Chastisement as to Encourage Trade.

COUNTRY IN GENERAL PROGRESSES

Reawakening and Regeneration Seems to Be About to Follow the General Shaking Up and Readjustment that the War Brought About.

WASHINGTON, June 27 .- In spite of the discriminating tariff, the outlook for United States trade in Spain is hopeful, according to Consul General Lay at Barcelona, in a report which makes up the greater part of the latest extract from "Commercial Relations, made public by the bureau of foreign relations, State depart-

Since the old trade treaty was cancelled with Spain no new compact has been effected to take its place and hence Spain is obliged to impose maximum tariff duties on American goods, which amount to discriminatory rates. However, it is thought that the efforts of Mr. Storer, as minister to Spain, will soon bear fruit and that mutually satisfactory trade relations between the two countries will be established. In spite of the drawbacks, American goods at elevated prices find ready sale in Spain and any feeling against the United States as a nation engendered by the late war is fast disappearing.

Consul Brown, at Carthagena, states that he had hundreds of applications during the past year from young Spaniards who are desirous of settling in Cuba. He also says it is a positive fact that Spain, with the burden of past reverses still partly upon it, is advancing with slow but steady strides on the road to prosperity The poorer classes are getting higher wages. all classes pay more taxes and have more money to pay them with and the entire regeneration of the country has begun with commendable vim.

CARS PILE IN HEAP.

Culvert Near Peru, Ind., Gives Way Under Wabash Limited.

PERU, Ind., June 27.-Thirteen persons were killed and about fifty were seriously injured in a wreck of train No. 3, the westbound Wabash limited nine miles west of this city, at 12:30 a. m. today. The dead are mostly Italian emigrants, en route to Colorado. Many of the injured undoubtedly will die.

Two sections of train No. 3, one coming from Detroit and the other from Toledo, were consclidated in this city into a train of eleven cars, making up the flyer for its journey to St. Louis. It consisted of a combination baggage and express, combination baggage and smoker, day coach, emigrant coach, three chair cars, three sleepers, and the private car of General Superintendent William Cotter, Iron Mountain railway. Having left this city one hour late, the train was speeding westward at a high rate, when at a point nine miles west the engine plunged through a trestle which had been undermined by the recent heavy rains.

The embankment on both sides of the little stream dropped at a sharp degree a distance of forty feet. Owing to the momentum of the train the engine appeared to leap nearly across the abyss, plunged into the soft earth on the opposite side and fell back to the bottom. Engineer Butler and Fireman Adams were thrown from the cab, but not seriously hurt. The express car and the first chair car were telescoped. The emigrant car, followed by two chair cars, went down on the left side of the track and the first sleeper pitched forward upon the mass of debris. Its windows and trucks were broken, but none of the occupants were injured. The remaining cars also left their trucks, but were not badly damaged. It was in the emigrant and day coaches that most of the death and injuries occurred. Heavy foliage lined the banks on both sides of the culvert, the approach to which was over a "reverse curve."

One cyclone in particular had made a deep impression. "Eight or nine years ago we had an old-fashioned twister in Nelson and the freaks it performed were wonderful to behold," said he. "That cyclone was almost human in its intelligence, judging from some of the things it did. Several incidents happened which knocked out completely the Dorchester tornado story. In the north part of town there lived an invalid who had not walked a step for five years. She was asleep when the storm came on her house and directly in the path of the cyclone. Well, sir, that storm picked her up so gently that her somnolent senses were deluded into the belief that she was making a quick voyage in an airship. Her bed satled gracefully through the air for almost a mile, the invalid smiling in her dreams. Then she was gently deposited between two straw stacks upon wasn't the wonderful part about it. Down in town Warren Knapp runs a stead. soda water fountain. That cyclone whisked around his store pretty lively and in the general confusion mixed an ice cream soda, flavored it with pineapple syrup and carried it to the bedside of the invalid. By her pillow it descended with a gentle thud and she awoke to find two long straws, carefully selected from the farmer's straw pile, protruding from the glass. An hour later the invalid was rescued and taken to the home of a neighbor. The soda water glass was donated to the museum of the local High school."

MUST PAY BY JULY 1ST.

Of Interest to Land Purchasers in Otoe and Missouri Reservations.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 24.-The settlers on the Otoe and Missouri Indian reservation lands in Gage county and also across the line in Kansas will be interested in the following dispatch from Washington:

The purchasers of lands in the Otoe to make final settlement of their accounts with the government by July 1. The time, under the law, expired a year ago, but a year's grace was allowed so as to bring the matter to a final close without hardship. Some of the settlers have recently been informed that they could secure a further reduction in the price to be paid for the lands by giving their cases into the hands of certain attorneys. It is understood that a number of settlers were almost coerced into consenting to join with others in an attempt to secure further concessions. The copy of a letter purporting to have been sent by an attorney named Van Arsdale, of Cheyenne, Wyo., to settlers on the reservation was transmitted to Washington, and the department immediately wired him to know if he had written such letters. He replied that he had not and could not understand how his name was used; that he had acted as attorney for the settlers and advised them that the time for final settlement would expire on July 1, and that there would be no further grace. It is evident that settlers are being misled, and it is possible that those who fall into the snare will forfeit their lands.

Life Sentence for a Lad.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 24.-According to decision of the supreme court, Ernest Bush, the 16-year-old boy who was convicted of murdering Silas Bailey near Benkelman on February 7. 1899, will have to serve his life sentence unless executive clemency comes to him. The chief objection raised by the defendant to the decision of the lower court was that the evidence did not justify conviction. THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations from South Omaha and Kansas City. SOUTH OMAHA.

Cattle-There was a fairly liberal run of cattle and as reports from other points were none too favorable packers started in here to pound the market. There were a good many good to choice beef steers and on such grades the market did not show much change from yesterday. Packers were all willing to buy the cattle showing both weight and quality and those kinds could be quoted just about steady. The lighter weights and commoner kinds, however, were very slow sale and in most cases lower. Buyers started in bidding fully a dime lower and in some cases more, but sellers did not cut loose at those figures and in most cases they did not have to take off more than a nickel from yesterday's prices, and in extreme cases perhaps a dime. The made. There were only a few cows and helfers in the yards today and they soid brought steady prices today if they were good, but the common kinds were slow and weak. Veal calves could be quoted steady, and so also could stags where the quality was satisfactory.

Hogs-There was not a heavy run of hogs, and as the demand on the part of local packers was in good shape the They had two $20 gold pieces in a market opened fairly active and about 712c higher. The bulk of the hogs sold at $5.971/2 and $6.00, with some of the choicer loads going at $6.021/2 to $6.071/2. The lightweights sold from $5.97% down. By the time about two-thirds of the hogs had changed hands packers seemed to have their more urgent orders filled, and after that they did not bid quite as strong as they did early in the morning. BRYAN HAS NONE IN MIND.

Isn't a Candidate and Doesn't Have any Name in Mind.

BUFFALO, June 27.—The following over the signature of William J. Bryan appears in the Times, Norman E. Mack's paper, this afternoon:

"I am not only not a candidate for office, but I have not a candidate in my mind for any office. My interest centers in principles and men are only important as they aid in carrying out these principles. "The democratic party stands for definite, positive principles and unless I mistake the sentiment in the masses. the voters will insist on adhering to these principles in spite of the threats of reorganizers. Those who argue from the standpoint of expedience will not have influence with the voters, because no one can say what is expedient. We may deserve to win and yet lose, but it still remains that to deserve to win is the surest road to success."

Ambrose McKny's Case.

Rockbridge, Mo., June 24th:-The neighborhood and particularly the members of Rockbridge Lodge, No. 435, A. F. & A. M., are feeling very much pleased over the recovery of Mr. Ambrose McKay, a prominent citizen and an honored member of the Masonic Fraternity.

Mr. McKay had been suffering for years with Diabetes and Rheumatism, which recently threatened to end his days. His limbs were so filled with pain that he could not sleep. He was very bad.

Just then, someone suggested a new remedy-Dodds Kidney Pills-which has been much advertised recently, as a cure for Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble.

After Mr. McKay had used a few doses he commenced to improve. His pain all left him, and he is almost as well as ever. 'He says Dodd's Kidney Pills are worth much more than they cost. They are certainly getting a great reputation in Missouri, and many very startling cures are being reported.
