Letter from Nemaha City.
EDITOR ADVERTISER:—I think it a mistaken idea that the Democrats should be compelled to vote for a ticket cut and dried by the officers and stockholders of the First National Bank, Tom Majors, Bill Daily, Old Oily Gannon (Dr. McComas), Bratton, Broody, Hackney & Co. Most of the Democrats named above a few short years since bolted the Peoples' candidates for county offices and voted the straight Republican ticket, thereby defeating some of the best Democrats we have in the county, for the simple reason that they could not control the convention that nominated them, but this is a horse of a different color, they controlled this convention and put their men in nomination away from Brownville in order that next fall, old Oily Gannon can say to the dear people that Brownville had no candidates last fall, therefore you must nominate Frank Johnson for treasurer and Joe Ducker for clerk this fall. I should presume that most of the Independent Democrats would vote—the Democratic state ticket—and let the Republicans fight over the county nominations by themselves. DEMOCRAT.

It would materially help the trade of South Auburn if a road was opened due eastward on Nemaha street to the highland on the east side of the Nemaha, onward to Smith Thompson's. This of course would involve the building of a bridge on the Nemaha, but the road is, or will be found ere long a necessity because of its convenience to travel and settlers on both sides of the Nemaha river. Our citizens should get up a petition and make a vigorous move in the matter.

In the streets of Knoxville, Tenn., a few days ago Gen. Jos. A. Mabry, jr., a lawyer, and Thos. O'Connor, president of a bank and reputed to be the wealthiest man in the state, fought with pistols and all three were killed.

The Republicans of the Oregon legislature last week elected a Mr. Dolph U. S. Senator. He is a brilliant lawyer and president of a railroad.

NEMAHA CITY LOCALS.

Beautiful October weather. The farmer not "behind with his work" is gathering corn.
Kenyon Skeen, who not long ago removed to Denver, doesn't like Denver, and has moved back.
The mongrel ticket isn't carrying everything before it—not much. Even delegates that helped nominate it, denounce it as a "cut and dry" affair and instead of being in the interest of reform and purity, is not only inferior to the other ticket, but was conceived in iniquity and brought forth in corruption; and is utterly unworthy the support of honest men, either Democrats or Republicans.
Lem Cummings from Auburn has taken charge of the boarding house recently run by Blankenship.
Don't let politics obliterate from the tablets of your memory that Titus & Williams are now opening their fall stock of merchandise, and sell goods a little cheaper than anybody else.
Times: Walter Hadlock bought a barrel McCormick potatoes last spring, and raised from them 118 bushels of fine large potatoes, and it wasn't a good year for potatoes, either. The McCormick is said to be an excellent late potato.
A daughter and grand-daughter of Dr. Crim's, from Peoria, Ill., has been visiting him for a week or so.
Mr. Charles Welton and Miss Jennie Barns, daughter of the old settler, Mr. John Barns, were united in wedlock on the 25th ult. We wish the young husband and wife happiness and prosperity.
The itinerant photographer is in town.
The road on the bottom west of the bridge at the Nemaha mill, is being greatly improved.
Bender has employed an experienced clerk in his drug store.
Go to Bender's for your drugs, medicines and anything kept in a drug store.
Nemaha is steadily improving.
Operations on Hoover's block have been suspended until next spring.
The main string being pulled here by the fusionists is the temperance question, and so we believe it is all over the county. It is not the "Iowa ticket" now nearly so much as the "temperance ticket." The prejudices of every one at all opposed to the prevalence of temperance, is being appealed to. The disgusting feature of the matter is that old "pillars" in the cause who have harped all their lives on the theme of temperance, are now proposing to vote fusion and against the decent temperance men on the Republican ticket. We are beginning to think that all temperance men are hypocrites, like Andy Skeen, and the doctrine a delusion and a snare.
We are not so blinded by party prejudice, or zeal for the triumph of Republican principles, as not to see that the Republican ticket is in great danger of being defeated. We calculate that three-fourths of the Democratic party, the united, well organized opposition to temperance and prohibition, combined with the Howe haters and temperance men recent to their professions, will vote against the Republican ticket. This makes a combination so formidable as to make Republican success doubtful. Republicans and square men of all parties—who would prefer to see men of good principles placed in positions to serve the people—had better see the situation as it exists, and act accordingly. We believe that there are enough of such in Nemaha county to rebuke the rascality about to be foisted on the people, but will they do it? The matter is in their hands. They can sleep on their posts; they can let the case go by default; they can stay away from the polls; and in various ways help the enemy. But we hope every friend of open and fair mid-day instead of mid-night politics, will see and feel the importance of diligence and effective work until the polls are closed Tuesday evening. Without this, unless appearances are very deceptive, the dirtiest combinations that ever played a part in Nemaha county, will trample upon virtue, decency and good order.
Missouri Justice reached a truly historic climax at independence the other day. A strolling theatrical company was brought by the sheriff of Jackson county before his august majesty, Frank James, and played for his delectation "The Banker's Daughter." The audience expressed himself as very well pleased with the entertainment.
Once Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, bothered Senator Logan by repeatedly moving amendments to one of the latter's bills. Logan, becoming exasperated, said: "I believe the Senator would amend the Lord's Prayer." "Certainly," retorted Ingalls, "I move to amend after the word 'bread' a whole bill of fare."
The independent party, my boy, is the party that got scooped in the convention.—Hawkeye.
