

RAW AS BEEF-STEAK

Baby's Fearful Suffering from Skin Disease Covering Entire Body Cured by Cuticura.

My baby was taken very sick when he was three months old, and in a few days began breaking out. I employed both of the home doctors, and they could do nothing for him. Then we sent for the best doctor in Eaton Rapids, Mich., and he doctoring him for two weeks, and he got worse all the time, and then I took him to Jackson, to a doctor who attended especially to skin disease, and there he got worse than ever. Then I told my husband what better they had. Cuticura Remedies any way did not have any effect, but in less than two months from the time we began giving them to him he was entirely well, and not a spot on him. His hair began coming right off, and we thought he would never be baldheaded. There was not a speck on his whole body, face, and head, only his nose and eyes, but what was as raw as beef-steak. So poor there was not anything but bones, and so weak he could raise neither hand nor head.

Mrs. FRANK BARRIETT, Winfield, Mich.

WENT UP IN FLAMES

About $100,000 Worth of Property Destroyed by Fire.

OPERA HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Plattsmouth Visited by a Disastrous Conflagration--The Work of an Incendiary--Goods of Klein and Murphy Totally Destroyed.

From Monday's Daily.

A few minutes before 2 o'clock Sunday morning the Waterman opera house was discovered to be on fire. The alarm was immediately turned in and the firemen turned out, but could do nothing to save the building. The firemen were kept busy to keep other buildings from being consumed by the flames.

Just before the building was discovered to be on fire an explosion was heard in the opera house on the back part of the stage and almost in an instant the flames were seen issuing from the windows.

Policeman June Black and Henry Tartsch were standing in front of Mayer & Morgan's store when the explosion occurred and they immediately ran out into the street to see what had caused it; when they reached the street the opera house was in a blaze. Tartsch ran to the bell tower to give the alarm and rang the bell two or three times when the rope broke. Then Black began firing his revolver. In the meantime Tartsch had climbed up the tower until he could again reach the rope.

A man who lives in one of Chas. Petersens houses, just back of the opera house, says he saw a light in the opera house about 10 o'clock; he also said that the time the explosion occurred he was up with a sick baby, and as soon as he heard the noise he ran to a window and saw flames coming out of the south side of the building. He says he ran up toward the postoffice and came back and went up the stairs, but the doors were locked. Policeman Black says that he came down and went up the east stairs and the doors were open, and he went upon the stage; that the scenery and stage settings were on fire and burning rapidly and that the fire soon enveloped the entire building.

It is evident that the fire Sunday morning was the result of an incendiary the explosion is attributed to gasoline and the supposition is that a five gallon can was taken up there and a fuse attached to it and when the explosion occurred the gasoline was thrown over the stage which accounts for the rapidity with which the flames spread. The firemen worked like demons and done everything in their power to save the building but before they could reach it, the building was beyond their reach. They were also handicapped by some fiend, who had cut thirteen section of the hose, the rope on the bell tower had also been cut.

When the firemen reached the scene and had their hose attached they were unable to throw water on top of the building, with only two or three streams. This is attributed by a good many to the water company not having the stand pipe full. Along toward the last after a fire had been started at the pump house, they were enabled to throw water with six streams at a time clear over the building.

The water company claim the stand pipe was full and say that the reason they could not throw water was on account of the hose being cut. But let this be as it may, an investigation will in all probability be the result.

The fire was one of the worst ever witnessed in Plattsmouth, and but for the heroic work of the firemen would have resulted even more disastrously. The Anheuser-Busch building was scorched badly and was damaged to the extent of about $400. Philip Thierol's household goods in the Anheuser building were damaged to the extent of about $100, fully insured. The buildings on the north side of the street were badly burned, and were only saved from the flames after a good deal of hard work.

The opera house was built in 1882 by H. A. Waterman & Son. The building and furniture were insured for $24,000. Policies in the following companies were carried: Springfield, $2,000; Home, $5,000; North American, $5,000; Pennsylvania Insurance, $1,000; Hartford, $1,500; Connecticut, $3,500; Etna, $2,500; Phoenix, $2,500. The building cost Mr. Waterman $45,000. M. B. Murphy & Co. had their stock insured for $3,000, and Joe Klein's stock was insured for $12,000. Nothing was saved from the two stores except the stuffed pelican which Joe had in his show window, belonging to Judge Chapman.

The books of Klein and Murphy were in the sales and are thought to be safe.

The fire was about one hour in consuming the building. The southwest corner wall was the first to fall, followed in a few minutes by the front part, then the east, then the entire west wall fell with a terrible crash. The south wall stood up until last evening, although several attempts were made to blow it up with dynamite, but all efforts were fruitless. The wall stood until the storm came up last evening and the wind laid it low.

The burning of the opera house is not only a heavy loss to the owners but is a greater loss to the city, and it is to be hoped that it will be rebuilt immediately.

"Uncle" Ned, who has been running a stand near the opera house, lost everything during the fire. A collection has been started and Ned will be able to start up as soon as he finds a suitable location.

To Start Again.

H. A. Waterman & Son have made this proposition: They will give towards building a new opera house $10,000, furnish the foundation and what material can be used if the citizens of the city will furnish the rest of the money; and the prospects are very bright for the enterprise to go through.

Joe Klein will open up as soon as he can find a store room and get the goods here. In the meantime his office will be at F. S. White's store.

M. B. Murphy & Co., will start up with a larger and better stock than he has heretofore carried. Mr. Murphy informed a reporter that he has already secured a room and would open up as soon he could stock up.

Mr. Gutman, the man who was to occupy the west room of the opera house block as a wholesale and retail liquor store will remain in the city and open his place as soon as he can secure a room.

The above named persons have lots of confidence in Plattsmouth. One of the men who was burned out said that he had so much confidence in the city that if he had $20,000 he would invest it in Plattsmouth property. Plattsmouth needs no better advertisement than the above. To have all those men who were burned out start immediately in business again speaks volumes for the city.

Ready to Return.

The first important break in the ranks of the skilled laborers of Homestead is likely to take place to-day. Saturday night there was a meeting of twenty-five of the skilled men, several of them members of the amalgamated association. The situation was discussed and it was decided that there was no hope of winning the strike. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Potter, the superintendent, to ask him on what terms they might come back. The committee called yesterday and was cordially received by Mr. Potter, who told them of the rules the company had adopted as to the treatment of the strikers and that he meant to adhere to them. If they would abide by these rules he could find places for them. They expressed themselves favorably and said there would be another meeting to-day, when they would make their report. The committee thought the terms would be accepted and that the twenty-five would go to work.

Mr. Potter, in an interview, said: "I think the break is coming very soon. By the end of the week we will probably have as many men as we can provide places for."

Henry McCarthy Drowned.

Yesterday morning Henry McCarthy, the 14-year-old son of Con Carthy, in company with several other boys about his age, went down to what is called "Rocky Point" to go swimming. From what can be learned young McCarthy went out too far and the current caught him and rapidly carried him down stream. Just as he was carried by the middle pier of the bridge he went under, and his body has not yet been found. A large party has been searching along the river with the hope that the strong current of the river would carry him down to a sand bar where it is thought his body would lodge. Up to the time of going to press no tidings have been heard that would throw any consolation upon the heart broken parents. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the citizens of Plattsmouth in their sad affliction.

Some of Plattsmouth's capitalists should accept Mr. Waterman's proposition. Fifteen thousand dollars, with the amount that Mr. Waterman will furnish, will put up as good, if not better, an opera house than the old one.

TO PAVE WITH BRICK

Sixth Street Will Be Paved With Brick.

COUNCIL REFUSED TO PRO-RATE

The Council Also Granted the General Electric Light and Power Company a Franchise--Sidewalks to be Repaired.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The city council met in special session last night, with Mayor Butler, Clerk Fox and Councilmen Petersen, Lake, Longenhagen, Minor, Murphy, Spies, D. M. Jones, Steinkor and Graves present, W. D. Jones coming in later.

A communication was read from the chief of the fire department asking the council to purchase 1,000 feet of new hose and also three new lanterns for the use of the department. The communication was referred to the committee on fire and water, with instructions to procure the necessary articles.

A petition from the property owners on Sixth street was presented and read, asking that Sixth street be paved with first-class paving brick.

An ordinance was read requiring the curbing of paving district No. 2.

Murphy moved that the board of public works be authorized to advertise for bids for the paving and curbing of said Sixth street and that the engineer be authorized to furnish an estimate.

On motion the street commissioner was ordered to widen the southeast part of Sixth street at the corner of Pearl so that the ground would have time to settle before the time to pave.

Mr. Donnelly asked the council to move the water trough at the intersection of Sixth and Pearl streets. The request was granted.

An ordinance granting the General Electric Light and Power company of Chicago a franchise was, upon motion, read by sections. On motion of Murphy the words "three months" were stricken out and "sixty days" substituted in section six. It was moved that another section be added compelling the company to complete their works within six months and that said works should be inside of the city limits. Carried.

On motion the ordinance was put upon its second and third reading on final passage.

The streets, alleys and bridges committee reported favorably on condemning certain property south of the B. & M. shops for a public highway. Upon motion of Minor the matter was laid over until the Spencer matter was settled.

The bond of L. Gutman was read and approved; also a license issued.

Minor moved that the license be pro-rated. Jones of the Second amended that he should pay $1,000. The amendment carried.

The engineer was instructed to furnish an estimate on the sewer in order that the council could advertise for bids for the construction of the sewer the same time they advertised for bids for paving.

The engineer was also authorized to make an estimate for sidewalk on Granite to Maiden Lane.

The streets, alleys and bridges committee was instructed to have the sidewalks over the entire city repaired immediately.

On motion the council adjourned.

A Shooting Affair.

Last evening about six o'clock a shooting affray occurred at Mercerville, wherein George W. Sawtelle shot George Casford and his son.

From the particulars at hand the shooting was caused over some lumber, that Casford had borrowed from Sawtelle. Sawtelle had been drinking yesterday and meeting Casford, asked him when he was going to return the lumber. After a few more words Sawtelle picked up a shotgun he had in his wagon and told him if he didn't bring it back he would blow his head off. Casford drove on and had got about thirty feet when Sawtelle fired both barrels at him. Part of the shot struck him in the back and part struck his boy.

Casford went before Judge Ramsey and caused a warrant to be sworn out charging him with shooting with the intent to kill. The warrant was placed in Constable Kroehler's hands, but as yet he has failed to capture his man. Sawtelle packed up his goods and silently left for parts unknown last night.

Neither Mr. Casford or son were seriously injured.

Joseph Adams returned to Hayeslock this morning, after visiting his family couple of days.

CLERK CAMPBELL OF THE SUPREME COURT WAS IN TOWN LAST NIGHT.

John A. Davies returned home last night from his western trip.

D. Honan, editor of the Railway Reporter of Omaha, passed through the city this morning.

Joe Klein and M. B. Murphy & Co. opened their sales this morning. The books in Joe's safe were searched somewhat, but not seriously, and Murphy's were soaked with water.

Colonel George B. Nann, formerly of the Elkhorn Exchange, has "hired out" to the Plattsmouth News, and it is rumored that something besides the situation attracted him thither. Lincoln Journal.

Superintendent Coursey informed THE HERALD today that the company would extend its mains two blocks north on Eleventh from Elm street; also the mains will be extended one block on south Tenth street and one block on south First street.

Word came from Lincoln to-day that the little girl of Jos. Mrashek had died at the Home of the Friendless. Mr. Mrashek is an employe of the B. & M. at this place. His wife died last winter, leaving five motherless children. The youngest, which just died, was taken to the Home of the Friendless.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Patterson, Misses Mia Gering, Amelia and Maggie Valley, Flora Donovan, Julia Herrmann, Mary McClelland, Aldora Clark and Messrs. Henry Gering, W. J. Straight, Charles Spencer, A. E. Barrett, Frank McClelland and Paul Polk composed a jolly party that departed this morning for Lake Wabonsie on a fishing excursion.

Judge Archer's Court.

Mrs. Trotman was fined $5 and costs this morning by Judge Archer for using obscene language and disturbing the peace.

Sam Henderson vs. A. C. Spencer is on trial this afternoon. C. S. Polk is prosecuting and J. S. Mathews defending.

Henry Bons vs. Mart Buttery. Settled and dismissed, plaintiff paying the costs.

Mary E. Longhagen caused a warrant to be sworn out for the arrest of Mrs. P. Trotman for using obscene language and disturbing the peace. The case will be called at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Sights That Surprise.

Hon. John C. Watson entertained Hon. R. B. Windham, president of the Plattsmouth board of trade, Judge Chapman and Editor Peterson, of the Journal, Friday. He drove them about the city, and showed them the many sights of industry which our city has above all others. They were highly surprised with such plants as the cereal mills and the starch works and expressed themselves as having been hitherto ignorant that the city had such great industries. He then drove the honored guests to Arbor Lodge, where J. St. John entertained them until leaving on the afternoon train for their home in the pretty city of Plattsmouth. Nebraska City Press.

W. H. Humphrey vs. J. W. Cragner is the title of a case filed with the district clerk to-day.

AMERICAN PEOPLE ACCUSED.

In his speech notifying Cleveland of his nomination, Wilson, of West Virginia, addressed the following "hifalutin" remark to the democratic candidate:

Four years ago in the mid-career of a service that will deserved the highest honors your countrymen could bestow, as feel sure that it will receive the highest encomiums that history can award, you were struck down because as a democrat you could make no terms with those who wished to plunder the people's treasury, or those who sought to perpetuate the passion of civil strife.

Now, it must be remembered that it was the whole American people that Cleveland threw his free trade message full in the face of. It is true that, after having done so, he tried and his friends in every way tried, to make terms with the offended American people, but they declined to be conciliated. And now this smart Mr. Wilson has the impertinence to say to the nation that its refusal to be conciliated was due to a purpose to "plunder the people's treasury" and "perpetuate the passions of civil strife."

CLEVELAND affirms "I am a democrat" but the Manhattan club boys don't rank him as high as Adled Stevenson. Cleveland went home and Adled stayed it out with the boys.

Mr. WILSON (in Madison Square Garden)--Mr. Cleveland, you are nominated for president by the democratic convention.

G. Cleveland--Great Heavens! This is so sudden and unexpected. Excuse these emotions.
