

Alvo Department

P. J. Lynch has been making some repairs to his garage in the shape of repairs on the roof.

Dr. L. Muler was a visitor in Lincoln last Tuesday, where he was called on professional business.

Earl Rosenow, who is working at the Havelock shops for the Burlington, was a visitor at his home in Alvo over last Sunday.

George Browne and wife, of South Bend, where Mr. Browne is an operator for the Rock Island, were visiting in Alvo on last Tuesday between trains.

Mrs. J. P. Rouse was a visitor for the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Wiley and family at Union, where she enjoyed a visit for most of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Boyles have been visiting at McCook for the past week or more, they having driven out in their car to visit for a time with their son, Dale Boyles and family.

On account of the very inclement weather and the down pour of rain on last Sunday, the exercises of Children's day at the Methodist church were postponed until the following Sunday.

Arthur Dinges and wife were seeing the sights of the tornado which recently passed through this portion of the state, last Sunday, and went as far as Syracuse, following the course of the storm, but found much of the wreckage cleared away by the time they got there.

It is said that during the recent storm last Sunday, a young man went to see his "Delcina Del Tabosa" and as he had to walk from the country and had on his head shoes he had to get them all muddy or pull them off and return home in his bare feet. Still this saved the shoes getting ruined.

John Skinner was visiting on last Sunday at South Bend, seeing the fisheries and was accompanied by Mr. Eddie Craig and Miss Irene Friend. Their pleasure for the day was cut short by the violent rain storm which suddenly came up and spoiled the day, though it helped the oats and pasture.

The Rock Island is having the station at Alvo painted and is doing it in the regulation way, the change from the old style red to green, and a base of dark green trimmed in white makes a very beautiful appearance. The stations at South Bend and Murdock have just been done in the same way.

C. D. Ganz, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants bank of Alvo, an attorney, was a visitor in Plattsmouth last Wednesday morning, where he was looking after some legal business at the court house, as well as visiting with friends. While he was away, Mrs. Ganz was looking after the business at the bank.

John Skinner was a visitor in Omaha on last Tuesday, taking a load of hogs to market for Henry Miller and Frank Daucherty, and bringing a load of binding twine back for Roy Coatsman, so he will be prepared for the harvest which is not far away. Notwithstanding the smallness of the harvest which is approaching and very rapidly at that, the Coatsman Hardware company is keeping prepared for all the needs of the farmers.

W. H. Warner a Rustler
W. H. Warner, who is just rounding out three quarters of a century of good honest work, this spring two-rowed 250 acres of corn in good shape, and at this time is assisting on the farm of Lantz Clites, where he is plowing corn and building bridges which have been washed out by the recent rains.

Gets a Bird from West
Mrs. L. E. Appleman is in receipt of a South American parrot, which a cousin sent her from California, and which she is enjoying very much teaching the bird to talk properly. For with the parrot it is like the child—it is easier to learn the other things than what is desired. The first thing the foreigner learns when coming to this country is how to swear.

Pastor and Bride Here
The Rev. Edgar Stoeffer, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, was married in Lincoln a short time since and came to Alvo to live following the closing of the school, at which Rev. Stoeffer was a student, and are making their home here. The news was fast noised around of their just being married, and the friends in Alvo arranged a demonstration of their friendship by going to their home and giving the newlyweds a serenade, otherwise known as a charivari, which the folks all enjoyed and a treat from the pastor was soon forthcoming in recognition of the music provided by the crowd of friends.

Are Attending Campfire
A number of the young ladies who are members of the Campfire Girls of Alvo, departed for Crete last Sunday, where they went for a season of camp life extending over about two weeks.

John Skinner took the girls over last Sunday and encountered so much rain that he was not able to get back until Monday.

There were with the crowd as their sponsor, Mrs. Lyle Miller, while Misses Pauline and Evelyn Shavely, Ethel Coatsman, Elma Hardcock, Thelma Foreman, Clarice Kitzel, Audrey Stromer, Pauline Johnson and Mrs. Ellis Mickel.

Here from the West
Mrs. George L. Stone and little son, Gene La Vene, of Los Angeles, are in Alvo visiting at the home of Mr. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone. This is baby Gene La Vene's first visit to his fond grandparents, and they think no baby in the land so grand. There have been several dinner parties and social affairs in honor of Mrs. Stone and baby Gene during their stay here. Mrs. Stone is very popular for her lovely whistling and she has favored the ladies' club with a number of solos which were greatly appreciated. Mr. Stone will arrive the last week in June to accompany his wife and baby Gene La Vene back home.

LEGION AUXILIARY NAMES DELEGATES TO STATE MEETING
Pleasant Meeting Held Yesterday at Home of Mrs. John Lutz—To Hold Outdoor Meeting.
From Saturday's Daily—
The June meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lutz, was well attended and a good deal of routine business was transacted, including the selection of delegates and alternates to represent the local unit at the state convention in Columbus next month.

The delegates named are Mrs. Lotte R. Gobelman, district committee woman; Mrs. Henry Lescock, Sr. and Mrs. Thomas Walling, Jr., secretary of the local unit. The alternates are Mrs. James Rebal, Mrs. Olive Johnson, Mrs. Ed Fullerton and Mrs. Wm. Kravitz.

The Plattsmouth unit has shown a very pleasing growth in membership and is one of the largest and liveliest in the first district and at the state convention should have little difficulty in landing a berth on the delegation to the national meeting in Omaha this fall, for one of our local members.

They will also take to the state meeting some helpful ideas along the line of relief work, in which the local unit has been especially active. Disabled veterans in Government hospitals have been provided for generously thru money raised locally by the sale of poppies and other enterprises, including the contribution of individual members at the various social meetings and the Plattsmouth unit has earned for itself well deserved praise and recognition of good work it is carrying on.

It is planned to hold the July and August meetings out of doors, so the members can enjoy a sort of picnic as they gather to discuss their business problems and other matters for the good of the Auxiliary.

The meeting was brought to a fitting climax by the serving of delicious refreshments by the hostess.

WELL BELOVED GIRL ENTERS INTO LAST REST
Edith Knutson Passes Away After Months of Illness Borne with Greatest Fortitude.
The people of Louisville and vicinity were shocked and saddened Sunday morning to receive the news of the passing of Miss Edith Knutson, at 8 o'clock, at the M. E. hospital in Omaha, after more than a year of ill health.

She was always one of the great favorites of the town since her early girlhood. She was a splendid student and was a member of the graduating class of the Louisville High school of 1924. Just before Commencement, she was taken ill and was unable to go with her final graduation exercises, much to her own disappointment and that of her teachers and classmates. From that time she never regained her health, although her friends did not lose hope for many weary months.

Her family visited her often and regularly in the hospital, as did also her friends, and the nurses and physicians at the institution gave her the most devoted and untiring care, all of which she appreciated greatly and expressed her gratitude frequently.

Her mother went up to visit her Tuesday before her death and found her not so well and she remained with her until the end which the doctors assured her was approaching, and she failed steadily until death came as a release from further suffering. She was brought home the same day and friends and neighbors did all in their power to aid and comfort the sorrowing family and minister to them in their sad affliction.

Edith Knutson was born in Louisville on April 3, 1906, and at the time of her death she was 19 years, 2 months and 11 days old. She was naturally of a very lovable disposition, was kind to the aged and to children and her passing away has brought sorrow to the entire community who loved her so well. The funeral occurred on Tuesday afternoon from the M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. David Simpson officiating and the church was filled with sorrowing friends assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to this beautiful young girl. Interment was in the family lot in River View cemetery.

She leaves, besides her mother, four brothers and two sisters. They are Clyde, Charles, William and Arthur. Mrs. Rudolph Meisinger and Dorothy Knutson.—Louisville Courier.

A TALK WITH A PLATTSMOUTH MAN

Mr. Hassler Tells Something of Interest to Plattsmouth Folks.

Wm. Hassler, proprietor of the blacksmith shop on North Fifth opposite the postoffice, and who resides at the corner of 5th and Oak streets, Plattsmouth, says: "Straining work weakened my back and sharp stitches took me across my kidneys. My back was stiff and lame at times. I used Doan's Pills for Weyrich & Hadraba's drug store and they strengthened my back." (Statement given May 13, 1920).

On November 10, 1924, Mr. Hassler said: "I find that in my advanced years, an occasional use of Doan's Pills keeps me feeling my best at all times."

Mr. Hassler is only one of many Plattsmouth people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for kidneys, get Doan's Pills for DOAN'S PILLS, the same that Mr. Hassler had—the remedy backed by home testimony, 60 cents at all dealers. THIS DISTRICT TO RETAIN ITS ABLE JUDGE

Decision of Governor McMullen Will Allow Judge Begley to Serve People of This District.

While the apparent decision of Governor McMullen not to appoint Judge Begley on the supreme court commission has been somewhat of a disappointment to the residents of the district, who had considered the distinguished jurist a fit member for the state supreme bench, all who are acquainted with the affairs of the district court are greatly pleased that our judge will retain his place here and continue to give the people of this district a just and fair hearing of their troubles and litigation.

The district judgeship pays the great salary as the commission and appointment to the residents of the district there is not more to attract anyone to that position from the district bench. Judge Begley is just starting in on another term on the bench to which he was elected last fall and which will cover a four year term while the life of the commission will be but for two years.

Judge Begley has proven a fearless and just judge on the bench and his firmness and decision in times of great stress and which will demonstrate that he is one man that has proven a real protector of the interests of the people of his district. When convinced of the righteousness of a cause he is not afraid to take a firm stand for it.

He has been recognized by all of the leading lawyers of the state. That the district judge will remain in the same place, and handle the handling of legal affairs of the district here.

NEBRASKA MAN NAMED HEAD OF OF ELECTRIC CO.

J. E. Davidson of Omaha Selected as President by the National Electric Light Association.

Nebraska was honored yesterday at the forty-eighth annual national convention of the National Electric Light Association, held in San Francisco, when J. E. Davidson of Omaha, was elected president of the national association.

Mr. Davidson, since his residence in Nebraska, has taken an active interest in civic and club affairs. In 1922, when a movement was started to encourage the use of Nebraska potatoes in Nebraska, Mr. Davidson took a leading part in carrying on this movement.

Mr. Davidson began his career in the electrical industry in the boiler room of the power plant at Port Huron, Mich.

His first job was machine operator. He rose step by step until he became superintendent of this plant. He was then twenty years old.

Mr. Davidson came to Nebraska from Portland, Oregon, where he was vice president and general manager of the Pacific Power and Light Co.

Since his residence in Omaha he has made a remarkable record. Because of his active interest in civic and club life, he has gathered about him a large number of close friends and a vast acquaintance, not only in Omaha but throughout the state.

He was chairman of the state campaign committee which raised $250,000 for Father Flanagan's orphan boys' home and was one of the leading men in the campaign in which $1,000,000 was raised for a new Elks club building.

Mr. Davidson has always taken an active interest in the electric light and power industry, and has contributed many valuable technical articles to power and light magazines.

While working at Port Huron, Mich., Mr. Davidson was well acquainted with the father of Thomas Edison. Thomas Edison originally came from Port Huron.

This honor given to Mr. Davidson places a Nebraska man in the highest position in the electric light and power industry of the world.

Mr. Davidson won international renown last year when, as chairman of the lighting educational committee of the National Electric Light Association, he sponsored and directed the International Better Home Lighting Campaign and essay contest in the United States and Canada.

As a result of this campaign for better light, it is estimated that millions of eyes of the youth of Canada and the United States have been saved from becoming defective.

Dufco, president of the bank he is connected with, and fitting himself by outside study to qualify as an attorney.

The A. N. Dufco office handles a line of business which is usually done by a trust company and Mr. Hunter's duties in the firm cover work in law, abstracts, loans, lands and insurance.—Weeping Water Republican.

W. W. WILSON OF NEBRASKA CITY TO BE COMMISSIONER

Governor McMullen, It Is Stated, Has Decided on Prominent Lawyer for Bench; Well Known Here.

While the official announcement of the names of the new supreme court commission is not to be made until sometime today, it was stated at Lincoln last evening, the hope is that Governor McMullen is to name W. W. Wilson of Nebraska City, as one of the members of the new branch of the state high court.

The appointment of Judge Wilson, while it is one that will be generally approved by the residents of this judicial district, also a disappointment to the friends of Judge James T. Begley, who had been mentioned in connection with the forthcoming appointment.

The decision of the governor as stated Saturday was not to appoint any of the members of the district court bench in the state, avoiding the complications that would follow the creation of vacancies on the benches. This decision was one that would eliminate Judge Begley, as well as others of the very highly qualified judges over the state, and following which there was much speculation as to who would receive the office from the first district.

It is said that the governor in his action was moved by two other reasons for not asking the distinguished judge of the second district to accept the place on the commission, the first being that the taking of Judge Begley from the district court position would lead to a very warm and bitter struggle over the district judgeship, and also that considerable pressure from political sources had been made on the governor following bitter feeling aroused in Cass county in the recent grand jury investigations and the resultant removal of former Sheriff Quinton and the indictment and conviction of several others by the district court. To avoid the very hot struggle that was certain to follow in the second district the governor has evidently decided to take the easiest course and name Judge Wilson.

In the intense fight that was made in 1912 at the time of the death of Judge Harvey D. Travis, Judge Wilson was one of the candidates for the vacancy and which was one of the most bitter struggles ever staged in the state and resulted in Governor Morehead naming Judge Begley, then county judge of Sarpy county to the position rather than any of the active candidates.

Judge Wilson was county attorney of Otoe county from 1899 to 1903, county judge from 1910 to 1912 and city attorney of Nebraska City from 1915 to 1920. He has had a wide practice of law in Otoe county and has kept well up on all legal matters. He has a son in the University of Nebraska and a daughter who will probably enter the institution next fall. It is possible that the family will reside in Lincoln, where Judge Wilson will find it necessary to remain a large part of his time, although this is a matter to be decided later.
