A GREAT NEED

One thought stands out so prominently in our text that I shall leave others to comment upon other parts of it while I ask attention to the plenteitude of the harvest and the labor of the laborers. We have reaped the harvest more plentiful or the seed for laborers greater than now? The veldt is unencumbered by the burden of civilization. It has everything but the one thing that it needs most.

Before the evidences of material waste. When nations meditate on the mastery over the forces of nature? The riddle of the abyss and the heavy down the mountain side are now estimated in units of horsepower; the ocean is once regarded only as a messenger of death; earth is now man's abode. Man once content to dwell on the mountain top he now dwells down thousands of feet in search of fuel and the precious metals, and ascends into the skies with his ships. Inventions have followed fast upon each other until a few centuries past. In 100 years no thousands of arms could not have been done a few centuries ago.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said I had not much chance. Nothing could do me any good. Finally I got into the hands of a quack. I paid a quarter for each bottle of what he sold me, and the rupture never returned. Altogether cost about $3.00. If you are suffering, and the rupture has never returned, trial is worth the stop. I am a carpenter. There was no operation, no medicine, no anything. I bought a bottle and only had to give full information about my case. I tried in a sample. It worked wonders. I paid $3.00. If you write to the above address you will get a copy of the operation. As your case may be very different, the court may not be the same. Better cut out this notice and show it to your doctor. He can save your life or at least stop the leak and relieve the worry and danger of an operation.
