Rheumatism

A Remarkable Home Treatment Given by One Who Had It

In the year of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-Acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who are thus afflicted know for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, but such relief as I obtained was only temporary. Finally, I found a treatment that cured me completely and such a pitiful condition has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted, even bedridden, some of them seventy to eighty years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from any form of muscular and sub-acute (swelling at the joints) rheumatism, to try the great value of my improved "Home Treatment" for its remarkable healing power. Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it, and it has proven itself to be that long-looked for means of getting rid of such forms of rheumatism, you may send the price of it, One Dollar, but understand I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer, when relief is thus offered you free. Don't delay. Write today.

Straton to Fight Darwinism in Schools

(From New York Times)

The fight in Kentucky against the teaching of Darwinism in public schools may be paralleled by a similar religious crusade in this city starting with a protest by the Executive Committee of the Fundamentalist Movement in the Baptist Church against the teaching of evolution in the public schools as established fact.

Dr. John Roach Straton, a member of the Executive Committee of the Fundamentalist Movement, said yesterday that he was preparing to urge such a protest at the next meeting of the Executive Committee, which will occur, shortly. The issue of Darwinism against the Old Testament may possibly be taken in hand by Commissioner of Accounts Hirshfield, now investigating a protest against propaganda in history texts used in the city schools.

Dr. Straton said that he and many others pastors objected, not to the explanation of the theory but to the fact that evolution was commonly set forth dogmatically as if universally received and established.

"The Fundamentalists organized primarily to fight Darwinism, rationalism and other forms of infidelity in our Baptists schools and in our own pulpits," said Dr. Straton. "The problem of un-Christian teaching in the public school is the same.

"I have always protested against such teaching, but I had no idea the schools were teaching the theories of Darwin as conclusively proved and established. The shock that woke me up came when my own son, a high school boy, who has always believed the Bible, came home one day with figures about the antiquity of man and with theories in conflict with the Bible, I said:

"My son, where did you get that?" "He told me it had been taught to him. I only had to go to the library and take down a few books to show him that the theories as to the age of the earth and the antiquity of man contain the wildest guesses. Professor Ramsey, for instance, says the world is ten billion years old. Lyell makes it something like ninety million years. Other estimates range from ten billion to a few thousand years.

"Some people say they will believe the Bible if it agrees with science. But with what science? That which teaches that the world is ten billion years old or only a few thousand years old and that man has inhabited the earth for only 7,000 years? My son quickly saw he had been misled, but many fathers have not the books handy or the time to controvert such teachings in the schools.

"The latest and best thought of science rejects Darwinism. Many preachers preach Darwinism, but they are behind the times.

"The children of Christian families here and in other parts of the country are being taught one thing in their Sunday schools and the opposite in the public schools. It is time, I believe, for the Fundamentalists to widen the scope of their work, because this subject has not only a religious bearing but a bearing on morals.

"If a boy thinks that he is not a child of God but the descendant of a monkey, he is liable to conduct himself as a brute and to acquire a bestial conception of life."

HAYNES SAYS DRY LAW IS SUCCESS

Milwaukee, May 24.—Prohibition has become so effective, Roy A. Haynes, United States prohibition commissioner, asserted here today, that it is almost impossible for the drinker to obtain anything but "poisonous, doctored stuff." The federal dry law is being enforced with greater success than was ever conceived possible within thirty months, he told the Wisconsin Law Enforcement convention.

"Real bonded liquor is almost impossible to obtain," he said, and added that the "gilded open saloon" is a thing of the past; that even the enemies of prohibition admit that it is gone forever.

Hotels, which before prohibition feared ruin, are now co-operating in enforcement, he reported, and many prominent managers say they do not want the barroom back.

"Purchasers of bootleg liquor themselves know the law is being enforced," said Mr. Haynes. "Officials, federal, state and municipal, the country over, are co-operating to enforce the prohibition amendment."

Commissioner Haynes said that to nullify the amendment would be to set a precedent and make it more easy to nullify any law that may be difficult of enforcement "through propaganda of an un-American prejudice."
