FITHE SUBSCRIBER is now prepared to fur-I nish Farmers and others with his "GRAIN SEPARATOR," particularly of the merits of these Machines, as they are too well known throughout the country to need extelling; but the fact that they have heretofore and Washington City, Richmond, Cincinnati, Louisville, ing to receive the pren niums at the State and County Fairs where they have been exhibited is | Ky. sufficient to induce all those in want of such a Machine, to purchase one of these,

At a practical test of this Separator in competition with the best of those made in England, in 1853, it received the highest commendations of the press, and of the leading a grigulturalists of that country. I have a large number of them on hand, ready for connections for all the above-named points. the coming crop, made of the best material, and warranted to do good work.

I have made many valuable improven in warranting them superior to any in use.
I am also preparing a large number of Crawford's

Improved Clover Hullers, natented in 1854, which are greatly superior to his patent of 1844, being in itself feeder, and greatly affect of it in other respects. They will be manufactured under the immediate supervision of the patentee, who has permanently located in this place. The above out represents my four horse "Separa-tor," and is designed especially for the farmer's own

CENTRIFUGAL PUMPS. FINE undersigned, sole agents for the South and West, for the sale of the above Pumps, would respectfully call the attention of miners, manufacturers, railroad companies, and steamboatmen, to the superior advantages these pumps possess over all others heretefore brought before the public. Among their chief recommendations may be mentioned the

They are less liable to get out of order than any They have less friction and are consequently more

They are not affected by mud or sand, and will force water to almost any height. They will raise more water per minute with the same power, and same priced pump than any other ever invented. These are facts. They are sold by the undersigned at the manufacturer's New York prices, with the cost of transportation added. They are warranted to give entire satisfaction. All sizes on hand. Letters promptly answered and information given by EADS & NELSON, No. 252 North Main st., St. Louis.

LITTELLS' LIVING AGE. Extracts of Letters from Judge Story, Chancellor

Kent, and President Adams. CAMBRIDGE, April 27, 1844. I have read the prospectus with the greatest pleasure; and entirely approve the plan. If it can only obtain the public patronage long enough, and large Nos. 170 and 172 Main St., St. Louis. enough, and securely enough, to attan its true ends, it will contribute in an eminent degree to give a healthy tone, not only to our literature but to public opinion. It will enable us to possess, in a moderate impass, a select library of the best productions of the age. It will do more: it will redeem our periodical literature from the reproach of being devoted to light and superficial reading, to transitory speculations, to sickly and ephemeral sentimentalities, and false and extravagant sketches of life and character.
