The following letters are self-explanatory:
R. G. Wilson, Jr., Lees Summit, Mo.—Please find enclosed draft for $33 and list of subscribers for The Commoner.

C. R. Searle, Montgomery City, Mo.—I have solicited these subscriptions at club rates, as a lover of sound politics. I admire the stand The Commoner takes for the masses, every arguing from the standpoint of right and fairness. I am going to talk up the primary pledge with my neighbors. I am willing to attend the primaries, but I am opposed to being required by a party lash to support the nominee, whether he be good or bad. I am not much of a yellow dog man.

E. J. Geitman, St. Louis, Mo.—I herewith enclose check for $3.00 for the current year. I am pleased to note the universal interest manifested in the good work undertaken by The Commoner, and the success it is meeting with throughout the country. It is exceedingly gratifying to know that the people are at last rising against the tyranny of monopolistic oppression and asserting their rights.

W. H. Cummins of Grandview, Tenn.—Please find enclosed money exchange order for seven names for the one grand Simon pure defender of old time Jeffersonian principles of Democracy—The Commoner.

D. L. Barron of Higbee, Mo.—Enclosed please find P. O. order for $3.00, for which please send The Commoner to parties whose name I enclose. I wish in every honorable way to try and extend The Commoner's influence among our people. I am getting old, but will try to do what good I can while here. I love The Commoner, and am proud to know that I am one of its charter members. Long live The Commoner.

J. V. Slinkard, Zalma, Missouri.—Please find money order for $5.40 to pay for nine subscriptions for The Commoner one year. This makes three clubs of subscribers, in all twenty-one subscribers, I have sent to The Commoner. I wish I could send in many more. There are two republicans in the above list. I live in a very strong republican vicinity, and republicans are not much inclined to take The Commoner. I would to God I could induce many republicans to subscribe for The Commoner and read it, and let them see the folly of their way of voting.

J. C. Pinker of West Point, Nebr.—I herewith enclose $7.20 in payment for twelve subscriptions to The Commoner, ten being renewals and two new subscribers, being 60c each. The new subscribers would appreciate sample copies of The Commoner containing Mr. Bryan's first and second letters.

B. F. Riley of Paradise Valley, Nev.—I send you eight new subscribers, and renew my own. Could have sent more, as subscribers are anxious to get Mr. Bryan's letters. Will send more later. Snow too deep now to get around. Success to Mr. Bryan and The Commoner.

Chas. A. Brothers, Belleplaine, Sask, Canada—I send enclosed $1.00 in payment of my subscription for this year. I would not be without the paper, and keep digesting the contents thoroughly from week to week. I heartily approve of the "primary pledge" plan as it strikes at the very source of the difficulty. My only reason for not signing long ago is that I am not resident in the United States, though it is my fixed purpose to return to Delaware in a few years—perhaps in time for the next presidential contest. The reason for the purpose is to dedicate my time to reforms politically, it being the matter of first interest to me.

Faint Spells

are very often attributed to biliousness, and the stomach is treated to cathartics. That's wrong. Faint spells are often accompanied by biliousness, but you will also notice shortness of breath, asthmatic breathing, oppressed feeling in chest, weak or hungry spells, which are all early symptoms of heart weakness. Don't make the mistake of treating the stomach when the heart is the source of the trouble.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure

will strengthen the nerves and muscles of the heart, and the fainting spells, together with all other heart troubles, will disappear. Four years ago I was very low with heart trouble, could hardly walk. One day I had a fainting spell, and thought I would die. Soon after I began using Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and after taking three bottles I feel that I am cured.—MRS. EFFIE CLOUGH, Ellsworth Falls, Maine. The first bottle will benefit, if not, the druggist will return your money.
