

SURRENDER OF GENERAL LEE

The American Civil War was the most stupendous conflict in all the tide of time. More men were engaged on each side than in any other conflict of ancient or modern history. The surrender of General Lee to General Grant at Appomattox is the climax of important events in this mighty struggle. We may rejoice in having lived to see the day when the sons of those brave soldiers have marched shoulder to shoulder in the Spanish-American War, in defense of one flag—one common country. The picture shown here from Ridpath's History is but ONE of TWO THOUSAND in the complete work, and serves to illustrate but ONE EVENT out of all the THOUSANDS which make up the history of every empire, kingdom, principality and nation, all accurately and entertainingly told in the world-famed publication.

RIDPATH'S HISTORY OF THE WORLD

The PUBLISHER'S FAILURE placed in our hands the entire unsold edition of this monumental work, brand new, down to date, beautifully bound in Half Morocco, which we must sell immediately. We offer the remaining Sets At LESS Than Even DAMAGED SETS Were Ever Sold RIDPATH is recognized as America's greatest historian. He was a strong advocate of the rights and liberties of the common people. In 1896 he was the Democratic Nominee for Congress in his home district, and received the warm support of the Leader of the Party. He was a great man and a great historian. Dr. Ridpath is dead but his work lives. He devoted his entire life to writing the History of the World. It is absolutely accurate and impartial, and commands the admiration of the English speaking world. We will name our price only in direct letters to those sending the coupon below. Tear off the coupon, write name and address plainly and mail now before you forget it. Dr. Ridpath's family derive an income from his History, and to print our price broadcast for the sake of more quickly selling these few sets would cause great injury to future sales. We do not sell through stores or salesmen, but ship direct from factory to customer subject to examination. Entire transaction is by mail. Send Coupon Today.

President William McKinley said: "I am familiar with the merits of Ridpath's History of the World, and cordially commend it to the scholar as well as to the plain people generally."

Jefferson Davis said: "I esteem Ridpath's History of the World of very great value, and hope it will find a place generally in the libraries of our schools, as well as upon the shelves of readers in every walk of life."

Prof. Long Supt. Public Schools, St. Louis, said: "I unhesitatingly commend Dr. Ridpath's History of the World as the ablest work on that subject which I have ever examined."

The Christian Herald said: "No other work of its kind has ever supplied a history so well suited to the needs of all classes and conditions of men. We cheerfully commend this most popular and complete of all world histories to our readers."

Commoner Readers

have shown wonderful appreciation of our remarkable offer. We have shipped this splendid History to delighted readers living in every state of the Union. It is endorsed by the scholarship of the world, and by the great American people as the only History of the World worth having. To read Ridpath's History of the World is to know peoples and races, kingdoms and empires, principalities and powers; to behold senates in session, armies marching, battles fought and victorious legions coming home. Ridpath's History of the World has been purchased and strongly endorsed by General Stephen D. Lee, Commander Confederate Veterans; General Lew Wallace, Commander and noted author; Henry M. Teller, Senator from Colorado; Charles Curtis, Senator from Kansas; and by the Presidents of Brown, Bates, Amherst, Smith and practically all other American colleges and universities. To read this History is to increase your store of knowledge, which is power and to add to the richness of your life.

Fathers, qualify your boys and girls for the great battle of life. It is admitted the best foundation of an education is to acquire the habit of reading good books. Next to the Bible, Ridpath's History of the World is the most valuable work you can place in your home. It will acquaint your children with the great facts of history and give them the habit of reading that which is true and ennobling instead of dime novels and trashy literature. The day must come in the course of events when the chairs of your boy or girl will be empty by your fireside, and they will be out struggling alone in the world. Equip them now for this struggle. It will repay you a thousandfold.

Mothers, you know, as all the world knows, that the success in life of your boys and girls is heaven to you. There is little else in the world worth living for. "Give your boys and girls a chance." Give them an education which will fit them for the stern realities of life. Teach them to love home by making the home so attractive that it is worth loving. Place in your home good, interesting, truthful books for your children. In this day and age of fierce competition it is little short of a misfortune for any boy or girl to grow up without the equipment of a good education, and especially a knowledge of history.
